ON SEVEN SPECIFICATIONS.

Court-martial at Annapolis Takes up Case of Desaussure, Charged With Hazing.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ANNAPOLIS (Md.) Jan. 30.—The court-martial in the case of Richard Desaussure of Charleston, S. C., charged with hazing on seven specifications, was begun today. The hazing was alleged to have been done during September last, when Desaussure, with others, was compelled to lose a part of his leave on account of delinquency in his studies.

Capt. C. P. Reese, president of the court-martial trying cases of hazing at the Naval Academy, was informed by telegraph tonight of the sudden illness of his son in a northern city. Capt. and Mrs. Reese will leave Annapolis tomorrow morning. It is thought the sessions of the court will be suspended.

SUES FOR "FIRE INSURANCE TRUST."

LINCOLN, Jan. 30.—A suit was filed in this State today to oust the "fire insurance trust" from Nebraska. The suit was brought in the name of Burton H. and Chas. A. Shoemaker, who have had private litigation with one of the companies, but it is said an organized effort on the part of several Nebraska business men to expose trust-law violations by leading fire insurance companies of the country. It is contended that there is an agreement between the companies, contrary to law, and that rates are kept up by means of this combination.

M'CALL IS CHANGED.

His Illness Alarms His Friends.

Former President of the New York Life is Incapable of Talking Business.

Depew's Resignation as Director Before the Equitable for Action Today.

Senator Armstrong Accuses the State Printers of Delaying Work.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Friends of John A. McCall are much distressed because of his failure to rally from the serious illness with which he was stricken, several weeks ago, directly after his retirement from the presidency of the New York Life Insurance Company. McCall signed his letter of resignation while propped up with pillows and suffering intense pain from an acute attack of congestion, both of the lungs and the liver. Two consultations of physicians were held at the time, in which Dr. E. G. Janeway and the family physician, Dr. John Vanderpool took part.

One of McCall's close friends said today: "The danger of pneumonia was eliminated from the case long ago, but Mr. McCall's condition remains far from satisfactory to his friends and family. He still suffers from the affection of the liver, and though he is no longer confined to his bed, he is very much of an invalid, and is so weak that it is practically impossible for anybody to converse with him on topics of business. Until recently he had always enjoyed uncommonly rugged health, and had hardly known illness in any form, but his friends now begin to fear that he will never again be the John A. McCall of old."

"Mr. McCall has been able to go out for a drive once or twice," said one of his physicians, "and it is true that he is far from being well, but the fact remains that his condition under treatment is showing distinct improvement, and there is good reason to hope for still further improvement in the immediate future."

There will be meetings tomorrow of the boards of trustees of both the Equitable and the Mutual Life Insurance companies. It is expected that the Equitable board will accept the resignation of Senator Depew as a director, and there are rumors of one or two changes in the executive department. These are likely to be in the nature of promotions, however, and not of a sensational character. Paul Morton has authorized an unqualified denial of reports to the effect that he was likely to be withdrawn from the Equitable presidency to represent the Ryan interests in the Municipal-Interborough Railway combination. It is not likely that tomorrow's meeting of the Mutual Life trustees will make public the report of that company's house-cleaning committee.

ARMSTRONG ACCUSES PRINTER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ALBANY (N. Y.) Jan. 30.—After a lively hearing, in which charges and threats were freely exchanged between Chairman Armstrong of the insurance investigating committee and representatives of the Brandow Printing Company, the State Legislative printers, the Senate Finance Committee voted to report favorably in the Senate tomorrow the bill of Senator Armstrong, authorizing his committee to have printed 5000 copies of the testimony taken in the insurance investigation at a cost not exceeding $20,000.

Senator Armstrong made charges of intentional delays by the printers, and told of an alleged deal between the committee's stenographer and the State Printer, whereby, he said, the stenographer, using the committee's stationery, had sent out 900 circular letters offering testimony in printed form for sale at $150 per set, the stenographer to receive 40 per cent. commission. The committee compelled the cancelling of what orders had been received.

"If we printed 50,000 copies," said Senator Armstrong, "there would not be enough to fill the requests which have been coming in from all sections of the United States and from foreign countries as well."

Thomas P. Fowler, chairman of the investigating committee appointed by the trustees of the New York Life Insurance Company, announced tonight that the committee had secured an accounting from Andrew Hamilton, who was in charge of the company's legislative interests, of the various large sums expended by him. The accounting was made in Paris, he added, and the papers are now on their way to this country. Awaiting their arrival and examination, the meeting of the Board of Trustees to hear the Fowler report has been postponed from tomorrow on February 8.

"We have succeeded in getting an accounting from Mr. Hamilton," said Fowler, "and because of that we have asked that the meeting of the trustees be postponed until Thursday of next week. President Orr has ordered the postponement. In other respects, our report on the investigation we have made is well in hand, but these Hamilton accounts are regarded as being of such great importance that we desire to go over and digest them thoroughly before making our report."

GATES KILLING "LONG" STOCKS.

HIS DEED PREMEDITATED AND VERY PROFITABLE.

Congressional Resolution of Mr. Gillespie to Investigate the Pennsylvania Road Inspired by John W. Who Went and Told His Friends.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John W. Gates and his followers have made a killing in the past four days in the stock market, on the strength of the Congressional resolution to investigate the Pennsylvania road which was introduced by Mr. Gillespie of Texas. It is charged by financiers that this resolution and others like it that are coming are "strike" legislation, and that anger over the abolition of passes has a great deal to do with the matter. They say that the Pennsylvania is in an impregnable position.

It is charged that Gates induced Gillespie to introduce the resolution, and that he knew it would be introduced and had his plans laid a week ago. He put an enormous line of "shorts" after closing out his "long" commitments and has covered a huge profit in the past two days.

Gates was in Washington last week, and knew all about the resolution. He advised all his friends and customers of C. G. Gates & Co., to sell their "long" stocks and go "short" on the market. Lots of them did so, and made big money through Monday's break. Gates was a big buyer of stocks for his own account. In an interview he said: "We have been eight months on the up-grade, and have got to back a little to get over a knoll. The market will be all the healthier for a setback. I am a great believer in Norfolk and Western and Denver common. The man who puts away Union Pacific or Louisville and Nashville at 145 to 150 is putting away real property, which will steadily raise in value. The man who buys steel common around 40 will make the biggest dividend in it by the rise during 1906."

SHE WANTS HIM OUT.

Private Wallis's Heiress Bride Finds He's in the Army as He Threatened.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHEYENNE (Wyo.) Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] From Fort Russell comes the story of the elopement and secret marriage of Private Berthall Wallis and Miss Lelia Daisy Combs, the handsome young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Combs of East St. Louis, Ill., an heiress to a large fortune. The marriage of the young couple took place at Centralia, Ill., but the secret has just leaked through the efforts of the bride to secure her husband's release from the army.

Wallis recently left with the Thirteenth Regiment for the Philippines, and his wife came to Fort Russell to bid him good-by. Her efforts to secure his release at this time proved fruitless, and two days ago she returned to her home in St. Louis. She will now appeal to the Congressman from her district. If the Washington authorities refuse to release Wallis, she will join her husband in the Far East.

It develops that Wallis threatened to enlist if Miss Combs did not marry him. She consented, then learned that her husband, who had not believed she would marry him, had joined the army.

GOOD TIME IN PROSPECT.

El Paso Prepares to Welcome Chicago Business Men Now in Los Angeles.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL PASO (Tex.) Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Lavish preparations are being made for the entertainment of the Chicago business men during their stay in El Paso. When the delegation from the Chicago Commercial Association, which is today in Los Angeles, reaches El Paso, Friday evening, they will be received by a committee from the El Paso Chamber of Commerce. An informal smoker will be provided if the train is early.

Saturday, a trip will be made down the Rio Grande Valley, below this city, in automobiles, to show what irrigation means in a semi-arid land, and Ciudad Juarez, Mex., across the river from El Paso, will be included in the programme. Luncheon at the St. Regis Hotel and addresses by local business men will be a feature of the entertainment. Special efforts will be made to impress upon the visitors the resources of the country tributary to El Paso.

El Paso is the last scheduled stop before the return to Chicago, twenty-four hours being allotted to the stay in this city. An attempt will be made to induce the Chicagoans to extend the twenty-four hours to forty-eight, in order to witness a bullfight in the amphitheater in Ciudad Juarez.

United Railways in the Market.

San Francisco Combine Will Purchase in Big Cities and in Canada.

Stockholders of Philadelphia Company Received No Definite Bid.

Minority May Oppose Control by the Investors from the West.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President J. Dawson Callery of the Pittsburgh Railways Company says there will be no change in the corporation management of the Philadelphia Company and its subsidiary concerns when the United Railways Company of San Francisco secures control. He says that, so far, the Philadelphia Company stockholders have received no definite bid for their holding. It will require over 360,000 shares of the stock to gain control.

Callery said that this control is being sought merely for investment purposes. He understands that the Pittsburgh deal is part of a general plan of the United Railways Investment Company to secure control of other public utilities companies, not only in the large cities of the United States, but also in Canada. He added:

"The movement on foot at present is merely to secure control of the Philadelphia Company. It does not mean that the company will change management. The United Railways Company of San Francisco is bent upon securing control of the company, and if they do so it will merely mean that control of the company is vested in one corporation, rather than a number of individuals, as is at present the case."

It is said that of the 720,000 shares of the Philadelphia Company stock in existence, but little over 100,000 shares are held in Pittsburgh. The control of the company has been vested outside of the city, and the Pittsburgh officials have been retained for the purpose of securing public approval here. For this reason, when the United companies secures control, the present management will be kept in charge.

There was a rumor here yesterday that the minority stockholders had combined to combat the threatened control by the San Francisco people. It was stated that Brown Brothers of Baltimore had parted with 40,000 shares at 45 for this purpose. Brown Brothers today sent out a denial of this story.

WOOL GROWERS' CONVENTION.

Legislation Relative to Interests of Sheep Men Proposed and New Officers Chosen.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

DENVER, Jan. 30.—The National Wool Growers' Association, at its annual convention here, today, adopted a resolution favoring a change in the law, making the minimum running time for trains carrying sheep sixteen miles an hour. The resolution also had a clause which proposes a change enabling the shipper of live stock to have the unloading done every thirty-six hours, if a request in writing is made of the railroad.

The sheepmen insist that they be not compelled to unload at night, claiming that it is difficult to handle sheep in the darkness of night. The changes proposed by the resolution referred to have the sanction of the National Humane Society. Another resolution adopted today favors an increase in the annual appropriation for the support of the Bureau of Animal Industry from $25,000 to $250,000.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Senator Francis E. Warren, Cheyenne, Wyo., reëlected; vice-president for the West, J. M. Wilson of Cheyenne; vice-president for the East, Mortimer Levering, Chicago; secretary, George S. Walker, Cheyenne; treasurer, A. J. Knellin, Chicago, reëlected. The Executive Committee includes: Arizona, E. S. Gozesney; California, J. A. Jastro.

"Fighting Parson" Fletcher Stirs up the Church Militant Against the Proposed Sanitarium.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DUNELLEN (N. J.) Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It was learned today that if the local church folk have their way, Bob Fitzsimmons will not locate his proposed physical culture establishment in that village. Rev. Frank Fletcher, known throughout Central New Jersey as the "fighting parson," fired his first gun in the contest to keep the pugilist out of the town.

Parson Fletcher declared: "We are going to be disgraced further by Fitzsimmons, the prize fighter, coming in our midst to open up a sanitarium for the cure of physical wrecks from other places. I hope the Christian people will rise up in their might and keep this prize fighter where he belongs, and not allow him to come here."

FISHERS AFLOAT IN OPEN BOAT.

CHARLES MATHESON SAVES HIS INSANE COMPANION.

One Hundred and Ten Hours Without Food and Water Before a Passing Vessel Picks Them up—Maddened and Frozen Boy Jumped Overboard.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON (Mass.) Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One hundred and ten hours in an open dory, without food or water, drifting at the mercy of the pitiless sea, his companion made crazy by privation and bent on ending his life, Charles Matheson, 40 years old, a fisherman of the schooner Quonnapowitt, tasted all the tortures man can endure and live.

His companion, 18-year-old Fred Hemmen, whose life was twice saved by Matheson, once when he (Hemmen) was washed overboard, and once when, driven insane by hunger and thirst, he leaped out of the boat into the sea, was taken in an ambulance to the city relief station from his berth on board the schoner Flora S. Nickerson, which he had not been able to leave since he was lifted out of the dory by rescuers from the Nickerson.

Hemmen's feet and knees were frozen, and he suffered other effects from his fearful adventure. He has now recovered his mentality, and is extremely grateful to his dory mate, who pulled him through.

The two were lost from their vessel on the Grand Banks while out fishing. A furious gale and thick fog prevented them from getting back, but they were picked up by the Nickerson.

MADE THE RIVER SWERVE.

Snowslides in Animas Canyon Change the Face of the Landscape and Block Traffic.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DURANGO (Colo.) Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Animas Cañon is blockaded by snow, trees and rocks carried down by many snowslides. The Rio Grande branch to Silverton has been closed to traffic over a week. Scores of men are trying to raise the blockade. The Animas River, dammed by slides, has been forced into new channels.

The snowfall is the heaviest in twenty years. Laborers are shoveling the snow on different levels because of its depth. Silverton people are in danger of a fuel famine, unless the blockade is raised soon. Even normal snowfall the rest of the winter will make the season a record-breaker.

Mail is reaching Silverton at irregular intervals, and is coming out the same way. Horses are used to traverse the trails across the ranges. Slides are running in many sections of the district, but fatalities have been avoided. One slide in Animas Cañon is as high as a three-story building.

SANTA FE TRAIN IN DITCH.

GALESBURG (Ill.) Jan. 30.—Passenger train No. 1, westbound, on the Santa Fé road went into a ditch at Laura, twenty-five miles east of here, early today. The smoker, chair car and baggage and express car overturned. The conductor and two passengers were injured but not seriously. The passengers were transferred and sent on to their destination, none of them being so badly injured that they could not travel.

PRESIDENT'S SISTERS ARE MUCH "PUT OUT."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The President's sisters, Mrs. Cowles, wife of Rear-Admiral Cowles, and Mrs. Douglas Robinson of New York were ejected from the member's lobby of the House of Representatives today. It was all the fault of Senator Warren of Wyoming.

Warren has been accustomed to the freedom of the "marble room" of the Senate, which corresponds to the House lobby. Among his visitors there, today, was a party including the President's sisters and two gentlemen, and the Senator accompanied them to the House. The rules of the House contain such iron-clad restrictions against admission to the lobby of a person not a member that even the Speaker cannot entertain a motion to admit such a person.

Senator Warren waived aside the doorkeepers of the lobby, and with a smile ushered in the party. The Senator was called, a moment later, to another part of the lobby, and just then Assistant Doorkeeper Kennedy notified the visitors of the rules.

He escorted them to the President's private gallery.

SEVENTEEN CENTS A DAY.

Chicago Woman and Eight Children Kept from Starvation by Neighbors' Charity.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Etta Musbraum and her eight children, among them triplets barely six weeks old, were found today on the verge of starvation. Several neighbors in the vicinity contributed a few cents daily, in order to supply milk for three infants, but other members of the family are weak and sick for want of food.

Frank Musbraum, the husband, deserted his wife six months ago. Owing to illness, she has been unable to work and has had to depend upon the small wages earned by her 16-year-old daughter Ella. Since the triplets were born the girl has had to remain at home and nurse her mother.

The pinched faces of the children, and the ghastly paleness and sunken cheeks of the mother told a pitiful story, today, when neighbors called to leave a bottle of milk for the babies. They learned by inquiry that for the last month the whole family has existed on about seventeen cents a day.

FIRE RAGING ON LOW LEVELS.

AMERICA'S RICHEST SILVER-LEAD MINE FLAMING FURNACE.

Seventy-five Men are Driven from the Depths—Many Were Overcome and One is in the Hospital—Origin of the Combustion Not Known—Difficulty in Fighting It.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SPOKANE (Wash.) Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Between the sixth and seventh levels of the flint slope of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine in Wardner, Idaho, fire rages, and the seventy-five men who usually are employed there have been driven out.

The timbers are all ablaze, and there is danger that a stubborn and prolonged conflict is before the fire-fighters. The miners had difficulty in reaching the surface because of the blinding and stifling smoke. Many were overcome, and one is in the hospital.

The Bunker Hill and Sullivan is the richest silver-lead mine in America. Among its stockholders are a number of San Franciscans. While the mine is fairly well equipped with pumps and other fire-fighting appliances, the dryness of the timbers and difficulty of reaching the blaze may necessitate the closing of other levels before the workings are safe.

BROUGHT OUT SECRET BOOKS.

Vice-President Morris Testifies in the Packers' Case That Garfield Required Them.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Edward Morris, vice-president of the Fairbanks Canning Company, and a member of the firm of Nelson, Morris & Co., testified today in the packers' case, that he had been required by Commissioner Garfield to produce for the inspection of the commissioner the secret profit-and-loss books of his company, after the commissioner had prepared his report on the beef industry. He further declared that Garfield had taken these books and had inspected them.

He told first of receiving the assurance from the commissioner that no knowledge that would be furnished by the packers would be used against them; of how he gave the information to the commissioner and his representatives and then declared that Garfield returned to Chicago with the greater part of his report in proofs, which he submitted to Morris. The witness said that he read the proofs, and told Garfield that the report was correct. The commissioner then, witness asserted, demanded that the profit-and-loss books of the company be brought to the downtown office of Morris & Co., for his inspection. They were brought, and the commissioner looked them over.

The statement that the commissioner had called for the secret books after completing his report, caused a stir in court, but the witness insisted that he was "required" by Commissioner Garfield to submit the books to him.

PICKS AT PENNYPACKER.

Assemblyman Garner of Schuylkill Won't Stand for "That Little Old Man in Boots."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] While the vials of wrath were being poured on his head in the Legislature today, Gov. Pennypacker was christened with a new name. The enraged Assemblyman who stood sponsor for it was Representative Garner of Schuylkill.

"That little old man in boots," roared Garner, in a speech to the House, "shall never cram an unconstitutional bill down my throat."

Garner was speaking on the Legislative Reapportionment Bill, which is one of the measures Gov. Pennypacker is making every effort to have passed at the special session of the Legislature. The House yelled its appreciation of Garner's characterizations, and "The little old man in boots" will stick.

BIG REDUCTION PLANT BURNING.

BUTTE (Mont.) Jan. 31.—Fire of unknown origin partially destroyed Senator W. A. Clark's Butte reduction works this morning. The fire broke out about midnight and resisted all efforts of the firemen until at 2 o'clock it had enveloped the concentrator building in which it started and the large elevator used for conveying concentrates. At 2:45 the firemen got control, saving the engine house, with valuable machinery and the smelter plant. The fire is still burning but is confined to the ruins of the buildings destroyed. A. H. Wehey, local manager for Senator Clark, estimates the loss at half a million, only partially insured. The plant will be rebuilt as soon as possible.

HELPLESS SHUNNED.

Investigation Into Valencia Disaster Shows Crew's Criminality.

Life Rafts Pounced Upon by Sailors, Leaving Women to Face Death.

Instead of a "Terrible Surf," Sea Was Not Rough Day After Catastrophe.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VICTORIA, Jan. 30.—Frank F. Bunkers, assistant superintendent of schools of Seattle, a survivor of the Valencia disaster, who lost his wife and two children, is extremely anxious to fix the blame for the fact that when the wreck broke up, between 12 and 1 p.m. Wednesday, there was no steamer off the scene to pick up those who floated out and Lineman Logan told him there were at least fifty persons who drifted seaward when the wreck broke up, some of whom might have been saved if the steamers had not all left the scene.

SEATTLE, Jan. 30.—Rev. Fletcher L. Wharton, pastor of First Methodist Episcopal Church, today appeared before the board of inspectors investigating the wreck of the Valencia, at the invitation of the latter, and explained that he had been lead to speak to his congregation concerning the alleged uselessness of the life preservers on board the lost vessel, on account of statements made by Assistant Superintendent of City Schools Frank F. Bunker.

"The public would like to know," said Mr. Wharton, "what guarantee it has from the inspectors as to the efficiency of seamen and the equipment of vessels on the Pacific Coast. There is a feeling that the officers of the Valencia took aboard men who were unskilled as seamen and unable to care for passengers in the event of a wreck or other disaster. It is held, too, by some, that the quality of the life preservers was such as to render them useless. I am here to seek information that I may impart to the public and I would like to know if the inspectors are sitting in judgment on their own acts."

The inspectors showed Mr. Wharton life belts made of tules and of cork. They contended that the tule belt was equally as good as cork and said that a majority of witnesses had testified that the former were all right. The tule belt worn by Joe Segalos, the Greek fireman rescued from the life raft picked up by the City of Topeka was exhibited. A twenty-pound weight was tied to it and the life preserver immersed in a barrel of water. When the court adjourned at 5 o'clock the belt had been in the water six hours and was still afloat.

Mr. Wharton was informed that marine inspectors had nothing to do with the selection of seamen and stated that he was personally satisfied with the explanations given and would be pleased to inform his congregation.

DISCIPLINE LOCKING.

Witnesses called this afternoon were A. L. Hawkins and Joseph McCafferty, passengers, and Martin Tarpey, quartermaster, on board the Valencia. All three were on the raft picked up by the City of Topeka. Witnesses in each case testified that there was no apparent attempt on the part of the members of the crew to crowd the passengers from the life boats and rafts.

Hawkins declared that the small working boat was dropped into the water on account of the breaking of the tackle. McCafferty declared there was lack of discipline among the members of the crew; that they were not at their stations when the boats were being lowered, and he expressed the opinion that the sailors should have prevented the passengers from interfering with the life boats.

Quartermaster Farley stated that he believed the tug Czar could have stood close enough to have shot a line to the wreck, and he declared that a man on the cliff could have drawn the line shot from the Valencia up clear to the water and helped to rig a boatswain's chair or some other life-saving device. "It would have been a risky task," he said, "but I think a properly equipped life-saving boat could have reached us from the sea."

SEA WAS NOT ROUGH.

C. Allison of St. Paul, a passenger, testified that the sea was not rough. He explained that he had himself been a sailor and that the surf that finally battered the Valencia to pieces could not be called high. This testimony caused a ripple of sensation, as all published accounts of the wreck have described "high seas" and a "terrible surf."

"Every one seemed to shun us," said Allison. "All seemed to be afraid to help or to attempt to help the unfortunate men and women who were facing death.

"The vessels at sea stood off and made no attempt to lower a boat.

"In the morning, after the last raft put off from the Valencia, there was no great sea running; not a wave had a comber on it.

"There might have been some excuse for the Queen not coming in close, but there was a tug alongside of her that did not come any closer than the larger vessel. It all looked wrong to me—all wrong."

"Did the conduct of the officers of the vessel meet with your approval?"

"I was in my bunk when the vessel struck and immediately went on deck. Everything was quiet and orderly then. Some one gave an order to lower the boats to the saloon deck. I could not see, but I think the order came from some one in authority.

"After a few moments, when they were lowering the starboard boat, the crowd gathered around it. After people were jumping in, I could not distinguish faces—it was too dark—the boat was filled and lowered. I don't know who gave the word to lower the boat to the water, but it might have been one of the officers or some excited passenger.

"Anyway, the boat went down the ship's side. For a moment it hung, one end up the other down, and all the time banging against the side of the vessel. Finally, it was caught and capsized. There was great excitement and then cries of 'pull them out' came from all sides."

CREW HOGGED LIFE RAFT.

"How did it happen that so many of the crew were on that life raft?" asked Inspector Whitney.

"As soon as the raft struck the water the crew took possession," said the witness.

"What kind of weather was it when you were picked up by the Topeka?"

"Nice weather. It was a trifle foggy, but there was no wind blowing. The waves did not have combers on them. I do not see why a boat could not have been lowered."

"Did you hear any reason given on the Topeka as to why no boats were lowered?"

"None."

Mr. Allison then went on and told of the condition of the vessel when he left. He stated that the hurricane deck was rising and falling with every wave that struck the ship. That caused many of those on board to leave, believing that she was about to break up.

A. Willis, another passenger, testified that the first boat was not lowered properly. He said the cliff on which the Valencia was wrecked was so abrupt where he landed that he could not get to the life line that was shot ashore.

John Segalos, the Greek fireman, who was the real hero of the Valencia, testified before the inspectors this afternoon. Telling of his own daring in plunging into the waves and trying to take a line ashore, he said: "I feel very sorry for the poor people. I make the sign of the cross, tie a line around my waist and jump in. But the water, it was too strong for me and I have to come back to ship."

NO ADDITIONAL BODIES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VICTORIA, Jan. 30.—Advices from Darling Creek via Bamfield say that the crews from tugs landed there were unable to get off any of the bodies recovered owing to the high sea, and it has been decided to bury all the bodies found there. Since yesterday afternoon, when the bodies recovered totaled 21, no more bodies have been found.

The steamer Salvor arrived here today, bringing Frank F. Bunker, the survivor of the wreck who lost his wife and two children in the disaster, and Messrs. Petersen and Leddy of Seattle, who have been searching for the body of Miss Laura Van Wyck of San Francisco without result.

There was one body at Bamfield when the Salvor left, having been brought in by Indians from Frickett Island. It is believed that of A. T. Rolphe of New Westminster, B. C. The body was taken in charge by Capt. Paterson of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, who is taking care of all bodies found, for removal to Seattle.

There is a thick fog prevailing at the scene of the wreck today.

The Board of Trade, at a meeting last night, adopted resolutions endorsing the recommendation of the recent citizens' mass meeting for better protection to shipping and life saving stations for the Vancouver Island coast. Resolutions were telegraphed to Ottawa, asking that immediate steps be taken to carry out the suggestions made to protect the dangerous coast line.

Collector of Customs Newbury has appointed Messrs. Patterson, Daykin, Logan and others receivers of wreckage. Superintendent Hussey of the Province police sent a number of special constables to the scene of the wreck by the tug Lorne to see that there was no looting by the Indians.

EFFECTS DESCRIBED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VICTORIA, Jan. 30.—Collector of Customs John Newbury received from E. F. Bunker who arrived by the Salvor today, the effects of some bodies washed ashore. One lot is the effects of Peter Gluce, or Glude, in which are two watches, one gold, the other silver, a purse with a small sum of money and a letter signed by his wife, with inclosures of a little letter with crosses, indicating kisses from the children, and knife and a match box. The letter referred to was posted at Brownsville, near Seattle, January 9 and has a Seattle postmark of January 10 and an Oakland postmark, January 12. The body on which these things were found was picked up by Bunker and Capt. Ferris near Darling River.

The collector also has the effects found on a man identified as Louis A. Gripenshaw, whose cards give his address as "with W. B. Ward & Co., Undertakers 95 South Market street, San Jose, Cal." On this body was found a small ikon in a small case, a little image of a Russian saint about three-quarters of an inch long, a gold watch engraved with the letter "D." on the case, a purse with a small sum of money, eyeglasses and a case of business cards with the address above stated, two spools of silk and a card of "Jack D. Wassen of Los Angeles," with business at Nos. 232-4 Spring street. The possessions are being held for relatives.

NEW KING IS PROCLAIMED.

Frederick VIII Ascends the Throne of Denmark.

Will Rule in Accord With Father's Example.

Court Will Mourn Thirty Weeks for Christian.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 30.—Frederick VIII was proclaimed King of Denmark at noon today in Amalienborg Square, in front of the palace. The ceremony lasted only a few minutes.

Premier Christensen appeared on the balcony of the palace and announced to the 50,000 persons assembled below, the death of King Christian IX, and the accession of his eldest son. The Premier then called for cheers for King Frederick VIII. The new ruler of Denmark joined the Premier on the balcony, and in a short speech, declared that he would rule in accordance with the example set him by his father, and trusted that the same accord between the King and the nation would continue as heretofore. His Majesty concluded with calling for cheers for the Fatherland. King Frederick received a warm-hearted greeting from the assembled throng, whose cheers mingled with the national anthem.

Since 9 o'clock in the morning, all the church bells have been tolling, minute guns have been booming from the forts, flags everywhere have been displayed at half-mast, and business practically has been at a standstill, the sorrowing inhabitants of Copenhagen gathering in the streets and discussing the virtues of King Christian and the probabilities of the future.

Prior to the proclamation of his accession, King Frederick held a council of state, at which the Ministers tendered their resignations and were requested to retain their portfolios. Afterward, the new ruler, surrounded by the Princes, received at Christian VII's palace the Cabinet Ministers, the Presidents of the Riksdag, the chief civil and military officials and the court dignitaries. Then came the important ceremony of the day. Promptly at noon, the Premier stepped out on the balcony of the palace and thrice shouted to the assembled throng:

"King Christian IX is dead! Long live His Majesty, King Frederick VIII!"

Sonorous hurrahs broke from the crowd in front of the palace and re-echoed down the streets opening on Amalienborg Square, the flags on the public buildings were run up to the mastheads and a royal salute was thundered from the city's forts. The King shortly afterward drove across the square to his own palace, greeted by hearty cheers.

TO MOURN THIRTY WEEKS.

The court has been ordered to go into mourning for thirty weeks, and the Minister of Justice has notified all the theaters and other places of entertainment that they must remain closed this week, as well as the day before and the day of the funeral.

King Frederick early in the afternoon announced his accession to the throne in a proclamation as follows:

"We, Frederick VIII, King of Denmark, by the grace of God, do hereby announce and make known that our dearly beloved father, Christian IX, was yesterday gathered to his fathers by a sudden but calm and peaceful death. We have, thereupon, in accordance with the law, ascended the throne.

"While thus assuming this high and responsible position, for which the Almighty has chosen us, it is our determination to maintain unswervingly the Constitution of our country and to preserve the rights and privileges of our whole people. If the people themselves will have the same confidence in their King which we have in our people, then will God grant His grace and blessing to all of us.

"It is our will that all public business follow its uninterrupted course, and, until further notice, the officials appointed by our dearly-beloved father will remain at their posts, in accordance with their oaths.

"Given at our castle of Amalienborg, January 30, 1906.

[Signed] "FREDERICK, R."

The American Minister, Thomas J. O'Brien, has already acted upon cabled instructions from the State Department as follows:

"Convey through appropriate channel the sincere condolence of the President and your country upon the death of His Majesty, King Christian.

"ROOT."

King Frederick is a great admirer of America. As Crown Prince, he never lost an opportunity to welcome American visitors to his palace and always showed the keenest interest in events transpiring in the United States. He is a close reader of American standard books.

King Christian will be buried at Roskilde, twenty miles from Copenhagen, where his wife is interred.

Emperor William has telegraphed his intention to attend the funeral and the King and Queen of England, King Haakon and many other members of the royal family are expected. The Duchess of Cumberland will arrive here tonight.

Telegrams of condolence continue to pour in from all parts of the world. Already about four thousand have reached the palace, including further messages from Scandinavians in America.

Both houses of Parliament held brief sessions this afternoon, passed resolutions of sympathy and condolence with the royal family and listened to the reading of King Frederick's proclamation.

KING EDWARD IN LONDON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Jan. 30.—King Edward arrived in town this forenoon and Queen Alexandra proceeded to Sandringham, where she will remain until she goes to Copenhagen to attend the funeral of her father, the late King Christian.

King Edward has decided to open Parliament in person, but the Queen will not be present, and the state pageantry probably will be curtailed. The levees will be held as arranged February 20 to 26, but the drawing rooms have been indefinitely postponed.

The bell in the curfew tower of Windsor Castle on the day of the funeral will be tolled eighty-seven times, representing the age of King Christian.

The court will go into mourning six weeks. As King Christian held the honorary rank of general in the British army, the army will go into mourning for one week.

King Edward and Queen Alexandra have decided that, as far as possible, their bereavement shall not interfere with public engagements already made. Therefore, King Edward, besides opening Parliament and holding levees, will also officiate at the launching of the battleship Dreadnaught, February 10. It is not believed the King will go to Copenhagen to attend the funeral, but no decision on this matter has yet been reached.

KING OSCAR BEREAVED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

STOCKHOLM (Sweden) Jan. 30.—King Oscar and Crown Prince Gustav today expressed a sense of deep bereavement as a result of the death of King Christian of Denmark.

King Oscar said he knew King Christian acted with perfect loyalty throughout the difficulties between Sweden and Norway and the Swedish King deprecated the feeling of resentment among some people in Sweden against Denmark on account of the accession of King Haakon. He said he was convinced that the charge of duplicity brought against Denmark in Sweden was entirely imaginary.

AT THE RUSSIAN COURT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 30.—The length of the period of mourning of the Russian court for King Christian has not been determined upon. The court chamberlain is looking up precedents. Owing to the relationship of the Dowager Empress to the deceased monarch, the time will be longer than usually is the case in the death of a foreign monarch. The imperial family will be represented at the funeral by the Grand Duke Michael and the Grand Duchess Olga, in addition to the Dowager Empress.

Expert Engineer Permitted to Ride on Artillery Tender Files Peculiar Libel Suit—Steamer Olympia on Way to Hudson River—Four-Master Seized in Salvage Action.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Jan. 30.—A dispatch from Salem, Or., to the Evening Telegram says: "Dr. Bancroft of this city has received a letter from his brother-in-law, L. V. Leeper of Yakataga, Alaska, in which he mentions the fact that the schooner Prosper has come ashore near Valdez, with seven dead men on board. The letter does not state whether they died of starvation or had been frozen to death. The letter was dated November 28.

HAS LONG TRIP AHEAD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—The steamer Olympian arrived here this morning from Astoria, in tow of the tug Dauntless. The Olympian is a side-wheeler, formerly used in carrying passengers on Puget Sound. She was recently purchased by C. A. Diamond to be used as a passenger boat on the Hudson River and will shortly start on her trip around Cape Horn in tow of the steamer Zelandia, which boat Diamond purchased from the Oceanic Steamship Company for use on the Atlantic Coast.

FILES UNIQUE LIBEL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) Jan. 30.—Preston S. Stone, in a suit in the Federal Court today, libeled the United States artillery tender, Lieutenant Harris for $5000. Stone was given a permit September 26 to ride to San Francisco on the Harris. On the way out of the Strait of Juan De Fuca the engines refused to work. Stone is an expert engineer and twice he was called to the engine-room to remedy matters and start the works. Claiming that he saved the ship and the lives of those on board, he asks $5000.

SEIZED IN SALVAGE ACTION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) Jan. 30.—A Clayquot dispatch says the tug Czar arrived there yesterday, en route to Victoria, with the American four-masted schooner M. Turner of San Francisco, which has been seized in a salvage action brought by the Canadian Pacific Railroad Company. The action was brought on account of services rendered by their steamer Queen City, which rescued the schooner from a dangerous position within 600 feet from the southeast of Bunsby Island, within the Darrer reefs, January 19.

LABOR.

EVERY DEMAND VOTED DOWN.

MINERS GET NO SATISFACTION FROM OPERATORS.

Those of Central Competitive Field Admit That Boys Under Fourteen Shall Not Work Around Mines. Building Trades Employers Indignant at Threat of Structural Steel Workers.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 30.—The demands of the miners of the central competitive field and of the Southwestern field were discussed in committee today.

The operators of the central competitive field voted down every demand of the miners made in the Joint Scale Committee meeting, with the exception of the demand that boys under 16 years of age be prohibited from working around the mines. The age was changed to 14 years, and the demand was granted.

It is believed that the Scale Committee will report a disagreement tomorrow.

EMPLOYERS INDIGNANT.

THREAT TO BREAK AGREEMENT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Indignation is expressed among the employers of the building trades over what is characterized as an attempt to use the Central Federated Union and the American Federation of Labor to force unions under the arbitration agreement to violate it by striking in aid of the housesmiths. This statement was made public today on behalf of the employers' association:

"It is not true that because the 'open shop' has been established in the housesmiths' trade there is any intention of the employers to establish the 'open shop' in the other trades. We do not believe that the rank and file of the unions will be willing to violate a pledge to observe an agreement in order to support a union which has deliberately broken it.

"The general sentiment is that if the unions violate this agreement, which we believe the rank and file of the unions will not sanction, there will be no more conferences over an arbitration agreement. The employers will simply organize as strongly as possible so as to be ready for anything that may happen. We prefer to believe that they have some sense of honor."

Plan War on Child Labor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Plans to enlist the support of all the clergymen if the country in the movement for the suppression of child labor were discussed at a meeting of ministers held in this city today under the auspices of the National Child Labor Committee. It is hoped to have a day set apart in every church in the United States to be observed as children's day when sermons will be delivered dealing with the subject of child labor.

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A touch of colder weather is promised for tomorrow, with the possibility that the long-delayed zero weather may follow in its wake. A wave of low temperature is sweeping over the Northwest and making its entry into Chicago tonight with the aid of a 35-mile wind. The weather today was cloudy and cold, with the thermometer ranging from 34 to 40 degs. Middle West temperatures, the dash indicating temperature below zero:

PROFESSOR WASN'T EATEN.

Fear among Chicago University officials that Prof. Frederick Sarr, the noted anthropologist, had been eaten by African cannibals whom he was attempting to study, were calmed today, when a letter was received from the professor, written on the Ensai River steamer and mailed at Leopoldville, about twelve hundred miles from the sea.

MAXWELL'S EXTRA COIN.

Edward E. Maxwell has applied to the Circuit Court to cancel a contract for the purchase of oil and gas stocks, and asks for the return of $111,000 which he says he paid under misleading representaations. Lafayette McWilliams, an investment broker, a relative of the late President McKinley and once a partner of Marshall Field, is made defendant. Maxwell alleges that $50,000 was paid for worthless land and for machinery classed as "mere junk."

ELGIN'S EX-MAYOR WEDS.

William Greene, former Mayor of Elgin and well-known in State Republican circles, came to Chicago, today, and was quietly wedded to Mrs. Mary A. Surbridge of No. 37 Wilton Place. The newly married couple left tonight for Southern California and Mexico, where Greene has extensive mining interests.

COLLEGE BOYS SUSPENDED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RICHMOND (Ind.) Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Because they refused to heed the commands of Gov. Hanly and desist in their efforts to duck Sidney Hutton, a student from Baltimore, Md., twenty-two of the boys residing in the dormitory at Earlham College were today suspended from that building and given until tomorrow to vacate. At the same time, twelve scholarships held by various boys were revoked.

DOWIE'S MIND FAILING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ZION CITY, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Notwithstanding denials by officials, the story was current here today that the mind of Dowie has failed rapidly, and that he is now insane at Jamaica. Some time ago the report was generally circulated here that Dowie's mind had been affected as the result of overwork and worry over his extensive projects, but it had not been admitted that his condition was so serious that he was in danger of complete mental collapse. Many messages are passing between Zion citizens and members of Dowie's entourage at Jamaica, but the nature of those communications is carefully guarded.

CARRIED OFF THE COFFIN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TERRE HAUTE (Ind.) Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When Rev. Mr. Balgon, pastor of the Christian Church at Ellsworth, said in a funeral sermon this afternoon that Charles Robbins, whose body lay in front of the pulpit, had "lived a life which would send him to hell," Robinson's friends walked forward and, taking up the coffin, carried it out of the church.

WEDDING INVITATION STOLEN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CINCINNATI, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William Collins Herron, an intimate friend of the Longworth family, has received an envelope from the White House, but the envelope had been opened and the invitation to the Roosevelt-Longworth nuptials abstracted. The envelope plainly bore marks of having been rifled.

FOUND YEGEM'S GOLD.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHELSEA (Mich.) Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Workmen, while tearing down the residence of Louis Yegem, found $1500 in gold in the ruins. Yegem received the money on a mortgage ten years ago but feared to trust the banks, and hid it. Then he forgot where he placed the treasure.

FOUR-PER-CENTS SOLD BY THE "PENNSY" ROAD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Announcement was made today of the sale of $20,000,000 of 4-per-cent. bonds by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to bankers in this city. Funds from the sale of the bonds are to be used for construction and other purposes not stated.

SPENDING ITS EARNINGS.

HILL BLAMES THE COUNTRY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—"This country today is like a boy, who has inherited a big fortune, and is living on it without earning anything himself," said James J. Hill, who returned from the West yesterday. "It is all very well to talk about our great prosperity, but we are spending what has been earned, not what we are earning now. We are using up our capital, and have become an extravagant nation."

Hill would not admit that the country was tending toward overproduction, because, as he said, if he did, people would call him a "croaker."

"The consular and other reports show," he said, "that Japan is sending us more than we are sending to Japan, and it behooves us to be watchful for our position among the ocmmercial nations. During the last few years, things have been so stirred up on account of the Boer and Russo-Japanese wars that, with the existing close relations among the nations, it has been difficult to get a true perspective in commercial and industrial matters. But now we can look around and appreciate our true position. Look at Great Britain, with a million men out of work. Great Britain is a country with a balance of trade against it, and we should take warning. There are not many more new continents or lands to open up."

Asked about his connection with "Fads and Fancies," which he was said to have subscribed to, Hill said he believed he received some such book and had sent it to a historical society.

The magnate denied that the Burlington had acquired the Chicago Terminal and Transfer Railroad, and said he knew nothing about Harriman's reported purchase of the Pacific Coast Company. He would welcome the Union Pacific, if the latter builds to Seattle. At present, the Hill roads are the only roads entering Seattle.

PANAMA COALFIELDS.

NEW RAILROAD ENTERPRISE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Jan. 30.—Articles of incorporation under the laws of Arizona were filed here today by the Costa Rica, Panama Railroad Coal and Timber Company. The capital stock is $25,000,000. The president and general manager of the company is Frederick A. Chubb of Athol, Mass. Robert Burtoh of Chicago is secretary and treasurer. The vice-president is J. Ernest Walker of Phoenix, and the fourth incorporator is J. Curtis Wasson of Denver, a capitalist formerly of Phoenix.

The purpose of the company is the exploitation of coal fields in Panama, ninety miles from the canal zone, on the Atlantic water front. It is said this is the only known deposit of coal on the isthmus. The tract is also covered with valuable forests of mahogany, ebony, etc.

Chubb was a private in the Spanish-American War, and later a subordinate employe of the Canal Commission. He received a fortune from his grandmother, resigned his position and discovered the coal deposit on an overland journey up the coast.

Fighting It Out in Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—Attorney A. A. Moore, counsel for the Southern Pacific Company, occupied the attention of the United States Circuit Court this morning in the controversy between the Western Pacific and the Southern Pacific Companies. He produced many records referring to the incorporation of the city of Oakland and various suits regarding its water front.

MAKES OLD DEVILS OF THEM.

Money-Mad Millionaires Severely Arraigned by Vice-President of Chicago National Bank.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Representatives of seventy-three Presbyterian churches in Chicago listened to a remarkable arraignment of wealth by David R. Forgan, vice-president of the First National Bank, who spoke at the McKinley memorial banquet of the Young Men's Presbyterian Union at the City Club of Chicago last night.

"Perhaps you think it impossible that a man's soul should entirely shrivel up in the pursuit of wealth," said Mr. Forgan. "If you knew some millionaires as well as I know them you would agree with me that they had lost the last vestige of the souls they may be presumed to have possessed before the mania for money possessed them. I would like to acquire millions, but if the process is going to make me like some of the old devils I know who are millionaires I don't want the money.

"Recently, I saw a letter from a millionaire referring to the death of a clerk who faithfully had served him thirty years. The man who wrote this letter is rated at $20,000,000. He is an easterner. In this letter, after disposing of several matters, he referred to the death of his old employé incidentally and directed that the exact date of his severance of connection with the office, because of his last illness, be ascertained, the exact amount due him for the fraction of the month he had worked be figured up and a check for the amount be mailed to his widow. Do you imagine that old curmudgeon has a soul?"

LONGWORTH'S SISTER ARRIVES.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Miss Roosevelt and her fiancée, Congressman Nicholas Longworth, boarded a revenue cutter today and proceeded down New York harbor to meet the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, upon which Countess De Chambrun, Mr. Longworth's sister, was a passenger. The Countess has come as a guest at Miss Roosevelt's wedding. At Quarantine, where the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse slowed down speed, the revenue cutter went alongside the big liner.

GROVER MAKES WITTY SPEECH.

ALBANY (N. Y.) Jan. 30.—The Medical Society of the State of New York celebrated tonight, in connection with its annual meeting, the centennial of its organization. The celebration took place in Emanuel Baptist Church, Dr. Joseph Bryant of New York, the president, presiding. Former President Cleveland was one of the speakers. Mr. Cleveland received a great ovation when he was introduced. He did not touch upon any medical or political topic, but was largely a witness in the relations of doctors and patients.

LACK OF LIME JUICE COSTLY.

Huge Fines Confront Captain and Ship Owners.

Await With Baited Breath Washington Ruling.

Lawyer for Johnston Children Getting Busy.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—Customs Collector Stratton received a telegram today from the commissioner of Commerce and Labor requesting him to take steps to have the owners and the master of the whaling bark John Winthrop fined for failing to supply the crew with lime juice daily, as required by the revised statutes of the United States. The penalty is $500 for the owners, and $100 fine for the master, for each offense.

Collector Stratton has wired the department for a definition of "each offense."

It means each day, the fine will cover a period of 300 days less forty or forty-three Sundays of the ten months' voyage. This would mean a fine for the owners of $128,500 and one of $25,700 against the captain.

NOT JOHNSTON'S WIDOW.

CHILDREN MAY GET ESTATE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 30.—Clinton White, attorney for the children of the late Senator William Johnston, has filed an amended answer to the petition of Mrs. Josephine A. C. Johnston for letters of administration of the estate, denying that she is the widow of the deceased, and alleging that she was married in St. Louis to J. West Goodwin; that what purported to have been a divorce was granted her, but that the court that issued the decree had no jurisdiction in the case; and that, as a matter of fact, she is still the wife of J. West Goodwin, and never was the wife and is not the widow of the deceased. Attorney White says he has made an exhaustive investigation into the matter and believes he will have no trouble in showing the Missouri court had no jurisdiction in granting the divorce.

Shortly after the death of Senator Johnston, last November, Mrs. Josephine Goodwin presented evidence that she and the deceased had been married in Martinez a month before his death, and applied for letters of administration of the property. A contest was filed.

CO-EDS UNDER DISCIPLINE.

AND LOST DINNER, TOO.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

RENO, Jan. 30.—Because they missed their dinner at the University of Nevada, last Sunday, five co-eds have been sentenced by the faculty to remain at the college and upon the college grounds for thirty days. They are being kept under the closest watch, and the penalty for trying to violate their sentence will be dismissal from the school.

All the young ladies are from distant parts of the State, and two of them, it is understood, have written to their parents asking them to intercede. The faculty gives as its reason for the action that it is necessary in order to maintain discipline.

ESCAPED FROM ASYLUM.

WOMAN RACES THE STREETS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Forrest of Goldfield, an inmate of an insane asylum here, escaped last night, and for over five hours was at large, a raving maniac. She raced through the streets excitedly, and though no one knew her to be crazy, her eccentric actions attracted much attention. Finally she made her way to the office of Dr. Heppner, in the heart of town, and bursting unannounced into his room, informed him that she needed his protection. She imagined that she was being persecuted. Dr. Heppner summoned officers, and the woman was taken to the hospital.

THAT "CHAUCHAU" KILLING.

CURACAO'S OFFICERS SURPRISED

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Officers on the steamer Curacao, when seen tonight, say they heard nothing about two mine owners being killed near Ensenada, though the Evening News, a Scripps paper, gives a story of two unarmed miners being killed by guides in the interior of "Chauchau," which is not given in any gazetteer. The story says they started from Cholx.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Died As Pauper, Though Rich.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—It has just been discovered that W. S. Cook, who died of senility at the Central Receiving Hospital, January 6, last and who was generally considered a pauper, was in reality a rich man. Property belonging to him has just been discovered, the value of which is estimated at $100,000. The public administrator has taken charge of the estate.

Normal Summer School Features.

SAN JOSE, Jan. 30.—President Dailey of the State Normal School has just issued the advance announcement of the coming summer school, which will be opened Tuesday, June 26. In addition to the regular normal faculty, Prof. Elwood P. Cubberly, head of the department of education at Stanford University will give courses in education, and Prof. Frederick H. Ripley, of Berkeley, and Miss Estelle Carpenter, supervisor of music in the San Francisco public schools, will give courses in music.

Suits to Set Aside Benson Patents.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—United States Dist.-Atty. Devlin filed today in the office of the United States Circuit Court two bills in equity for the purpose of setting aside patents issued by the United States to Frederick A. Fay, John A. Benson and others. The lands affected by the Hyde and Benson grants are in Tulare, Tuolumne, Tehama, San Benito, Stanislaus, Butte, Plumas, Lassen, Trinity, Modoc, Del Norte, Humboldt, Santa Clara and Mendocino counties.

DAWES TELLS OF PROMISE.

Former Comptroller of Currency Witness for Packers, Regarding Immunity.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Louis C. Krauthoff again took the stand today when the trial which is to determine whether or not the packers are entitled to immunity entered upon its second day. District Attorney Morrison finished his cross-examination last evening, and Attorney Miller, for the defense, resumed the direct examination. The witness was asked many questions regarding his opinion of the law under which immunity is claimed by the packers, with the result that the District Attorney objected to almost every question asked, and numerous arguments between counsel followed.

Charles G. Dawes, former Controller of the Currency and president of the Central Trust Company of this city, was the second witness. He told of introducing Commissioner Garfield to attorney Krauthoff. He said: "Commissioner Garfield, whom I have known for years, called at my office and said he wanted the information from the packers only in order to enable him to make a full and complete report. I introduced him to Mr. Krauthoff and Mr. McRoberts, and told them they could rely on what Mr. Garfield said, and that they could open their books without fear, as Mr. Garfield was absolutely to be trusted and was a gentleman. I was present at the Chicago Club and heard their conversation. Mr. Garfield said that the information given him by the packers would be used by his department but not by the Department of Justice. Garfield said that he wanted the cooperation of the packers, and the best way would be for the packers to cooperate with him. That was about the substance of the conversation, as I recall it."

On cross-examination, the story of Mr. Dawes was not in any manner modified, but the additional fact was brought out that Commissioner Garfield said to Mr. Krauthoff that he was to report to the President, and that the packers need not fear that anything would be done to injure them.

Samuel McRoberts, treasurer of Armour & Co., was then called. He was the fourth person present at the interview between Commissioner Garfield and Krauthoff. He gave testimony agreeing with that of Krauthoff and Dawes.

NEW JERSEY MAY INVESTIGATE.

Resolution Calling for Legal Proceedings Against Standard Oil Company in State Senate.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TRENTON (N. J.) Jan. 30.—In the State Senate today Mr. Minturn introduced a resolution calling for the institution of legal proceedings in the name of the State against the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and its subsidiary corporations in the State for purpose of annulling and forfeiting the charter of the company on the ground of alleged violation of the common law relating to monopolies and of the Elkins law and laws relative to interstate commerce.

BADLY NEED A MARKET.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Jan. 30.—Several oil producers from Indian Territory and Kansas met here today to discuss the question of a market for their product. J. J. Curl of Bartlesville, I. T., said before going to the conference: "We want a market. We are up against it to get rid of our product. Either the Standard will take our oil or we must provide more tankage. That will take time. We want to talk over the situation and decide some way out of the dilemma."

Balfour Told Even by His Own That He Must Recognize Uselessness of Being a Negative.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Jan. 31.—The small Unionist party remaining in Parliament threatens to become torn by dissension over the question of leadership. A dead set is being made against Former Premier Balfour in the majority of the Unionist newspapers, those supporting Joseph Chamberlain publishing each day articles and letters calling on Mr. Balfour to retire from the leadership, while those still loyal to the old leader as plainly hint that he must recognize the uselessness of a negative policy, and, as the Morning Post remarks, "abandon the serene atmosphere of social eminence and aloofness and come forward to his proper place as the leader of an enlightened and united democracy."

In short, Mr. Balfour's own supporters are hardly more complimentary than his opponents, and maintain that the only basis on which he can continue his leadership of the party is that he swallow the Chamberlain policy.

JAPANESE AGAIN INVADE.

Threaten to Seize Russian Markets in Manchuria and Increased Freight Rates are Proposed.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 30.—On account of the threatened invasion of Japanese and American goods on the Russian markets in Manchuria, the management of the East Chinese Railroad has raised the question of increased freight rates northward of Kwang Cheng Tsze to the stations in Russian hands. It is said that Japanese middlemen are handling British and American goods, as well as Japanese wares.

Twenty trains are running daily from Yakow to Kuidtuan, where enormous stores of goods are being assembled for Harbin, Vlaidvostok and other markets.

TAKING HIGH RANK AT OXFORD.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—Bishop J. C. Hartzell, Methodist Episcopal bishop of South Africa, has been at Oxford for the purpose of meeting the Rhodes scholars from the United States. The type of men is high and they are received in good spirit by the other university men. The Americans are making excellent records in scholarship and athletics. H. J. Rose of Quebec recently took both the Craven and the Ireland honors in classics, a record unequaled for many years.

PARKWAY FARM SALE.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Twenty animals in the Parkway Farm consignment, nearly all of which were got by Joe Patchen, 2:01¼, and Fred Kohn, 2:07½, realized $15,230, an average of $761, at the Garden today. Sara Patchen, a black 4-year-old filly by Joe Patchen that had paced fast in her work, brought $3000.

GOV. PATTERSON CONTINUES ILL.

COLUMBUS (O.) Jan. 30.—It is reported from Gov. Patterson's house that there has been no change in his condition. His physician tonight reiterated the statement made previously, that there is nothing alarming in his condition, and denied specifically reports that the Governor is suffering from Bright's disease and uremic poisoning.

INCOMPETENCY CAUSED DEATHS.

PEORIA (Ill.) Jan. 30.—The Coroner's jury which has been investigating the wreck of a Santa Fé passenger train near Chillicothe, Mo., Monday, which resulted in four deaths, today found J. S. Smith, of the block signal station near Chillicothe, guilty of gross carelessness, and incompetency. Conductor G. F. Weatherwax of the passenger train is also censured.

Willie Hoppe's Return.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Willie" Hoppe, who won the 18.1-inch balk-line billiard championship trophy in Paris, January 15, by defeating Maurice Vignaux, holder of the trophy, returned to America today on the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. The young champion talked modestly of his victory, but said that he was confident of success from the start of the match.

REUNITE FORCES FOR A FIGHT.

LIVE STOCK INTERESTS GET TOGETHER AT DENVER.

Campaign for Federal Legislation Desired by Their Interests Will be Waged in Congress—Murdo Mackenzie Unanimously Elected President of Combined Organizations.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DENVER, Jan. 30—With the avowed purpose of reuniting their forces and making a vigorous campaign for Federal legislation desired by the live-stock interests of the West, delegates to the ninth annual convention of the National Live Stock Association and the second annual convention of the American Stock Growers' Association met in joint session today at the Broadway Theater.

Important addresses setting forth existing conditions in the live-stock industry and the requirements of the stockmen were delivered by Frank J. Hagenbarth, president of the national association, and Murdo Mackenzie, president of the American association.

Previous to the meeting of the merged conventions, the delegates in separate sessions adopted the plan of consolidation agreed upon by the executive committees of the two organizations. The name chosen for the new organization, embracing all live-stock interests, is the American National Live Stock Association.

Gifford Pinchot, chief of the Federal Bureau of Forestry, delivered a greeting to the stockmen from President Roosevelt, to which John W. Springer of Denver responded. Frank J. Hagenbarth, president of the National Live Stock Association, then delivered his annual address.

At the conclusion of his address, Mr. Hagenbarth nominated Murdo Mackenzie for president of the American National Live Stock Association for the ensuing year, and he was unanimously elected after the convention had voted to suspend the constitution and bylaws for the purpose. Mr. Mackenzie then delivered the annual address as president of the American Stock Growers' Association.

S. H. Cowan of Texas introduced a resolution in support of the bill before Congress to increase the number of hours in which cattle may be kept in cars without unloading from twenty-eight to thirty-six hours. It was referred to the Committee on Resolutions. President Mackenzie was authorized to appoint committees on credentials and resolutions.

LIVE STOCK MEN UNITE.

Consolidation of Nationaland American Associations Effected at Denver.

[BY THE ASSOCIAT..D PRESS—A.M.]

DENVER, Jan. 30.—Consolidation of the National Live Stock Association and the American Stock Grower's Association was effected here today by the annual conventions of the two organizations. American National Live Stock Association is the name adopted for the amalgamated body, which represents 26,000 stockgrowers, and Murdo Mackenzie of Trinidad, Colo., was unanimously lected president of the new association.

Mackenzie has been president of the American Stock Growers' Association since its organization in this city a year ago by seceders from the National Live Stock Association convention. This split was caused by the decision to give representation in the stockmen's conventions to railroads and packers. In the association organized today, with which will be affiliated forty-five subsidiary associations, only stockgrowers will be represented.

STEEL TRUST'S BUSINESS.

Earnings for Last Quarter Show Increase of Nearly Fourteen Millions of Dollars.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The directors of the United States Steel Corporation, at their meeting today, declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on the preferred stock. Marvin Hughitt of Chicago was elected a director to succeed the late Marshall Field. Net earnings for the quarter ended December 31, last, were $35,728,680, an increase of $13,819,954 as compared with the same quarter a year ago. Unfilled orders on hand December 31, last, were 7,605,086 tons, an increase of 3,008,883. The unfilled orders December 31 broke all records of the corporation.

With quarterly figures at hand, it is shown that the net earnings for the year are approximately $119,850,282, compared with $133,308,762 in 1902, and $73,076,521 in 1904, the corporation's best and poorest years.

Following the usual deductions, including the dividend on the preferred stock for the last quarter, the surplus for the quarter is placed at $16,416,563. The surplus for the corresponding period of 1904 was $3,833,338. The sum of $9,000,000 was set aside from the quarter just ended on account of expenditures made and to be made for additional property, construction, etc., and for contemplated appropriations and expenditures. No such charge was made in the last quarter of 1904.

COLER CHARGES MONOPOLY.

Borough President of Brooklyn Coler Wants Recent Metropolitan Traction Merger Investigated.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—A resolution for an investigation of the merger by which the elevated, surface and subway railroads in Manhattan and the Bronx was recently placed under the control of the Interborough-Metropolitan Company, was introduced in the Board of Aldermen of New York today by Borough President Bird S. Coler of Brooklyn. Mr. Coler in asking for the investigation made the following claims:

That the merger tends toward an absolute monopoly of passenger transportation in New York; that interests which have joined in the merger have already been in practical control of the transportation of the city and have conducted that service without the slightest regard for the public service; that it is intended to add to the present capitalization of the companies in the merger, a stock issue of $108,000,000, representing little or nothing in the way of real value except the privilege of extorting from the public through a carfare tax; and that the new interests are about to obtain control of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company's system.

ASKS RECEIVER FOR OLD FIRM.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Sharp, Partridge & Co. yesterday filed a bill in the Superior Court asking that a receiver be appointed for the firm of Palmer, Fuller & Co., makers of sash, doors and blinds, and for many years one of the largest concerns of its kind in the city. The claim is made that John R. Laing, president of the company, has absconded with $30,000 of the funds of the company.

CARTER SIGNED THE CHECKS.

SAVANNAH, Jan. 30.—Greater progress than has marked any previous day of the trial was made in the Federal court today in the case of Green and Gaynor. J. W. Osterly of Savannah and George W. Marlor of New York were the chief witnesses. Osterly testified that Capt. Carter had left Savannah June 30, 1897, taking with him two checks which he filled out in Washington upon receiving telegraphic notice from Osterly of the amounts the latter had in the meantime figured out as due Green and Gaynor. Then, without having seen the accounts at all, the witness said Carter signed checks, one for $545,000 and the other for $230,000, and payment was made.

BIG QUESTION OF THE AGE.

Hepburn Railroad Rate Bill Before the House.

Mr. Townsend Tells of "Midnight" Scheming.

Georgia Member Praises the "Ablest President."

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—According to special order, the House today took up the Hepburn Railroad Rate Bill. Mr. Hepburn observed that while no time had been set to close debate, it had been his idea that a vote might be taken on the bill one week from today.

In taking up the bill in committee of the whole, Mr. Vreeland of New York was selected to preside over the debate.

Mr. Townsend of Michigan at once began the opening speech on the bill. Regarding the question as one of the most important ever before Congress, Mr. Townsend advocated the bill as the correct remedy for the evils which exist, and predicted that notwithstanding the protests of the railroads, greater prosperity would come to them under the provisions than otherwise. To substantiate this statement, he called attention to the tremendous strides of a year in the transportation business, and this in the face of legislation which the late Congress initiated and which the present Congress is taking up in somewhat more strenuous form.

Like the bill of last year, which bore Mr. Townsend's name, he said the present one was the very least the people would accept, yet the present bill confers wider powers and extends over every facility of transportation. However, the present bill, he believed, not only fully was within the constitutional powers of Congress, but it was simply an expression of the plain duty of Congress to the American people.

In brief, the bill attempts, he said, to place under the supervision of the Interstate Commerce Commission every form of interstate and foreign commerce, and all instrumentalities of commerce and transportation.

The most serious complaints on the part of the shippers, he said, have been directed against special services, such as private cars, icing, elevator and terminal charges, and the like. Mr. Townsend believes the bill affords a complete remedy for all of these evils, as hereafter every such charge must be just and reasonable, and in case it is not, the committee has power to make it so.

THE "MIDNIGHT RATE."

The evil of the "midnight rate" was described, and the remedy set forth, requiring thirty days' notice of a change of rates. Briefly the "midnight rate" is a device whereby a large shipper notifies a road that on a certain date a large shipment will be made. On that date, the published tariff is changed for a day, the shipment being at the lower rate, and the tariff being immediately raised afterward.

The main feature of the bill bearing on the point about which the greatest controversy is heard, and the one which Mr. Townsend believes lies at the foundation of the whole question, is that which gives the commission power, upon complaint and after full hearing, to substitute a reasonable maximum rate in place of one found to be unjust or unreasonable. Mr. Townsend went at length into this phase of the proposed legislation. It was the principal one against which the weight of the organization had been directed, he explained, and this proposition had been based alike on the questioned constitutionality, the impossibility for the commission to find a just rate, and the injury such a finding would entail alike on business, the railroad and the widowed and orphaned shareholders. In the broader view of the question and in the correct conclusion of any of these phases, he said, he saw but one answer—that to require the railroads to be just and reasonable could not harm any one, while it would benefit all.

As showing how deep were the fears of the railroad world, he stated that 7200 miles of road had been built during the last year in the United States, and up to June 30 orders for more than $200,000,000 worth of railroad equipment had been placed.

While the number of commissioners is increased by two and their salaries raised to $10,000 a year, Mr. Townsend expressed the belief that when the law was once established, the duties of the commission would decrease rather than increase. The railroads, he suggested would doubtless realize the justness of the law and fix their rates with reference to it. He realized fully the great power that was conferred upon the commission, and believed the higher salary only an adequate compensation for men of the character needed.

PUBLICITY NEEDED.

The wide publicity of railroad affairs required in the bill was, in his opinion, a potent factor for good. The provisions expediting the business of the commission, and the cases in the courts growing out of the operation of the law he regarded as vital. The courts are to pass simply on the validity of the decision, and the appeal to the Supreme Court will be on the question as to already given rate fixed by the commission is or is not confiscatory.

While Mr. Townsend regarded the question as in no sense political, he expressed himself as pleased that the Republican party had taken it up. He arraigned the means employed by the opposition to the rate legislation.

"To me it has seemed," he said, "that a systematic effort has been made to discredit the administration in various matters, in order to direct attention from this great question, and I have no doubt that delays will be caused wherever possible in the vain hope that something will yet happen to prevent final action.

"As one of the younger and most humble Republicans," he said, "let me admonish my party associates in both houses that this question will not down, nor will it much longer brook delay. The people have spoken, and every day their demand is more imperative. The day of grace may be passed and the unpardonable sin of trifling with duty may not be condoned, even with deathbed repentance.

"SOCIALISM SMILES."

"Temporizing will bring nothing but disaster. Already we hear the rumblings of discontent, and socialism smiles with satisfaction with every delay. Regulation of a public servant is not a departure from the principles of popular government, but disregard of righteous law and indifference to legal restrictions imposed to protect the people's rights is more than socialism, it is anarchy; and were I a railroad agent instead of a people's representative, I would nail the proposed legislation as a salvation to my master from the fate which an indignant people is sure to visit upon the corporations who believe that they are above and beyond the law, and seek to become a law unto themselves.

"Let the law pass," Mr. Townsend concluded, "and let the railroads heed its provisions, and instead of retarding its execution and its operation, and then instead of being the objects of suspicion and hatred they will be regarded as the instruments of progress and prosperity. Rate legislation will enter into history, or its entry will not be marked by any business disturbances, but rather it will indicate the beginning of an era of better feeling between the railroads and the people—an era of equal rights and opportunities under a just and impartial law."

MR. ADAMSON'S PRAISE.

Mr. Adamson of Georgia, who was in control of the time of the debate on the Democratic side, followed Mr. Townsend. He said the Democrats had labored, since the courts had revealed the weakness of the interstate commerce laws, to amend its defects. "If the result of the last Presidential election was claimed by anybody as a victory against railroad regulation the President-elect, undoubtedly the ablest as well as the most honest and fearless Republican President we ever had, promptly disabused their minds, by taking a position perhaps as advanced in favor of our platform declaring on the subject, on which our own candidate could have done had he been elected, emphatically and repeatedly demanding substantially the very legislation asked for in our two platforms and emphatically denying the hypocritical declaration that enough had been done.

"We would have been idiots and traitors had we declined his powerful aid," declared Mr. Adamson.

Mr. Hinshaw of Nebraska depicted the benefit the legislation would be to the great trans-Missouri country, and Mr. Richardson of Alabama discussed, as a Democrat, things done and left undone in the measure.

Questions addressed to the various speakers by Mr. Sherley of Kentucky and Mr. Littlefield of Maine indicated that there is to be some opposition to the bill, at least in debate. The feature seemingly most liable to attack is as to just what will be the authority of the Interstate Commerce Commission under the bill to relieve the differentials in rates between competing cities or localities.

As a minority member of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Commission, Mr. Richardson of Alabama said that while there was a distinct difference between the position of the majority and the minority of the committee, the unanimous report on the bill was a distinct demonstration of patriotism.

The debate for the day closed at 5:25 o'clock, when the House adjourned until 12 o'clock tomorrow.

FIFTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

REGULAR SESSION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—SENATE—The resolution providing for the payment of the funeral expenses of the late Senator Mitchell of Oregon, amounting to $547, was reported to the Senate, today, from the Committee on Contingent Expenses by Mr. Kean, and adopted. There was no comment on the resolution.

A resoluiton directing the Secretary of the Navy to send to the Senate the records of the court-martial at Annapolis in the case of Midshipmen Marzoni and Mayo, and also directing him to inform the Senate as to his authority for the proceedings, was adopted.

The Senate passed the Consular Reorganization Bill, which, in an amended form, was reported from the Committee on Foreign Relations.

There was some discussion of the change of reference from the Committee on Interstate Commerce to the Committee on Judiciary of two bills relating to the liability of common carriers in accidents to employés, during which Mr. Daniels said bills similar to these had been pending before Senate committees for four years without securing a report.

Mr. Bacon defended the action of the Committee on Judiciary, saying that it had not sought to evade responsibility of the consideration of the bills; that it has honestly considered the Interstate Commerce Committee as the one by which it could be most properly considered. Without action, the Shipping Bill was laid before the Senate. Mr. Elkin: intimated, however, that he would withdraw his request for a change.

Mr. Gallinger from the Merchant Marine Committee, suggested a number of amendments to the bill, all of which were accepted. Among the changes suggested was the elimination of subdivision 8 of Article VI, granting an increased subsidy to the American line and all of sections 8 and 10 relating to tonnage taxes.

Mr. Fry: expressed the opinion that reduction of the subsidy for the American line would drive that company under a foreign flag, and Mr. Gallinger agreed with him. Mr. Gallinger said that the tonnage tax provisions had been taken out because of the constitutional objections made to them that as they provide for the raising of revenue they cannot properly originate in the Senate. He expressed the hope that the provisions would be restored by the House.

Mr. Lodge spoke in support of the subsidy principle of the bill. He said a subsidy is legitimate hen gien for a public purpose, and is equally available to all, and that the proposed bounty is in line with many precedents.

Mr. Lodge also related the details of a combination of the sailing-vessel owners of Great Britain, France and Germany, with headquarters in London, formed to control the freight price of grain shipped from the United States. He said this combination controlled a tonnage of 1,366,000, and that it has increased the freight rate from 5 to 10 shillings per ton.

The Senate passed the following bills:

Increasing the efficiency of the ordnance department of the army; providing for the reorganization of the consular service; repealing section 4136 of the Revised Statutes, relating to the admission to registry of repaired foreign wrecks; authorizing the construction of a revenue cutter service vessel for the harbors of San Francisco and Honolulu; establishing a life-saving station at Halfmoon Bay, near Montana, Reef, Cal.; establishing a life-saving station at Flattery Rocks, Wash., near the scene of the recent wreck of the steamer Valencia; authorizing the sale of the site of the old Federal building at Los Angeles, and the use of the proceeds in the construction in the proposed new building.

At 5:45 o'clock the Senate went into executive session, adjourning at 5:55 p.m.

Chairman Shonts Resumes His Testimony—Bid of Markel for Feeding Laborers Might Have Meant a Million Dollars Profit Yearly—Spanish Workmen A-plenty.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The Senate Committee on Interoceanic Canals today resumed its examination of Theodore P. Shonts, chairman of the Canal Commission. Shonts explained in detail the preparations for the awarding of the contracts to Markel for a complete commissary on the Isthmus of Panama.

An executive session of the committee was held for the purpose of determining whether a hearing should be given to Robert Schwerin, manager of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. He had requested an opportunity to reply to charges made by Secretary Taft and Chief Engineer Stevens, that his company had been responsible for a great part of the congestion of the freight on the wharves on the isthmus. After a long discussion, it was agreed that he should appear before the committee tomorrow.

The date of hearing Poultney Bigelow, the magazine writer, has been indefinitely postponed, and it is doubtful if he will again be given an opportunity to appear before the committee.

At the afternoon session, Senator Simmons sought to show that the bid of Hudgins & Dumar of New York for the feeding of the canal employés was lower than the bid of J. E. Markel & Son. Shonts replied that it would be impossible to tell which bid had been the lowest, but that the experience of the Markel firm in feeding large bodies of men had been taken into consideration. Senator Simmons asked Shonts if he thought the law had not been violated in letting the contract to a firm whose bid had not been the lowest. Shonts replied that if the law declared that the lowest bid should be accepted without regard to the time of delivery of goods or the quality furnished, then the law had been violated by the commission in a number of cases. After the Markel contract had been cancelled, said Shonts, it was suggested by Stevens that Markel ought to have some compensation for the trouble and expense which he had incurred.

A MILLION A YEAR?

"As a matter of fact," asked Simmons, "was not this contract canceled because you received a message from Mr. Stevens saying the contractors would make a million dollars a year out of the arrangement and asking that it be held in abeyance?"

"Well, I remember receiving such a message," said Shonts. "I immediately called on Mr. Markel and told him he would have to make some other arrangements. Mr. Stevens said the men could be fed on the isthmus for 30 cents a day. Mr. Markel said he could feed them for 30 cents if permitted to reduce the food to the quality given the laborers under Mr. Stevens's plan."

Shonts said he had been informed that plenty of Spanish labor could be found, and from a health point of view, they would help to solve the labor problem. He said that a movement was on foot to try five hundred Spaniards there. Men of that type are paid $1 a day and upwards. He quoted Stevens as desirous of getting Chinese coolie labor admitted to the canal zone.

WIDEN THE ZONE.

Shonts said he did not believe the canal zone was wide enough, and that the zone should be made so wide that any other nation could not get close enough to blow the United States out of the canal.

The Senator, in his question, said he was thinking of the practical side of the matter, and Shonts said the zone should be large enough so that the lakes to be formed would not extend into country not under control of this government.

The committee held an executive session, at which it was agreed not to continue the examination of Shonts for a few days. Former Chief Engineer Wallace will testify Thursday.

The committee adjourned until tomorrow.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

Ross R. Brattain Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The Senate in executive session today confirmed the following nomination: Ross R. Brattain, Washington, Consul at Hang Chou, China.

For Dismissal of Hazers.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Perkins has introduced a bill to give the Secretary of the Navy power to dismiss a naval cadet for hazing. The measure provides that the superintendent of the academy shall court-martial cadets for hazing. The Secretary must give the guilty cadets notice of his intention to dismiss them, and receive and consider any written reply thereto that may be made. Senator Perkins was formerly a sailor himself, and is greatly interested in the hazing question.

Receives Wheeler's Comrades.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The President today received about sixty members of Co. A, Wheeler's Confederate Cavalry, of Atlanta, Ga.

President Wants to Know.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—In response to the resolution of the House of Representatives, the President called upon the Interstate Commerce Commission for a report regarding the alleged existence of a combination or arrangement between the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, the Baltimore and Ohio, the Chesapeake and Ohio and other railroads. Chairman Knapp at once called his colleagues into conference, and the reply is in course of preparation.

Miss Converse More Easy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Miss Shelby Converse, who was thrown from her horse yesterday, was resting more easily today.

Hearing on Philippine Tariff.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The Senate Committee on the Philippines today heard W. O. Osborn, director of agriculture for the Philippines, who made an argument in favor of the pending tariff reduction bill. The committee will hear the beet-sugar interests tomorrow.

International American Conference.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Secretary Root will not head the American delegation to the Third International American Conference to be held at Rio de Janeiro next July, at was at first supposed. He has decided, however, that he will hold to his promise made to the diplomatic representatives of the American nations here last fall, and visit Rio de Janeiro when the conference is in session.

Keeping of Cattle in Cars.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Opponents of the Stephens bill extending to forty hours the time that cattle may be kept in cars were heard today by the Committee on Interstate Commerce of the House of Representatives.

High Chinese in Print Shop.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Several members of the Imperial Chinese Commission this morning made a trip through the Government Printing Office, and in the afternoon the whole commission will pay a visit to Fort Myer, where a special cavalry drill will be held for their benefit. About a dozen secretaries and servants of the commission have left for New York, to prepare for the coming of the two commissioners and their suites, who are expected to leave here next Thursday.

Leasing Lands for Buffalo.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Representative Burke introduced a bill, today, authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to lease 5000 acres of public domains to be used exclusively as pasture for native buffalo.

Flint's Postoffice Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Flint today secured the passage of his bill providing for the sale of the old postoffice grounds and the application of the receipts from the sale on additional appropriations for the new building. The bill will undoubtedly pass the House after consideration by the committee.

WANTS JAPANESE KEPT OUT.

Congressman McKinlay Says There Should be No Discrimination in Favor of Brown Men.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Representative Duncan E. McKinlay of California, who is leading the fight of the Pacific Slope to have the provisions of the Chinese exclusion act extended so as to include Japanese and Koreans, stopped over in New York yesterday to look into immigration from the East's point of view. He spent the day at Ellis Island as the guest of Commissioner Robert Watchorn.

"So far as the European, or white races, are concerned," Mr. McKinlay said, "there is no immigration problem. This country is the better for every white man, strong and willing to work, who seeks shelter here. It is only in dealing with the Asiatic races that the bars should be put up and kept up.

"There should be no discrimination between the Japanese and the Chinese. They are both cut out of the same cloth—they both come to exploit the country for their own gain, underselling the labor market, living on twenty cents a day, and sending their earnings to their native land every month. There are probably 60,000 Japanese already in this country and they are pouring in at the rate of 1000 a month.

"Personally, I don't believe that the extension of the provisions of the Chinese exclusion act to include the Japanese would offend the government of that country in the least. When I was in Japan with the Taft party, I had an extended talk with the Marquis Ito and he told me that the Japanese government was anxious to keep its people at home."

CLAREMONT.

GAS FOR COLLEGE TOWN.

CLAREMONT, Jan. 30.—A strenuous effort is being made by the citizens of this community to induce the Edison Company to extend their pipe lines from Pomona and supply gas to residents here. If sufficient patronage be insured it is said the company will come in. Practically the required support has been obtained.

MIGHTY MUSEUM ASSURED.

Field Bequest Makes Mammoth Institute a Certainty—Eight Million Dollars to Go Into It.

[Chicago Chronicle:] Among the most notable bequests of Marshall Field was that of $8,000,000 to the Field Columbian Museum, providing funds for the new home of the museum in Grant Park and an endowment fund in perpetuity which will place the institution beyond the reach of want for many years to come. Concerning this bequest M. N. Higginbotham, president of the institute and lifelong associate of Marshall Field, stated last night that the bequest had exceeded his anticipation.

"It is my opinion," said Mr. Higginbotham, "that three years hence the new Field Museum in Grant Park will be open to the public. The site for the new building has already been determined. It will be situated just outside the Illinois Central tracks on the filling, which is now being made ready. It is our intention to have this filling raised so as to form an approach to the building in a series of terraces beginning just beyond the railroad tracks.

"We intend to obviate the nuisance of smoke from the railroad trains by securing an ordinance compelling the Illinois Central to run all trains passing the museum front by electricity, and I believe this will be done before we have finished the building. It would be a mockery to have a building of this nature defiled by the smoke of continuously passing engines and we will see to it that this long-standing nuisance of Grant Park is done away with or that provisions looking to this end are set under way before we begin the erection of the new museum.

"The new museum will be situated so that the center of the dome will be just opposite the end of Congress street. This is by far the most advantageous position in the park, as it gives a wide stretch of park lands on each side of the building and the vista of buildings in front is more attractive than at any other place in the park. We avoid the commonplace structures at the southern end of the park and the more commercial buildings at the northern end. The building will be one of the few institutions of its kind in the world to have a double front. The lakeside front will be a replica of that toward the city, the frontal elevation on both sides being in Ionic style surmounted by a renaissance dome.

VIEWS OF MEXICAN JUDGE.

Concerning Law as to Foreigner's Rights in Sonora and Lower California.

[Cananea (Mex.) Herald:] Judge B. P. Marquez, judge of the Second Instance of the Civil Court of Cananea, expressed an opinion on the new decree of the Secretary of Fomento last week:

"Certain persons have been given a wrong impression by the new decree of the Secretary of Fomento prohibiting mining agents from receiving mining, real estate and other applications for land from foreigners in Sonora and Lower California.

"It is my belief and the belief of many of those who are learned in the law that this prohibition does not include more than those properties of the zone within sixty miles of the border. Article 2, of the law of 1856, says that foreigners may acquire titles to properties within sixty miles of the border without the permission of the government. On the supposition that Article 30 of the law of foreigners and naturalization gives the same civil rights to foreigners as to Mexican citizens as is stated, with the exception of the restriction above stated in Article 2 of the law of 1856 it is quite probable that the above mentioned decree of the Secretary of Fomento, only prohibits the acquisition of property in the zone within sixty miles of the border and not in the whole State of Sonora or Lower California as many persons have supposed."

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. [Exclusive Dispatch.] U peace is soon restored, o large foreign loan obtai nothing can prevent the s page of gold payments by R sia. On all sides are ind tions that financial conditi are critical.

In the Caucasus, Gen. A hanoff has burned twenty lages and announces that will burn all towns and lages where the least resista is shown.

Reports of disorders amo the sailors at Reval, Esthon are in circulation, but they denied at the Admiralty.

TIFLIS (Caucasia) Monday, Ja —Via St. Petersburg, Jan. 30. murder today of Gen. Griaznoff of the staff of the Viceroy of the Caucasus, was most dramatic and vicious.

The assassin evidently had st the habits of his victim, and l wait behind the walls of the Alex Garden, opposite the entrance o palace, where a carriage was d up to take the general for his drive.

As all suspicious persons are to be searched in the streets by police and military patrols, the a sin impersonated a painter, carr the bomb with which he comm the crime concealed in a paint can was thus able to pass the sentry ed at the gates of the park and t his place of ambush without a suspicion.

Gen. Grainanoff, clad in a civ uniform and the white lambs shapka, or cap, worn by the Vice side-de-camp, made a shining ta for the crouching assassin whe emerged from the palace. As the eral stepped into the carriage man arose on the wall, swung the by a cord, when the bomb, thrown from a sling, with marve precision sped straight to the and struck the general on the nec flash of fire and a terrific explo followed. The general was liter blown out of the carriage, and, his coachman and his Cossack ord and the latter's horse, was instan killed. A lady who was passing at time of the explosion was mort wounded.

When the correspondent of the ociated Press reached the scene mediately after the tragedy, the gh dead still lay in the mud. Gr hoff's shapeless body, surrounded soldiers, presented a sickening spe acle. It seemed as if his crimson u form had melted into the pool of blo which weltered his head, torn fr the trunk. The general's distract widow knelt in the blood and mud side the mutilated body.

ASSASSIN CAUGHT.

The assassin had already be aught, beaten into insensibility by t nfuriated soldiers, and after b eaded into a drosky, was being c ied off to the ancient fortress abo the city, where, as Tiflis is under m tial law, he will probably be execut at dawn.

The most intense excitement p owed the assassination, as terrifi punishment is meted out by the troo bomb throwers. Terrorist Bomb Blows Off the Head of Griaznoff.

He Believed in Showing No Mercy to Rebels.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Unless peace is soon restored, or a large foreign loan obtained, nothing can prevent the stoppage of gold payments by Russia. On all sides are indications that financial conditions are critical.

In the Caucasus, Gen. Alikhanoff has burned twenty villages and announces that he will burn all towns and villages where the least resistance is shown.

Reports of disorders among the sailors at Reval, Esthonia, are in circulation, but they are denied at the Admiralty.

TIFLIS (Caucasia) Monday, Jan. 29.—Via St. Petersburg, Jan. 30.—The murder today of Gen. Griaznoff, chief of the staff of the Viceroy of the Caucasus, was most dramatic and audacious.

The assassin evidently had studied the habits of his victim, and lay in wait behind the walls of the Alexander Garden, opposite the entrance of the palace, where a carriage was drawn up to take the general for his daily drive.

As all suspicious persons are liable to be searched in the streets by the police and military patrols, the assassin impersonated a painter, carrying the bomb with which he committed the crime concealed in a paint can. He was thus able to pass the sentry posted at the gates of the park and reach his place of ambush without arousing suspicion.

Gen. Graiznoff, clad in a crimson uniform and the white lambs wool papaka, or cap, worn by the Viceroy's aide-de-camp, made a shining target for the crouching assassin when he emerged from the palace. As the general stepped into the carriage the man arose on the wall, swung the can by a cord, when the bomb, as if thrown from a sling, with marvelous precision sped straight to the mark and struck the general on the neck. A flash of fire and a terrific explosion followed. The general was literally blown out of the carriage, and, with his coachman and his Cossack orderly and the latter's horse, was instantly killed. A lady who was passing at the time of the explosion was mortally wounded.

When the correspondent of the Associated Press reached the scene, immediately after the tragedy, the ghastly dead still lay in the road. Graiznoff's shapeless body, surrounded by soldiers, presented a sickening spectacle. It seemed as if his crimson uniform had melted into the pool of blood by which weltered his head, torn from the trunk. The general's distracted widow knelt in the blood and mud beside the mutilated body.

ASSASSIN CAUGHT.

The assassin had already been caught, beaten into insensibility by the infuriated soldiers, and after being hauled into a droshky, was being carried off to the ancient fortress above the city, where, as Tiflis is under martial law, he will probably be executed at dawn.

The most intense excitement followed the assassination, as terrible punishment is meted out by the troops to bomb throwers. The population fled in terror before the Cossacks and other troops, who were soon out in force to clear the streets. Shortly before dark a fusillade exchanged between Tartars and Armenians produced a veritable panic, as it was feared that the horrors of the recent war between the races had been renewed. Instantly, all the shops were closed and thousands of troops poured into the streets.

So far as ascertainable, there was no relation between the crime and a renewal of the race war. The crime undoubtedly was a political act of vengeance decreed by the Terrorists. The identity of the assassin has not been established, but he is a Georgian, and was probably selected by lot at a meeting of Social Revolutionists to kill Gen. Griaznoff as retaliation for the latter's severity in repressing the revolutionists and arresting the leaders.

According to reports, the general was the head of a faction which believed in not showing mercy, and he is charged with setting the native people against each other. He had received repeated letters of warning, and for months past, until today, had never ridden out without his wife.

INTEREST RATE RAISED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 30.—An important financial measure, dictated by the drain of the savings banks in consequence of the revolutionary agitation, and impossibility of competing with the rates of private banks, is announced. It increases by imperial order the rate of interest of the government savings banks from 3.6 to 4 per cent.

The government hopes the measure will have a favorable effect on reconciling, which has already recommenced. According to the official statement, the increased deposits in the savings banks for the first half of the month January were $2,500,000, ten times the increase during the similar period of 1905.

At Moscow, according to the Slovo, the depositors of gold are demanding receipts stating explicitly that deposits are returnable in the same metal. The banks refuse to do so.

The rate of interest was decreased from 4 per cent. to 3.6 per cent. in 1894, on account of the favorable position of the government, and the low rate of money at that time.

An order has been signed by the Emperor raising the rate paid on deposits in perpetuity in the imperial bank from 3½ to 4½ per cent.

The rates of exchange are soaring wildly. For drafts on American private banks are charged as high as 201 roubles per $100, whereas, during the preceding summer, the rate was 197.5 roubles per $100.

The official rate of exchange on England is now $8, compared with the Demidoff rate of $4.75, but this rate is available only at the Imperial Bank. The official rate on the Bourse is $5.

JEWS' STATUS UNIMPROVED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BRUSSELS, Jan. 30.—The general Jewish conference, called to consider the state of Jews in Russia, formally opened its session here today under the presidency of David Wolfsohn, chairman of the International Zionist Committee.

In his opening address, President Wolfsohn urged the establishment of an international committee either in Berlin or in London, to watch the interests of the Russian Jews. A motion to this effect went over until a later session.

Mandelstam, of Kieff, presented a report on the conditions in Russia, from which it was gathered that the Jews have no hopes of an improvement in their status resulting from revolution or government reforms. The only solution of the problem, according to the report, is in the foundation of a Jewish fatherland.

Kohan, of Kishineff, said he thought the eventual emigration of all the Jews from Russia was inevitable. He proposed Egypt or Asia Minor as suitable for a Jewish settlement, and advised that all emigration of Jews to the United States or Great Britain be stopped in consequence of the laws against aliens which are in force in those countries.

Delegates from Germany, Austria-Hungary, Great Britain, Russia, France, Italy, Denmark and Argentina are present, but the American delegates have not arrived.

COSSACKS SIDED WITH MOB.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

GOMEL (Russia) Jan. 30.—A battalion of infantry and a machine gun company have arrived to restore order in this city and in the surrounding country, where the peasants have risen and are committing excesses.

Much complaint is made of the conduct of the Cossacks of the garrison during the recent rioting. It is said that they took the part of the mobs, prevented the firemen from extinguishing a fire and even drove off the policemen who were protecting the fire hose. The fire was not extinguished until after the arrival of the firemen from Moghileff. The Governor is conducting a rigid investigation of these complaints.

RIOTERS EMPTY PRISON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

RIGA (Livonia) Jan. 30.—A mob entered the jail in the center of the town this morning, shot down the sentries, broke open the cells and liberated all the political prisoners. Half a company of soldiers was stationed in the building but so rapid and unexpected was the action of the rioters that their purpose was successfully carried out. There were many women among the attacking party.

PLOT TO KILL SOLLOGUB.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

RIGA (Livonia) Jan 30.—The police have discovered a plot to kill Gen. Sologub, Governor-General of the Baltic provinces, and several high civil and military officials. Many arrests have been made. The suspicions of the police were aroused by the constant spying of the conspirators on their intended victims for the purpose of learning their habits.

WANT SENSIBLE MEASURES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MOSCOW, Jan. 30.—The main resolutions adopted by the National Congress of Marshals of the Nobility are a demand for a strong power using sensible measures to suppress the revolution and protect the peaceful population from violence, and the immediate announcement by the Emperor of the date of the convocation of the National Assembly, not later than April 28.

The resolutions further declare that Russia is one and indivisible and a strong stand is made against the separatist movement. The Poles and other border nationalities holding individual nationalities, it is pointed out, must sacrifice their dreams to the interests of the whole nation.

In regard to the agrarian question, in which the nobles, as large land owners, are greatly interested, the congress demands a declaration of the inviolability of private property, recommending the sale of unoccupied government lands on easy terms and the facilitation of credit to enable the peasants to buy private homes.

The resolutions were presented to the Czar at St. Petersburg today by Prince Eugene Troubletskoy.

It is said that 30,000 peasants have signed petitions addressed to the Emperor, asking him to satisfy their land hunger. The petitions have been collected and sent to the Department of Agriculture.

CAUCASIANS SUBMIT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 30.—Alarmed by the vigorous campaign waged by the troops under Gen. Alikhanoff, the inhabitants of the Caucasus are abandoning their revolutionist cause. They are coming in by thousands to make submission, and are giving the most abject promises of good conduct in the future. The campaign against the active insurgents in the mountains has thereby been facilitated. In many cases, the inhabitants themselves have seized and delivered up the ringleaders of the insurrection.

In a telegram to the Emperor, Count von Voronotzoff Dashkoff, Viceroy of the Caucasus, says Gen. Alikhanoff received one deputation of 8000 persons, representing twelve communes near Kwirili. The deputation, which was headed by nobles and clergymen, promised to stop the disorders, to return all property and arms seized and to pay all arrears of rents and taxes if the general would refrain from punishing their people. Another deputation brought in the participants in the attack on the troops at Tengira, bound with ropes. These participants will be executed.

In the district of Osurgeti, however, the Viceroy says, the entire population remains obdurate. One-half the people have fled to the mountains and others are roaming the country, ravaging and burning houses.

Count Witte has received from the Governor of Mogehiloff an account of the excesses at Gomeloff, where there has been fighting in the streets and incendiarism. The origin of the disturbances, the Governor attributes to the murder of a police lieutenant by revolutionists.

The troops, while they are restoring order, are subjected to attacks with bombs and bullets from the houses. The Governor says the soldiers are forced to answer these attacks by firing volleys. The number of dead or wounded is not yet known as the victims are sheltered by their coreligionists.

During the recent fire at Gomel, the frequent explosions of bombs and ammunition showed that the revolutionists were well prepared for the struggle.

"SEA WOLF" IN SPORT AND ALIVE.

CAPT. M'LEAN AND THE ELLA G. REACH UCLULUET.

Desperado Was Responsible for Vessel Venturing Out in the Storm. Officers Were After Him, but He Outran Them—His Wife Thought He'd Turn up.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When it was reported, Sunday night that the schooner Ella G., had been found bottom up and that "Sea Wolf" McLean and all hands had been lost, the captain's wife deciared that she would believe her dare-devil husband was drowned when his dead body was produced. Her faith proved good, for the Ella G. has arrived safe and sound at Ucluluet.

M'LEAN

It seems that McLean was responsible for the schooner venturing out of Neah Bay and facing the storm. While at anchor, Indians warned McLean that government officers were coming to arrest him. The "Sea Wolf" then requested Capt. Fred Forrest of the schooner to set sail, but Forrest refused; McLean "showed his teeth." He drew a pistol, took command, and ran the little vessel out into the straits in the teeth of the storm.

When about half a mile out, lights were seen of a pursuing vessel which proved to be a revenue cutter. The officers found the schooner too speedy to overtake before it reached the Canadian waters, so they raised signals of distress, but McLean was too old a bird to be caught by such chaff.

WOMEN KILLED AND BURNED.

SHOCKING CRIME AT TREMENTINA LAID TO TWO MEN.

Home of Benito Sanches on Fire More Than an Hour and Boarders Made No Effort to Save Mrs. Sanches and School-teacher—Evidences of Criminal Assault.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LAS VEGAS (N. M.) Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sheriff Romero has returned from Trementina in possession of facts that make it appear certain that the burning of the home of Benito Sanches in that village, causing the death of two women and children, was an attempt to conceal the most outrageous crime ever committed in San Miguel county.

There is evidence that the two women, Mrs. Sanches and a young school teacher, were criminally assaulted, murdered, and the house fired to conceal the crimes. Two men who roomed in the house were drunk during the afternoon.

The house was on fire for more than an hour before the floor of the second story, where the women and children slept, fell. The charred remains of the women were found in the ruins, still lying on the bed, and evidences of crime were apparent. The two men were seen some distance from the house. They admitted having seen the fire, but could not account for having left the women and children upstairs in the house. One of the men fled, and the other is in hiding.

Sheriff Romero is satisfied that he has enough evidence to convict the men when found.

WEALTHY FARMER'S END.

NEIGHBORS ARE GOSSIPING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Arsenic poisoning caused the death of Frederick J. Mueller, a wealthy farmer who died at home near Glencoe, St. Louis county, December 30, sixteen days after his marriage to Mrs. Annie Mitchell. He was buried seventeen hours after death, and the body was exhumed twenty hours after interment, for official inquiry as to the cause of death, following gossip among the neighbors that it might have been due to other than natural causes.

Mueller was one of the most prosperous farmers in St. Louis county, and was believed to have a comfortable fortune. He met Mrs. Annie Mitchell, a widow, three months before marriage, and had met her only three times when she became his wife. The ceremony was performed December 13, by Justice Gucke of Gumbo, Mo., twenty miles west on Natural Bridge road. An ante-nuptial agreement was signed the day before the wedding, under which the widow was to get one-half his property. An inquest will be held Thursday at Mueller's former home.

MEXICANS BREAK JAIL.

ATTACK SHERIFF AT SUPPER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LAS ANIMAS (Colo.) Jan. 30.—Two Mexicans held prisoners in the County Jail, one of them Garcia Gonzales, charged with stealing a sum of money from a package torn open in a wreck in New Mexico recently, fought their way out of jail last night and are being pursued by a posse.

Gonzales, who is of powerful physique, struck down Sheriff John D. Brown as he and his daughter, a girl 15 years of age, were serving supper to the prisoners. Sheriff Brown fought off the prisoner, but could not overpower him. While this was going on, the girl was struggling with another Mexican, striking him several times with a dish tray. She was no more successful than her father in her efforts to prevent the ja break and was compelled to give up when both prisoners dashed out into the jail yard and disappeared in the darkness.

Neither the Sheriff nor his daughter were severely injured.

CRIME BRIEFS.

He Doled Out Superintendencies.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—Paul W. Wittner was arrested in the Palace Hotel last night on a charge of grand larceny. He had been representing himself as the Pacific Coast representative of a fruit company of Boston, authorized to dole out superintendencies of banana plantations in Guatemala.

She'll Tell Truth About Tragedy.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—The work of securing a jury to try Chillion Bowen for the murder of W. W. Stephenson, formerly a wealthy rancher of Washo, Nev., was begun today in Judge Lawlor's department of the Superior Court. Mrs. Stephenson was present. She said that she would go on the stand and tell the truth about the tragedy.

Robs Chinese Clubhouse Employees.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—A burglar, believed a Chinese, forced an entrance to the Concordia Club rooms, Van Ness avenue and Post streets, some time yesterday, and secured $200 and a bank book showing deposits in the California Bank abounting to $300. All the stolen property belonged to Chinese employés at the club.

Left Saturday; Warrant Out Tuesday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—A warrant was issued today for the arrest of William S. Grover, secretary and treasurer of the Equitable Guarantee Company, charging him with having embezzled $3500. Grover was also in the employ of the Boston Woven Hose and Rubber Company, and the cashier of the latter concern, Austin Kanzee, who swore to the complaint against Grover, alleges that total peculations will probably exceed $10,000. Grover, who also practiced as an attorney, disappeared last Saturday.

GREATEST ACTION ALONG LINE OF THE SANTA FE.

San Francisco Peak Believed to Have Been in Eruption at a Very Recent Geological Period—Flagstaff's Water Supply, Gathered in the Crater, Cut Off by Tremblor.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Jan. 29.—This town appears to have been on the very edge of the earthquake which stirred Northern Arizona, Thursday afternoon. The line of greatest action was along the Santa Fé railroad, and the center seems to have been the San Francisco peaks, above Flagstaff. San Francisco Mountain, 13,000 feet high, is an extinct volcano, from the summit of which hundreds of volcanic cones can be seen, scattered about within a radius of twenty miles. It is believed that the mountain was in eruption up to very recent geologic times, much of the lava appearing as fresh as though it had followed within a year.

For more than 100 miles around, the region was covered deep in volcanic scoriae, in places 120 feet in depth. The original crater was about two miles in length by one in width, but within it, just under Mt. Agassiz, is a smaller crater which, evidently, was the last to subside. There is an interesting theory to the effect that the Grand Cañon of the Colorado River was started by an earthquake crack during the time of one of the mighty cataclysms that proceeded by San Francisco Mountain. Earthquakes are not common in Arizona, and the question seems to be over what part the slumbering fires under the Frisco peaks had to do with the disturbance just passed through.

From Flagstaff comes the news that the town's water supply, gathered from the old crater, has been cut off since the earthquake. The snow is too deep for exploration and the general assumption is that the water is going into a newly-opened volcanic crack. More likely is the theory that the pipe line has been broken by an avalanche of snow.

TRAIL OF CHAVES MURDER.

On November 27, 1904, Col. J. Francisco Chaves, superintendent of public instruction of New Mexico and Territorial Historian, was murdered at Pinos Wells, N. M., a bullet fired from the outside, passing through his body as he sat in a Mexican house, near the window, after his supper. The assassin escaped for the time. His trail was followed by bloodhounds, brought from the Territorial Penitentiary, but was effaced by the passing of a band of sheep. Domingo Valles was arrested soon after and taken to Santa Fé, where he is still held awaiting trial. It now appears that a man calling himself Frank Bell, has been held in the County Jail in Prescott for the past three days, secretly committed by the Sheriff, who has alleged, in a telegram to Gov. Hagerman of New Mexico, that Bell has confessed to the Chaves murder. Gov. Hagerman has dispatched a United States deputy marshal from Albuquerque to Prescott to conduct an investigation, upon which to base a possible demand for extradition.

NO BAIL FOR OGDEN.

Eliel Ogden has been held without bail in Kingman, charged with the murder of T. C. Lake. Ogden was a mail carrier, and had been taking Lake's mail to the latter's home, near Cerbat. He forgot the mail one day and was roundly abused by Lake. Ogden brooded over the insults received, and on meeting Lake again on the road, produced a revolver and demanded a retraction of the abuse. Lake simply asked to be allowed to arm himself. Ogden's reply was to fire his pistol twice in the air and then twice at his victim, one bullet passing through the body and another through the left arm. Lake died in a hospital a couple of days later.

MAVERICKS OF NEWS.

Samuel Parks Allen was arrested lately at Needles and returned to Flagstaff, where, till last Wednesday, he had been held at the County Jail awaiting trial for robbery. He happened to be a friend of the Sheriff, who permitted him to go down town to see his wife. He forgot to return and the Sheriff wants him back just $50 worth. Allen was a Santa Fé freight conductor, and was arrested for robbing a tramp who had been attempting to steal a ride with him. He was promptly discharged by the railroad company and bonded for appearance before the next grand jury. He had "jumped" his bond when he fled into California.

W. M. Perrill, lately arrested in San Bernardino, Cal., to be returned to Provo, Utah, to stand trial for forgery, was at one time prosecuting attorney of Navajo county, Ariz., and was accounted a lawyer of high ability. When found in California, he was in overalls, working as an orange picker.

About one thousand men are now employed on track improvement work along the Santa Fé-Pacific road in New Mexico, and Arizona. The management of the road is fearing heavy spring freshets and is putting the track in the best possible condition, to guard against possible washouts.

Flagstaff has an excellent telephone system, owned by the subscribers, who are assessed $25 for each 'phone installed. The association will this year change the system to automatic equipment.

WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU

Few People Realize the Importance of Good Digestion Until It Is Lost.

Many people suffer from dyspepsia and do not know it. They feel mean, out of sorts, peevish, do not sleep well, do not have a good, keen appetite, do not have the inclination and energy for physical or mental work they once had, but at the same time do not feel any particular pain or distress in the stomach. Yet all this is the result of poor digestion, an insidious form of Dyspepsia which can only be cured by a remedy specially intended to cure it and make the digestive organs act naturally, and properly digest the food eaten. Bitters, after dinner pills and nerve tonics will never help the trouble; they don't reach it. The new medical discovery does. It is called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and is a specific for dyspepsia and indigestion. It cures because it thoroughly digests all wholesome food taken into the stomach, whether the stomach is in good working order or not.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, by digesting the food, instead of making the worn out stomach do all the work, gives it a much needed rest and a cure of dyspepsia is the natural result.

When you are nervous, run down and sleepless, don't make the common mistake of supposing your nervous system needs treatment and fill your stomach with powerful nerve tonics which make you feel good for a little while only to fall back farther than ever.

Your nerves are all right but they are starved, they want food.

Nourish them with wholesome every-day food and plenty of it, well digested, and you can laugh at nerve tonics and medicine.

But the nerves will not be nourished from a weak, abused stomach, but when the digestion has been made perfect by the use of this remedy all nervous symptoms disappear.

Who ever heard of a man or woman blessed with vigorous digestion and good appetite being troubled with their nerves?

Good digestion means a strong nervous system, abundance of energy, and capacity to enjoy the good things of life.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will certainly set your stomach and digestive organs right; they can't help but do it because they nourish the body by digesting the food eaten, and rest the stomach.

You get nourishment and rest at one and the same time, and that is all the worn out dyspeptic needs to build him up and give new life to every organ and an added zest to every pleasure.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a god-send to the army of men and women with weak stomachs and nerves and justly merits the claim of being one of the most worthy medical discoveries of the time.

JERSEY ROSE

Pure Milk in Clean Bottles

If you realize how important a pure milk supply is to your family, you will appreciate the value and advantages of using Jersey Rose Milk. Jersey Rose Milk is pure—rich, sweet milk, thoroughly clean, carefully pasteurized—the result of a perfect system which ensures the consumer a uniformly pure milk—month in, month out. Further, Jersey Rose Milk is so carefully bottled that its purity is maintained. No half clean, germ-breeding milk bottles—the bottles in which Jersey Rose Milk is delivered are thoroughly cleaned, then sterilized just before use, so that you can rely upon getting "pure milk in clean bottles." A moment's reflection will convince you how essential to the family health a pure milk supply is.

Classified Liners.

Times' "Liner" Advertisers—Important. Note change in rate for Sunday classified advertisements. Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1905, the rate for Sunday "Liners" was raised to 1¼ cents per word for each insertion; minimum charge, 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is amply justified by the present Sunday circulation of The Times, which averages over 60,000 copies. (When the 1-cent-per-word rate was established in 1903, The Times Sunday circulation was only 14,000 copies.) The "Liner" rate for the daily—1 cent per word—will stand as at present.

Telephone your want advertisements. Ring up "The Times" any time of day or night, and secure prompt and careful attention. Rates one cent a word each insertion in the Daily; 1¼ cents per word in the Sunday edition; minimum charge 25c.

"Liner" (classified) advertisements for Sunday insertion received over the counter or by telephone after 11 o'clock Saturday nights will be inserted under heading "Too Late to Classify."

The Times cannot guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors of any kind occurring in telephoned advertisements.

Sunday real estate advertisements, to be classified properly, must be in The Times office before 10 o'clock Saturday nights. Rate 1¼ cents per word.

FOR SALE—
CITY AUTHORITIES SAY THE

"FIRE TRAPS ON THE HILL MUST GO."
This will make this hill the only hotel and apartment house section safe from DESTRUCTION and DEATH! Now, then, colonial style; very SMALL and will get to be no LARGER, whilst the population of the city is rapidly INCREASING hence there will be a demand for the occupation of EVERY FOOT of this FIRE PROTECTED hill.
NOW you can buy for less than HALF that demanded in other sections, where NO fire protection is PROMISED;
while, mind, they are buy this FIRE PROTECTED property
BEFORE it ADVANCES in price; we have made a SPECIALTY of this HILL property; we have listed practically ALL there is offered for sale.
We would sell 100x165 feet,
only three blocks from THE TIMES OFFICE, for $25,000, $11,000 will handle it.
We also have 5 very fine corners;
if improved, these properties would pay BIG interest on cost of building and DOUBLE the price at which the ground is now offered.
It follows, therefore, that these lots necessarily must DOUBLE in value.

ESPEE HIT IN GOULD FIGHT.

Boomerang in Move to Harm Western Pacific.

Harriman Line Must Pull in Horns at Oakland.

Cannot Bottle up Terminals of the New Road.

The Western Pacific must remove its tracks from the north training wall of the Oakland estuary, and the Southern Pacific must vacate the south training wall, which it has occupied with tanks, tracks, poles and other works, says the San Francisco Chronicle. This is the decision of the War Department, as contained in a telegram of instructions received from Washington yesterday morning by Col. Heuer.

Col. Heuer's instructions require him to serve notice on the Western Pacific that it must secure a modification of the restraining order which at present prevents it from disturbing its tracks along the north jetty, and, having secured the necessary permission of the Federal Court, must remove its tracks within thirty days. No restraining orders affect any of the operations on the south training wall, where the Southern Pacific, during the past several days, has been diligently engaged in adding to the height of the wall with granite blocks and sand bags and in laying tracks; so Col. Heuer's instructions regarding the south wall are somewhat different. He is directed simply to notify the Southern Pacific that it must vacate the wall within thirty days.

BLOW TO HARRIMAN.

This decision of the War Department is quite a blow to the self-satisfaction and assurance that the Southern Pacific has displayed in taking possession of the Government's jetty without its permission, for it means that the massive oil and water tanks and other structures which now rest on the wall, together with a considerable stretch of track, poles and wires will have to be removed from the government's property. This predicament in which the Harriman road now finds itself has caused a quiet smile in local railroad circles, for it is the first severe penalty which the Southern Pacific has been called upon to pay for its determined opposition to the Gould road. But for the terminal fight now in progress, it is declared, the Southern Pacific's unlawful occupation of the south training wall would probably not have been questioned by the War Department. Col. Heuer admits as much. The Southern Pacific, however, having questioned the right of the Western Pacific to occupy the north training wall, the War Department had no alternative but to order both railroads off.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC LOSS.

This action deprives the Southern Pacific of the use of a strip of valuable property from twenty to thirty feet wide extending the entire length of the south training wall, which the company has been planning to utilize as additional track space on its Alameda mole. Now, if the Southern Pacific wants more track space on the Alameda mole, it will be put to the expense of making a costly fill on the south side of the mole, and in the event to come it will cast envious glances at the vacant strip of valuable land along the training wall which it might have used but for the fact that it kicked up on the other side of the estuary. And there is just a chance, while covetously eying the forbidden territory that once supported its tracks, poles, tanks and other structures, it may regret the hour when it became possessed of the idea that it could bottle up the Western Pacific on the shores of the Oakland estuary.

GOULD NOT WORRIED.

With the Western Pacific the situation is much different. The War Department's order for the Gould road to vacate the north training wall does not mean the loss of any equities or advantages which the Gould road has obtained by laying its tracks along the jetty. The Western Pacific people are free to confess that their tracks rest on Federal territory through interference and the company is perfectly willing to shift its tracks a few feet to the northward in compliance with the orders of the War Department, if the track is partly on State land. The Western Pacific is willing that it should be entirely on State land. It is not to be presumed that the Southern Pacific will consent to any further occupation of the State lands by its rival, but the explanation is offered that the company might agree to a removal of the tracks under a stipulation that such action should not be made to affect in any manner the issues of the case as they at present exist. The whole matter will come up for consideration in Judge Morrow's court on Monday, at which time both roads will submit a mass of evidence in the shape of affidavits.

NORTH TRAINING WALL.

Although the War Department has ordered the Western Pacific off the north training wall, it has taken no action toward compelling the Southern Pacific to vacate that structure. The Southern Pacific is quite as much a trespasser on the north jetty through its pile-driving operations near the Fruitvale-street slip as is the Western Pacific with its tracks. It is the view of Col. Heuer, however, that the operations of the Southern Pacific near the Fruitvale-street slip cannot be questioned by the Federal government. The War Department has established harbor lines in the Oakland estuary east of the head in the north jetty. From this head in the training wall all the way up the estuary there is a bulkhead line and a pierhead line. The company's pile-driving operations are declared to be confined entirely within harbor lines, so the War Department is not concerned with them so long as the jetty itself is not impaired or disturbed.

ESPEE'S RUDE SHOCK.

A rude shock disturbed the Harriman attorneys yesterday. They received the text of the decision of the Secretary of War on the Western Pacific application to fill the area at the west end of the training wall inside the proposed bulkheads. It was not the application was not granted; but as the lawyers of the Kentucky corporation read on they saw, to their dismay, that the War Department was assuming that, as a matter of course, the Western Pacific would win its fight and get just the thing it asked.

While it is not possible to grant the application now, the decision says that yet at some future time, when it is determined how much space the present dredging operations will fill, the Western Pacific may then be granted the permission to make the fill it desires in front of its proposed new slip. For the present the application is denied, but it may be renewed later.

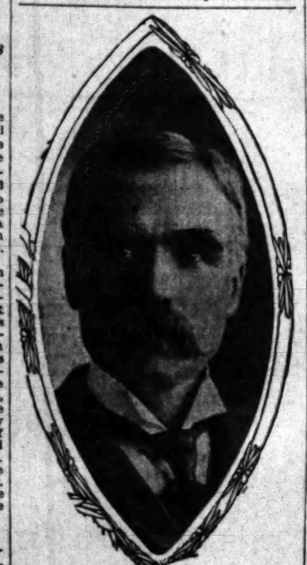
Through the filing of four condemnation suits in the Superior Court of Alameda county yesterday, the Western Pacific Company has finally settled the question of the right of way which it wants through Hayward. The line runs within two blocks of the business section of that town.

WHARF MYSTERY SOLVED.

Body of Man Who Committed Suicide on Long Beach Pier Fully Identified.

The finding of the body of an unknown man on the wharf at Long Beach, on December 22, with a bullet through his head, was recalled by the receipt of a letter from San Francisco by the Police Department on Monday.

The letter was from L. D. Gandion of San Francisco, notifying the police of the disappearance of his father, J. A. Gandion, from this city on December 22, and asking that every means be employed to locate him.



J. E. GANDION.

Detective W. E. Smith, who is connected with the office of Capt. Brodhead, at once coupled the case of the Long Beach body with this letter, and yesterday had made the identification complete. The picture taken of the man as he lay dead in the undertaker's establishment leaves no room for doubt, even were there no other points of identification.

Gandion came to this city in October, from Denver. His home had been in Topeka, Kan., at No. 1017 Jackson street, and owing to failing health he came to this city, stopping at various places en route, so that he was several months getting here.

He rented a cottage at No. 729 Wall street, and sublet furnished rooms. On December 22 he wrote to his son in San Francisco, saying that his health had been failing and he thought best to inform the latter of his affairs. On the same day he turned the care of the cottage over to Mrs. Olive Miller at No. 745 Wall street, said he was not feeling well and would take a trip to San Diego, but if he did not return she should write to his son. At the end of three weeks she did as requested, as she failed to hear from him.

If Mrs. Miller heard of the man who had committed suicide on the Long Beach wharf, on the evening of the day that Mr. Gandion left her, saying he was going to San Diego, she failed to connect the two circumstances and never had a suspicion until approached by Detective Smith on Monday.

It will be recalled that the man was found lying on the wharf on his back, with his feet hanging over the edge. It was his apparent intention that his body should roll over into the ocean, but when he placed the revolver at his mouth and fired the fatal shot that passed upward through his brain, his body fell backwards, while the revolver fell from his hand into the ocean, where it was found.

The only explanation of the man's self-destruction is that he became despondent at his failing health and decided to end it all. He intimated nothing of the kind to his son or to Mrs. Miller.

LACK OF HELP DELAYS MAILS.

NOT ENOUGH MEN TO HANDLE INCREASE IN BUSINESS.

Division Superintendent Stephens of Railway Postal Service, Here to Assist in Local Situation, Says Eligible List Must be Increased at Once.

A. H. Stephens, superintendent of the Eighth Division, Railway Mail Service, has come to Los Angeles in response to Postmaster Flint's request for relief on handling the congestion of mails. Stephens's division includes the seven States west of the Rockies, Alaska and the Territory of Hawaii. The scarcity of men to fill the places and the rapidly-growing needs of the West, made his life a busy one just now.

"We can't get men enough to fill the places," said Stephens yesterday. "The eligible list has been exhausted in five of the seven Western States—all of my division except Washington and Oregon. The number of men who have declined positions is very large. You can hardly blame them. The times are good, there is plenty of work, and any capable man can get a chance to make a large salary. The limit of the salaries paid by the railway postoffice service is slightly over $1000 a year, and a man has to serve a probation of two or three years before he gets that. He starts with $800 the first year.

"The mail to the West has increased greatly during the past year—to Los Angeles from the East the increase has been about 50 per cent. The service is overworked, and the only relief we can get is in more men. And more men won't be forthcoming until we have additions to the eligibility list. I have a blanket order to put on enough men to run the new fast mail service from Ogden west, and all I could put on was eight. They need eighteen more there. Four new men are authorized for the Southern Pacific east out of here, and three for the Santa Fé, but the places are not filled.

"I have authorized the Civil Service Commissioners to hold a special examination in several places, in order to get more men. The examination for Arizona will be tomorrow, and the one here early in February.

"The new San Diego service will be on in a short time, and that will save nearly two hours in the distribution. The mails will go direct to Station C, in this city, instead of to the central office. The service will require an extra man.

"We expect to extend the use of the electric roads in the local service. They make good time, allow us a flexible connection, and are cheaper than the others. Just as fast as we can we shall put railway postoffice cars on."

Stephens had a conference with Postmaster Flint yesterday morning, and in the afternoon he met the railway postoffice employés, to talk over with them the faults of the service. The run east now ends at El Paso on the Southern Pacific, and it is a through trip for the men. When the additional help is secured, the run will be shortened, but until then the long run and the heavy work are hardships that must be straightened out as much as possible.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

A COSTLY SQUABBLE.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Fraulein Stolle Again.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the House of the Good Shepherd has arranged for an illustrated lecture on "A Visit to Florence," by Fraulein Antonie Stolle at Simpson Auditorium tomorrow evening of next week.

Bankrupt Fireman.

Thomas H. Bennet, a Los Angeles fireman, has filed papers in bankruptcy. The claims against him are all unsecured, and amount to $772.27, to offset which Bennet has $50 in personal property, claimed as exempt. The debts are for groceries, rent and borrowed money.

Fine Pomelos.

A. P. Griffith of Azusa, who has been making a striking display of pomelos at the Chamber of Commerce, sent in a new lot yesterday that are finer than the previous ones. They are of the nectar variety, of good size, with an even, smooth skin, and with little variation in weight.

Handsome Report.

The joint committee of the Mazama Club and the Sierra Club has had published an interesting report on the subject of the Mt. Rainier National Park. The book is elaborately illustrated with a number of beautiful half-tone prints of the climbing of Mt. Rainier by the Sierra Club.

A Dakota Builder.

Bartlett Tripp has come to the city from his home at Yankton, S. D. Mr. Tripp was one of the men who built up what was then the Territory of Dakota, serving in various capacities from the Board of Education to Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. He was later appointed Minister to Austria, and recently was the chairman of the Samoan Commission.

He Falls in Love.

C. W. Bradshaw of Winnipeg, Can., is in Los Angeles for an extended visit. He is the senior member of a strong law firm. Mr. Bradshaw came to Los Angeles three years ago, fell in love with this city and has returned possibly to stay. On his former visit he bought a walnut grove at Whittier, and he intends to do something with the property.

And Still She Sleeps.

Florence Parker, who has slept an unnatural sleep for more than three weeks at the Sisters' Hospital, showed no signs of awakening yesterday. The attending physicians are nonplussed, and while they say the girl is suffering from nervous trouble they cannot explain what it is. At midnight she entered upon the nineteenth day of her slumber.

No Clues to Mrs. Chase.

Those searching for Mrs. Waldo F. Chase have exhausted every theory advanced as to what has become of her, except one, and that is that she took her life by jumping into the ocean from a pier at one of the beaches. The distracted husband and his friends and the officers are still searching. It is coming to be the belief of the officers that the ocean will give up the secret.

From Gen. Chaffee.

A personal letter from Gen. Adna R. Chaffee to a friend in this city, states that he and his family will go to the City of Mexico in February to remain till April. Then, returning to Washington, the Chaffees will close their home and after a visit to West Point in June will set their faces westward. They will probably arrive in Los Angeles in August or September, and are likely to settle down here in a home of their own.

Light Sentence.

Francisco C. Mattos was yesterday sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and serve six months in the County Jail at Santa Barbara, after pleading guilty to a charge of counterfeiting. This is Mattos's second trial. At the first he pleaded not guilty, and the jury disagreed. The man is a Portugese, recently come to this country, and is ignorant. He apparently did not realize the seriousness of his crime, even allowing an outsider to be present when he made the false coins. In view of this fact, the court imposed a light sentence.

Hundred Year Club.

The Hundred Year Club met yesterday morning at the New England Hall, with a large attendance. Madame Severance was present, and the club gave her a bouquet of eighty-five German hyacinths in remembrance of her birthday—one for each year. In presenting it the president expressed the wish that the club might be privileged to give her such an offering for many years. Prof. Warmann gave a talk on "What to Eat, When to Eat, and How to Eat." His suggestions were not only interesting in themselves, but the manner in which they were presented was no less enjoyable than the matter.

Missionary Meeting.

The Los Angeles District Women's Home Missionary Society met in University Methodist Church yesterday, with 100 delegates and several hundred visitors. The reports showed $1800 raised as the silver offering to the $200,000 mission fund, the entire apportionment of Southern California being $4000. They also raised $50 yesterday for Mrs. Jennie Hansen's emigrant work at San Pedro. There were a number of interesting addresses by women well known in Methodism, and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. I. L. Spencer; vice-presidents, Mrs. M. J. Robinson, Mrs. McQuigg, Mrs. F. A. Zeigler; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. M. Buck; recording secretary, Mrs. W. M. Sterling; treasurer, Mrs. Emma Smith.

Rain, Sunshine, Growth.

"The abundant and well distributed rains of the previous week were followed by warm, sunshiny weather, which had a marked effect upon the growth of vegetation," says the weekly climate and crop service bulletin of the Weather Bureau. "Grain and grass were materially improved, and with a continuation of the fine, warm weather, farmers will be able to finish plowing and seeding. The favorable weather conditions give farmers every encouragement for a prosperous season. Oranges are being shipped freely from some sections, while in others the shipments have just been resumed, with the packing-houses running at half of their capacity. The fruit is ripe, and of fine quality, but the large size in some places is somewhat of a detriment, and in others the fear of the fruit running to smaller size will be removed by a few days more of warm, clear weather. The clear, warm weather has started the almond trees to bloom."

Obituary.

Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Gilbert Galusha died at her late residence in this city January 30, 1906, at 9 o'clock a.m., from the result of injuries received in the late Second-street railway accident. She was born in Savannah, Ga., March 1, 1851, and married Charles C. Galusha October 10, 1876, removing to Rochester, N. Y., where she resided until December, 1902, when she removed to Los Angeles. Her husband died March 15, 1881. She was a daughter of Edward Gilbert and Margaret Elizabeth Roosevelt of New York City. She leaves surviving her her son, Elon Gilbert Galusha, a prominent young attorney; her sister, Miss Eurettа D. Gilbert, and her niece, Euretta May Gilbert, all of this city, and her brother, James Banks Gilbert of Oswego, Kan. Mrs. Galusha was a woman of lovely characteristics and most charming personality, who had many warm friends both here and in her former home in New York, by whom she was greatly beloved.

The Sale of Water Damaged Goods continues to be of all absorbing interest to the women of Los Angeles who recognize bargains when they see them. Fresh lots from the reserve stock in the basement are being brought forward as fast as a large force can sort and get them ready for the counters.

We must close out every yard of these damaged goods and every article, of whatever nature that shows the effects of the water, at the very earliest possible moment in order to get the store in readiness to receive the new spring stock.

Cost or former price will play but a small part in these transactions. Where an article lags we will put a price upon it that will hurry it along.

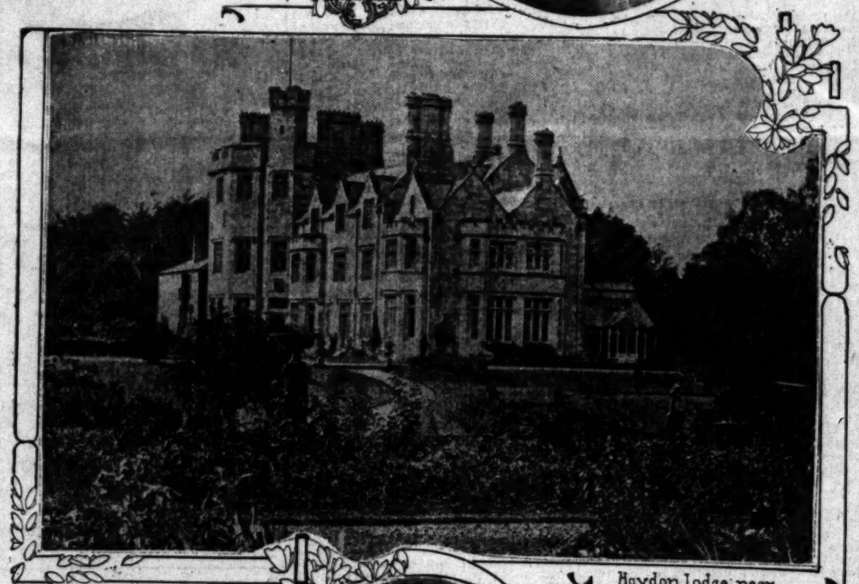
BAKER-SINGER INHERITS FORTUNE OF A MILLION.

HUGH N. CALLENDER of Los Angeles will be a rich man. News of his father's death received yesterday, means that the local baker-singer will inherit a million dollars or more in England, the old family home. The glad tidings and the message of good fortune, the strange severing of the family ties long ago—all these make a romantic and unusual story.

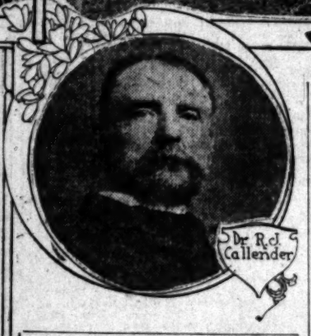
From a flat in a crowded Los Angeles street to a fine old English country house; from the management of a little bakery to the care of a large property, and from the circumscribed limits of musical affairs to the broader scope where only his natural ability may be the metes and bounds—this is the step to be taken by Hugh Callender, a well-known musician of this city, through the inheritance of an English estate said to be worth several millions of dollars.

Fortune's wheel, in one of its sudden revolutions, has brought to the Callender family the means of fulfilling the long-treasured ambitions of its members for musical study and the leisure for the full development of their talents.



Haydon Lodge near Newcastle-on-Tyne

Hugh N Callender



Glimpse of the beautiful Callender estate, its dead owner, and the Los Angeles heir and his daughter.

It also means much more than this—but the opportunity for progress in the work beloved by both father and daughter, Miss Stella Callender, is the phase which most appeals to them.

Hugh Callender is known to the musical circles of Los Angeles through his excellent work in the Ellis Club, the Philharmonic Quartette and other organizations. He is also the tenor in the quartette choir of the First Presbyterian Church, of which Dr. Frank DeWitt Talmage is pastor.

Miss Stella Callender has sung herself into the very hearts of the people of this city. Particularly has her solo work been pleasing to the public at the weekly meetings conducted by Francis Murphy. There she sang the songs which appeal to the heart, and which lift the lives of men to a nobler plane, and the influence of this sweet singer in these Sunday-night meetings has reached many a despondent man and has been immeasurable.

Miss Callender was twice a contestant in the Times scholarship contests, and her popularity is shown by the fact that each time she came out with one of the principal prizes.

Her early musical studies were under the direction of her mother, who is a graduate of a musical institution at Sacramento. For a short time Miss Callender was a pupil of the late Prof. Vaillent de la Croix, and she is now under instruction from Signor Janotta.

THE GREAT ESTATE.

It is through the death of the venerable Dr. Robert Joseph Callender of Haydon Bridge, near Newcastle-on-Tyne, that Hugh Callender, with his two brothers, comes into the Callender and Nanney estates. The property is mainly from the maternal side of the house of Callender. Mrs. Callender was a Nanney, a member of the well-known Welsh family bearing this patronymic, and which holds large landed interests in both England and Wales.

There are three living brothers, Lewis, Robert and Hugh Callender, sons of Dr. Robert Joseph Callender. Lewis and Robert are both physicians, as was their father before them; and Hugh had also intended to enter the profession, but early events changed his career, although he had taken up the study of medicine before he left England.

Dr. Callender was deeply disappointed at the birth of Hugh that the baby was not a girl. His only daughter had died in childhood, and he longed for another. The disappointed man used often to refer to this, until, at the time when Hugh was a well-grown lad, almost a young man, he represented a reference made to this long-discussed subject and left the parental home.

From that time Hugh Callender never saw his father or mother again. His mother longed for him, and tried to trace his whereabouts, but she died within a few years thereafter.

HUGH AS A WANDERER.

The runaway boy went first to Canada, then to various sections of the Eastern States. He finally drifted westward, and spent some years in Idaho and Oregon, and then came to California, where he married.

Mrs. Callender is a member of one of the pioneer California families. Her grandfather, Jacob Smoke, came around the Horn from New York, arriving in San Francisco in 1848, and was one of the original owners of the Seal Rock. His son, the father of Mrs. Callender, was a musician and a well-known tragedian of early California days. Mrs. Callender's mother was a woman of literary talent and was a contributor to the Eastern magazines and newspapers under the pen name of "Grace Greenwood."

For many years the English physician, whose country home was at Haydon Lodge, Haydon Bridge, near Newcastle-on-Tyne, heard not a word from his son in America. Finally, through the intervention of friends, the location of the son was made known to his father, and there was begun a correspondence between them. This correspondence was continued at lengthening intervals, but the Los Angeles Callender had not heard from his father for many months until the message came yesterday of his death.

ANOTHER HEIR MISSING.

Dr. Lewis Callender, the second son, left England in 1896, and it is not known to what country he emigrated. It is necessary to locate him, or to secure proofs of his death, before the English estates can be legally divided. Partition proceedings only await this step. If he is not found the Angeleno's share will be a half million more.

While it is known that the Callender home, Haydon Lodge, is a very valuable property, and that there are vast land interests in connection, Callender himself is unable to give details as to its extent, as he has been so long away from England and unfamiliar with the details of the family affairs. However the coming into possession of their share of this handsome estate means a million dollars or more and will give both the Callender musicians who reside here ample opportunity to carry out their desires for culture in music.

Miss Stella Callender has ambitions to become a concert vocalist, and it is said she has received much encouragement from noted musicians who have heard her sing.

Mr. Callender retained an attorney to look after his interests, and it is probable the closing up of the estate will require his own presence in England within a few months.

For two years the Callenders have been conducting a little bakery on Temple street, opposite the Temperance Temple. Their home is at 484½ California street.

CALVE AGAIN FINDS A JEWEL.

FAMED DIVA TAKES MARION BADGER AS HER PUPIL.

Young Local Singer of Promise Leaves in Private Car With Noted Artist, Who is Charmed With Her Voice—Benefactress Will Give Her Personal Instruction.

Emma Calvé has again taken Los Angeles talent unto herself.

This time it is Marion Badger, a young local singer, who left for the East yesterday morning with Mlle. Calvé, on her private car.

Miss Badger is to be the pupil of Mlle. Calvé herself, and is to live with her for an indefinite period. This part of it—the personal Calvé tuition—is a rare thing indeed, and is accorded to few young aspirants who have ever been so fortunate as to claim the famous diva's attention.

Miss Badger's voice is a pure soprano, of remarkably sweet, light quality, and exceptionally brilliant in its upper register. The prima-donna was in raptures over the possibilities of the young singer, and urged her by all means to devote herself to music.

Last spring the fortunate student appeared here in a production of amateur opera, and was immediately recognized as the possessor of unusual talent. Later she sang soprano parts in the Belasco Theater presentation of "Parsifal," and again came into public notice because of her work. During the summer she sang in San Francisco, and alternated in residence between the northern city and her modest apartment on West Third street here.

It is the intention of Calvé to make the best possible use of Mis Badger's voice, and she will bend unusual personal care toward the accomplishment of this end.

MISS MARION BADGER.

LEAVES WHITTIER BOARD.

Dr. Lindley Resigns as Trustee of the State School and C. C. Desmond Is Appointed.

A dispatch received from Sacramento yesterday announced that the resignation of Dr. Walter Lindley as a member of the board of trustees of the Whittier State School had been accepted and that C. C. Desmond of this city had been appointed to fill the vacancy.

The resignation of Dr. Lindley, which was sent to the Governor bearing date of December 30, stated that he had served on the board for nine years. It further said that his duties in connection with the medical college and other matters required so much of his time that he could not give the school the attention it deserved. The doctor requested that the resignation be accepted before February 1.

SAVED BY FENDER.

J. B. Brown of No. 3445 Del Monte street was knocked down by Grand-avenue car No. 348 and painfully bruised yesterday afternoon at the corner of Downey avenue and Johnson street. The car was bound south shortly before 6 o'clock and Brown attempted to cross the tracks on his bicycle. The car struck the wheel and Brown and wheel were thrown several feet, landing between the rails. The fender picked up both man and bicycle and carried them some distance. Brown merely sustained a bad shaking up and a few bruises. He was able to go to his home unassisted.

UNION DEPOT IN THE YEAR.

Espee Will Rush the Fine Station to Finish.

Arcade to Stand Until New Quarters are Up.

Elaborate Plans for Great Passenger Terminal.

The old Arcade depot of the Southern Pacific is to stand and continue to serve the public until the magnificent new $500,000 union station planned to supersede it is complete and ready for occupancy—about November next.

Such is the dictum following a San Francisco conference just closed of the operating and engineering heads of the system.

From headquarters in Chicago orders have been wired to John D. Isaacs, consulting engineer of the Harriman lines, San Francisco, and to General Superintendent R. H. Ingram in this city, to rush the proposed structure through to completion.

They will advertise immediately for bids, and it is confidently believed that actual work of construction will begin within the next sixty days. Every effort will be put forth to have the magnificent new station ready for use either by November 1, or at the latest by the end of the current year.

During this time passengers will enter and leave the present station at either end of a walled-in enclosure encircling the work on the new building. When the new depot is complete and entirely furnished, it will be the work of but a few days to raze the Arcade to the ground and complete the new track layout.

UNIQUE AND UNEQUALED.

As already announced in The Times, and now shown in the plans published for the first time, this building, unique and unimitated in its way in modern depot construction, will be not only one of the handsomest but one of the most ideally arranged terminal stations in the United States.

Whether in the commodious track arrangement providing accommodations sufficient not only for the Southern Pacific and the Salt Lake roads, which will make it their joint terminal, but also ample room for the Santa Fé, should it decide to come in, or in the general plan for handling passengers in and out of the depot, the new station will be unequaled by anything of the kind in the West.

In design, finish and general magnificent appearance, it bids fair not only to be a credit to Los Angeles but to become one of the show places of the city.

The finished plans, as given herewith, represent the product of the long experience, engineering cunning and trained artistic sense of John D. Isaacs of San Francisco, consulting engineer of the entire Harriman system; D. J. Patterson, architect of the Southern Pacific, and a large corps of assistants, extending in a period of intermittent work over a stretch of more than two years.

MISSION IN OUTLINE.

The new station consists of a main central portion, flanked by two wings. Both the central portion and a part of these wings are two stories in height, the remainder of the wings running gracefully off to one story.

The style of architecture employed is an adaptation of the Spanish Mission, or, more properly, Mission outlines with Spanish rennaissance details and finish, the general effect being long and low lines for the wings with a series of semi-circular arched openings.

The main entrance will be in the center, flanked on each side by massive, square towers of the characteristic Mission type.

The foundation is to be of concrete. The exterior walls above the level of the ground will be of light, buff colored pressed brick, and not of stone, as erroneously reported in local papers, and will be richly ornamented in terra cotta of nearly the same shade. The roof is to be of red terra cotta Spanish tile, while the two domes over the corner towers will be covered with copper, and the towering main dome over the grand hall, with the rich red tile.

INTERIOR DETAILS.

The grand hall, or main waiting-room, located in the central portion of the building covers an area of 100 by 200 feet. It occupies the entire two stories of height and curves away upward in the center to the great circular dome, lending a matchless air of grandeur and magnificence to this central portion of the building and carrying out the effect to the beholder of the grand, skyscraping domes of old Spanish cathedrals.

The floor will be paved with polished tile, bordered with wainscot and supported by massive columns of scagliola or variegated marble. The decorations within and without will be ornately elaborate, and the color scheme of the interior will be harmoniously attuned to the soft tones of light browns, reds and yellows.

To the left of the main entrance into the grand hall are located the ticket offices, information bureau, telephone and telegraph offices, smoking and retiring rooms and other conveniences for the public. To the right are the women's waiting-room, and retiring pariors, the news stand, parcel room, station directors' office and matron's room, while beyond, both to the right

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

One more Board of Public Works was yesterday rejected by the Council; the Mayor's fourth board is still under advisement but a Council-caucus last night turned it to the wall.

For the second time the liquor license of A. Neimyer, blind pig owner and union fence, was yesterday revoked by the Police Board.

Mayor McAleer's appointments for the Police and Civil Service Commissions were yesterday confirmed by the Council.

A touch of sensational interest is given to the suit of Mrs. Margaret Collier Graham against the Pasadena Land and Water Company, by reason of the political fight in Pasadena over the question of purchasing the water companies, the present defendant being one. It is on trial before Judge Monroe.

Mrs. E. A. Wheeler claims to have been mulcted by a social friend, who persuaded her to invest in a mining company without merit. She is telling her troubles in Judge Wilbur's court.

L. M. Poole was arraigned in Justice Chamber's court yesterday, charged with being a fugitive from justice at Spokane, and will have his examination this morning.

AT THE CITY HALL.

BOARD FOUR IS FOUND WANTING.

COUNCIL CAUCUS REJECTS THE MAYOR'S NOMINEES.

Kern Forced to Move to Discard His Friend Betouski—Werdin and Stafford Mentioned as Compromise Candidates—Little Prospect for Breaking Deadlock.

Sealed and tripple-barred is the deadlock between the Mayor and the Council over the selection of a Board of Public Works.

Board No. 3 was rejected yesterday by the Council. Board No. 4 was appointed by the Mayor, taken under advisement by the Council and at the caucus following the regular session, turned to the wall. The formal rejection will take place at this morning's session of the Council.

Robinson, Perkins and Betouski comprised Board No. 3, which was yesterday rejected. Fifteen minutes after the rejection took place the Mayor submitted the following appointments:

Lester Robinson,
E. T. Perkins,
George Mason.

This board the Council took under advisement, merely as a matter of form. Mayor McAleer probably knew full well that the board would not be confirmed when he sent the names to the legislators.

Perkins, the Council has pronounced impossible; the legislators have weighed him in their balance and found him wanting. They have practically agreed among themselves to reject any board of which he is a member.

Robinson's chances for confirmation are little better than those of Perkins. Robinson had the temerity to oppose the "push" nominees for State Legislature two years ago. The "push" has retaliated by placing his name on the impossible list.

George Mason is Police Commissioner. He is a man of affairs and while a Democrat is not a politician.

Expressing a desire to reach an early settlement of the vexed department of public works controversy, the Council yesterday adjourned to meet again this morning.

A member of the Mayor's official family said last night that the Chief Executive has a list of names half a block long and that he will send in one after another until the whole list is exhausted.

All visible efforts at a compromise were abandoned yesterday; the Mayor and the Council have apparently settled down to a campaign that might be continued indefinitely.

Since Monday morning, the Mayor has sent to the Council, two of his commissioners on each board. He has not shown a disposition to go beyond his official family for board of public works timber.

It was with a wry face that Councilman Kern yesterday moved for the rejection of Board No. 3. Martin Betouski, one of the commissioners was the manager of both Kern's political campaigns.

City Engineer Stafford was mentioned last night as a possible member of the new board. His friends have taken the favorable report of the committee of experts who investigated the construction work on the outfall sewer as an excuse for bringing his name before the Mayor and the Council.

The local Irish Democratic Club is advocating the appointment of Park Commissioner McGarry as the Democrat on the board.

Ernest Werdin, former Street Superintendent was among the favored ones admitted to the Mayor's private office yesterday morning. Soon the rumor was abroad that Werdin is to receive a complimentary appointment from the Mayor on one of the boards. For it is as complimentary appointments that the Mayor's nominations are now regarded.

"BLIND PIG" STOCK.

NEIMYER LOSES AGAIN.

The wholesale liquor license of A. Neimyer, "blind pig" owner and labor union fence, was yesterday morning revoked for the second time by the Police Board.

Commissioner Johnson made the motion on which Neimyer's license was revoked. This time there is no mistaking the reasons set forth—"for violating the State law and the city ordinances by selling liquor to minors and without a license, in accordance with evidence submitted to this board prior to October 17, 1903."

Mr. Johnson took part in the investigation that preceded the cancellation of Neimyer's license, as did Commissioner Mason. Both satisfied themselves beyond the peradventure of a doubt that Neimyer was paying no attention to the State law or city ordinances, but was selling liquor to all who came to buy, regardless of quantity or the age of the purchaser.

Neimyer's attorney has been making a plea in court that it was not for violation of the liquor ordinances but for personal pique that the commission revoked his client's license. By so doing the attorney has brought upon Neimyer the exposure that he richly deserves.

At the time Neimyer's license was under discussion before the Police Board, the man's neighbors asked the commission not to make the case any more prominent than was absolutely necessary; not for anything that Neimyer is or has done, but because his mother and father bore a good name in the city. It was to shield the family that the neighbors showed forbearance before the Police Board.

But these same neighbors told the commissioners enough to cause the revocation of a dozen liquor licenses. They are ready to repeat it all in open session, if necessary, to rid the neighborhood of the festering grog shop at the corner of East Ninth street and Central avenue.

Neimyer's downfall dates from the time he commenced to associate with "gas" Howton and the walking delegates of the labor unions. A dozen of these jawsmiths live in the Sixth Ward. Neimyer found them to be liberal buyers. He started by turning Socialist and ended by landing in the Police Court for running a "blind pig."

Neimyer's joint was the armory of the Howton-Fennessy gang in the last city campaign. It was there that the ammunition was kept on tap. The place was also the rendezvous of "Corney" Pendleton's political freebooters. It has grown to be regarded as the plague spot of the Sixth Ward.

SEWER FIRST-CLASS.

UNION LIES NAILED.

Finished is the investigation of the construction work on the outfall sewer by the special committee of experts. This afternoon the board will make formal report to the Mayor.

"Extremely farcical" is the way the experts characterize the attempt of the walking delegate to pick flaws in the work, because the contractors booted half a score of union drones off the job.

A week ago some of the agitators made a bluff at substantiating their charges against the contractors. They wanted a hole punched through the walls of the sewer that they might show a marked brick which one of the agitators under the disguise of a bricklayer laid out of place. He was fired the first day he was on the job, but he wanted to show one brick that escaped the eye of the foreman.

The report of the experts will contain a puff for the City Engineer for the excellent supervision of the work. Time is not a factor in the investigation and the engineer will be complimented by reason of the fact that the workmanship on the sewer is first-class.

All the work on the sewer has been performed by independent workmen. At the outset the contractors sent the "business agents" of the unions about their business and announced that the sewer would be built by independent labor.

The report of the committee of experts is a high tribute to these wage-earners.

IMPERIAL GROGGY.

LAST ROUND CALLED.

One more continuance was yesterday granted by the Police Board to the management of the Imperial Cafe. Mrs. Nickell, wife of one of the owners, went before the board at executive session and pleaded for one week's time, that her husband may have a chance to sell out his interest in the place. She said that if the licenses were revoked now it would leave her and her children practically destitute.

Chief Auble was ordered by the commission to remove the objectionable boxes from the second floor of the Imperial. He will also station two special policemen there; the officers will be paid by the management, but will be under the direction of the Chief.

Several weeks ago the Police Commission warned the present management of the Imperial that the place was not being conducted in a satisfactory manner. Promises of reform were fairly made and quickly broken. The commission has now warned the owners that they must sell their business to some person or persons who are capable of conducting the place properly or the commission will revoke the licenses.

Chief Auble is making a round-up of the restaurants that maintain objectionable "wine rooms," and it is possible that other licenses will be revoked in the near future.

These Were Confirmed.

Dr. Ralph Hagan's appointment to a place on the Police Board was yesterday confirmed by the Council. M. K. Young was also permitted to serve as Civil Service Commissioner. These two appointments were Monday taken under advisement by the Council. Yesterday the legislators decided to permit the Mayor to make his own choice.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

PASADENA MIX IN THE COURTS.

BOTH SIDES LINE UP IN SUIT OVER WATER PLANTS.

Mayor Waterhouse Testifies and City Attorney FitzGerald Looks on in Case Started by Margaret Collier Graham Against Land and Water Company, to Stop Sale.

The fight over the prospective water supply of the city of Pasadena has shifted from the opposing political factions in the Crown of the Valley to the courtroom of Judge Monroe. Yesterday there was a gathering of the magnates from the cities of Pasadena and its southern neighbor.

The suit for trial was the much-debated one of Mrs. Margaret Collier Graham against the Pasadena Land and Water Company, to perpetually enjoin the latter corporation from selling out its water system to the city of Pasadena. There are various phases to the question involved, and while the present suit is brought by Mrs. Graham as a stockholder in the defendant corporation, one suit is now in the Supreme Court in which the issues are similar, but which was brought by the city of South Pasadena against the Pasadena Land and Water Company. Still another suit was begun quite recently by individual property owners and water users in the city of South Pasadena against the much-sued water company.

In all these suits the fundamental point contended for by the plaintiffs is that the Pasadena Land and Water Company has no authority or power to sell out to the city of Pasadena, and that even if such sale was consummated the city of Pasadena is without legal power to supply water users outside of the city limits.

Lynn Helm, J. E. Carson, the City Attorney of South Pasadena, but who is not appearing in his official capacity, and William Collier of Riverside, are appearing for Mrs. Graham; Anderson & Anderson, and Porter, Sutton & Cruickshank are representing the defendant water company.

MAYOR AS WITNESS.

A number of notables are being called as witnesses in the case, foremost being Mayor Waterhouse of Pasadena, whom his opponents say is lukewarm in efforts to close the purchase of the water properties voted upon some time ago.

City Attorney FitzGerald of Pasadena was in court taking note of the case. O. R. Dougherty, for eighteen years president of the defendant company; A. K. McQuilling, the present president; O. W. Orcutt, one of the South Pasadena trustees, and E. H. Lockwood, also of South Pasadena, testified.

Mrs. Graham relies on the origin and mode followed by the Pasadena Land and Water Company in obtaining its plant and water-bearing lands for the rightness of her contention. In 1872 the old Indiana Colony incorporated as the San Gabriel Orange Grove Association, with a capital of $25,000, divided into 100 shares, to purchase 1500 acres in the San Pasqual Rancho for the purpose of developing water and distributing it. In June, 1874, the capital was increased to $50,000 and in June of the same year the land was divided into 200 parcels or shares, of 7½ each, and distributed to the stockholders.

In March, 1882, Mrs. Graham became possessed of three shares, equalling 24.52 acres, located at the southwest corner of Monterey road and Meridian avenue, South Pasadena. The term for which the Orange Grove Association had incorporated was about to expire, and on March 23, 1882, the Pasadena Land and Water Company organized as a quasi-public corporation to develop water, buy water rights, etc. The capital stock was $50,000, divided into 200 shares, and the whole sum was subscribed by the stockholders in the San Gabriel Orange Grove Association. In the same proportion and to the same number of shares as they were respectively stockholders in the older corporation. The latter organization then sold to the defendant all its interest in water, lands, pipes and pipe lines, tunnels, etc., in consideration of shares equivalent to their holdings in the San Gabriel Orange Grove Association.

BY-LAW PROVISIONS.

In April, 1883, the organization was complete and in adopting bylaws the following appeared in Section III, Article 8: "To make all needful rules and regulations for the division and and domestic purposes among the stockholders of the company, for the preservation and protection of the reservoirs, pipes, mains, and the manner in which said pipes and mains from which water is taken may be tapped or connected with by persons entitled to take water therefrom."

Rules were also adopted for the distribution of water among the stockholders pro rata in proportion to the number of shares of stock held.

In 1885 the capital stock of the company was again increased, this time to $75,000, divided into 3000 shares. Mrs. Graham now held 33-1-3 shares, and also 13 1-30 shares.

In February, 1888, the city of South Pasadena incorporated, and the district that had been covered by the San Gabriel Orange Grove Association lay within the boundaries of the new municipality and that portion of the city of Pasadena lying west of Fair Oaks avenue and south of Lincoln avenue. The bylaws of the defendant company were changed to meet the changed situation, so that the city streets might be used for supplying families desiring water connection for domestic use. It is alleged that in South Pasadena 314 families are now being supplied, and in the Pasadena district 1506 families are also receiving water.

AGAINST PLAN TO SELL.

In all of this extension of the original purposes it is claimed that a large income has resulted, with profit to the stockholders. But now has arisen the condition wherein the defendant contemplates selling without authority of law all its franchises, rights and property and to cease the performance of those duties as a quasi-public corporation for the due performance of which the right to use the public streets was granted, and against the rights of the stockholders.

It is alleged that at a meeting held for the purpose of passing upon the matter, out of a total of 2966 2-3 shares 2007 voted for the resolution to sell out for the sum of $345,000. At that time the plaintiff voiced her protest, as well as that of other objectors to the proposition.

The testimony being adduced is largely of a technical character. Mayor Waterhouse was called to the stand yesterday afternoon merely for the purpose of showing that the citizens of Pasadena had voted to buy the water systems of the Pasadena Land and Water Company, the Pasadena and Lake Vineyard Land and Water Company, the North Pasadena Water Company, and the water-bearing lands at the Narrows.

The further hearing in the case will be continued today.

DIDN'T COME TRUE.

WOMAN'S MINING DEAL.

Mrs. E. A. Wheeler, a woman of mature age, desired to add to her store of worldly pelf. She swallowed the honeyed words of a friend who gave her carriage rides and talked about rich relations. She is telling about it in Judge Wilbur's court.

While living on South Olive street Mrs. Wheeler became acquainted with Mrs. Lulu K. Willey, her husband and Dr. M. Fernandes, all of whom lived in the same house. About December, 1900 the Willeys and Dr. Fernandes organized the Friends Mining and Milling Company, of which Fernandes was president and Mrs. Willey treasurer. Mrs. Willey often told Mrs. Wheeler of the valuable quartz claims owned by the company.

Mrs. Wheeler told that the claims were prize-winners. That a four-stamp mill was almost ready to start; claims were developed properties; a rich vein yielding ore averaging $2000 to $20,000 a ton just waiting to make some one rich.

Upon various representations, Mrs Wheeler bought 1000 shares of the capital stock of the company; then 9000 more, for which she paid $1500. Then she says she found it worth little if anything; says Mrs. Willey's stories were fanciful.

Mrs. Wheeler claims the officers of the mining company have collected about $6500 from stockholders, but that with the exception of about $1000 it has been applied to other than corporation purposes. Further hearing in the case will be resumed this morning.

RAILROAD WINS.

RIGHT OF WAY HOLDS.

Judge Wilbur handed down an opinion yesterday in the suit of Joseph Burkhard against the Los Angeles Interurban Railway Company, wherein the company is given judgment in the attempt to oust it from operating over the MacDonald ranch.

The action was begun to enjoin the defendant company from operating across the ranch, which is owned by the plaintiff, the track being part of what is known as the San Pedro line. When MacDonald, the original owner of the ranch, died in 1899 he left a widow and daughter, who were the sole heirs. While the estate was being administered they entered into an agreement with the predecessors of the defendant company, under which a line of road was to be built across the ranch lands. An electric road was built and has been operated ever since.

Subsequent to the agreement between Mrs. MacDonald and the defendant's predecessors in interest, application was made to the court for permission to sell the ranch, for the purpose of paying off incumbrances and debts. The present plaintiff was the purchaser, and he claims that his purchase included also the right of way. Judge Wilbur holds to the contrary.

BANK WANTS MONEY.

POSTOFFICE SITE SUIT.

The Los Angeles National Bank has begun suit against Marie H. Vance, as executrix of the will and estate of the late Silas A. Vance, to recover $2911.60, being his share of the fund raised to purchase the Downey Block and present the site to the United States government for a Federal building.

At the time the scheme was mooted, Vance is alleged to have put his name down and entered into a written agreement to pay $1580 toward the fund of $205,000 necessary to purchase the Downey site. In December, 1904, the site was accepted by the government, but when asked to pay his contribution into the fund that the deal might be closed, Vance is said to have refused. In October of last year Vance died, and the claim, with accrued interest, put in against his estate was disallowed. Now suit is brought to recover the amount with interest.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

SENT TO PATTON. John Hunter, a glass-cutter, who recently developed symptoms of insanity, was ordered committed to Patton yesterday by Judge Gibbs. Hunter became so violent that he failed even to recognize his wife and children. S. T. Williams also was committed. He was so violent when arrested that it took four men to hold him.

PROPERTY INTERESTS. The Kendall-Curtis Company has incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000, of which $300 has been subscribed. The directors are B. O. Kendall, G. H. Curtis and H. I. Chatfield, all of Los Angeles.

DEVELOPMENT WORK. The Pacific Empire Development Company has incorporated with a capital stock of $75,000, of which $300 has been subscribed. The directors are C. P. Campbell, A. F. Blanchard, and E. H. Campbell, all of Los Angeles.

RICHARDS DIVORCE. Winnie V. Richards was granted a divorce from Joseph Richards by Judge James yesterday, on the ground of desertion. The parties were married twelve years ago. For the last ten years it was shown that the husband had failed to provide the necessaries of life. Since 1895 he had contributed $10 toward his wife's clothing, and during the year previous to the separation $20 for all purposes.

TRAINING SCHOOL. Christ's Mission and Bible Training School has incorporated without any capital stock. The directors and officers are Rev. H. A. Sullivan, president; G. W. Pike, vice-president; Eleanore R. Sullivan, secretary; Agnes E. Pike and J. A. Bigelow.

IN POLICE COURTS.

Man Accused of Jumping Bail at Spokane is Arrested as Fugitive from Justice.

L. M. Poole was arraigned before Justice Chambers yesterday as a fugitive from justice, having jumped his bail of $1500 at Spokane, Wash., after he had been convicted of a felony. He left Spokane about three months ago. Detective Boyd arrested him here.

The $1500 would no doubt have satisfied the ends of justice at Spokane had it not been for the fact that $400 of the cash had been secured from two saloon men, who tok Poole's notes for the amount, and they are "sore" at being left in the lurch, though the notes are not yet due. Poole has secured the services of an attorney, and the case has been set for examination Thursday morning.

SLUGGED HIS "PARD."

James McFarland, who said he had been a taxpayer in Los Angeles for twenty years, was arraigned in Police Court yesterday on a charge of battery. He admitted his guilt. The testimony of an old man with whom McFarland had been drinking was that they had left a saloon and walked into the street, when McFarland knocked him down. When the man came to, he was minus 55 cents that had been in his pocket. McFarland will be sentenced this morning.

BEAT THE MACHINE.

A. Quimby, a young man who has been employed in the store of P. Fritz, was convicted of petty larceny on complaint of his employer. He must serve sixty days on the chain-gang, unless he can unearth an equal number of hard dollars. It was shown that Quimby had taken money from a cash register.

NEWELL LOSES.

Appellate Court Denies Writ of Habeas Corpus in Fight on "Tent Ordinance."

N. E. Newell, who has been periodically breaking into court in an effort to punch holes in the "tent ordinance," has received another jolt, this time from the Appellate Court. Some time ago, he applied for a writ of habeas corpus, which the court yesterday denied.

Newell pleaded nothing outside the ordinance, in virtue of which he could claim that it was unreasonable, oppressive or void as applied to his property as distinguished from the property of others. The ordinance was attacked because it affected a building already in use.

The court held that the police powers of a city are derived from the Constitution as well as from the charter, and under that, limits for fire protection can be established. Any damage done an individual is supposed to be recompensed by the gain of the community in general, and the provision of the Constitution saying that no property may be taken without due process of law does not apply. The legislative body is the sole judge of the necessity for regulation, and if the ordinance appears fair, it must be presumed to be so.

BALLERINO BALKED.

Bartolo Ballerino, the king of "Little Paree," is not satisfied with getting his troubles into the county courts, but wants the Appellate Court to help him out. A man named Crawford sued him and got two judgments, one on December 29, for $1 and costs, and one on January 8 for $200 and costs. Ballerino thought there was a previous judgment on December 27 in his favor, and applied for a writ of certiorari in order to review the case. The application was denied.

SHOOT AT PALM BEACH.

LIVE BIRDS BROUGHT DOWN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PALM BEACH (Fla.) Jan. 30.—There were interesting events, this afternoon, on the grounds of the Florida Gun Club. The first event of the afternoon was a set of four matches. Two were ten-live-bird events, and two were five-live-bird events. The participants were Dr. Daniel Karsner and H. de Dolan of Philadelphia and Robert Graves of New York. The scores made in the four events were as follows: In the ten-bird miss-and-out, Karsner, out of 10; Graves, 7 out of 9, and Dolan, 7 out of 9. In the other 10-bird event, the scores made were: Karsner, straight kills; Graves, 8 out of 10; Dolan, 7 out of 10.

In the five-bird miss-and-out, Karsner, 2 out of 4; Graves, 3 out of 4, and Dolan 5 straight kills. In the other 5-bird event, the scores made were: Dolan, 4 out of 5; Karsner, 4 out of 5, and Graves, 3 out of 5.

MILLER'S AIRSHIP.

MAJOR PLANS LONG FLIGHT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FRANKLIN (Pa.) Jan. 30.—Maj. C. S. Miller of Pittsimmons scandal fame, who claims to have been the first person to take up ballooning for sport's sake, told today of a trip from New York which he intends to make. Franklin when he receives an airship he has purchased. Said he:

"Lee Stevens, the designer, has contracted to deliver the machine in New York within forty days. He and I will immediately start for Franklin in it. It is guaranteed to make fourteen miles against the wind, and we should be able to make the trip in about forty hours.

"The project has worried some of my friends, but I am not in the least uneasy about flying. The danger is reduced to a minimum in the Stevens airship. The gas bag or envelope is intended to counteract the weight of the equipment, and should it become inflated, it will form into a parachute and permit the passengers to descend immediately."

LEVY WORKING WITH LUCKY.

Fight Promoter Would Erect Arena at Arcadia.

Open-Air Project Inviting the Biggest Matches.

Guns at Palm Beach, Fla. Miller's Airship.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Morris Levy, the fight promoter, is now in Los Angeles, and if his plans materialize, he may launch in California a fight club that will rival the local octopus. It is stated here to be part of Levy's plan to erect an arena whose dimensions will be great enough to accommodate "fans" so as to make it pay him to pull off the biggest matches. He is trying to locate at Arcadia, "Lucky" Baldwin's home. The place is within easy reach of Los Angeles.

If the plans carry, an open-air arena will be built in which finish fights will be pulled off. Levy is ambitious to make Arcadia a rival of San Francisco in the matter of fights, and if he can make the proper arrangements, many of the big fights of the future may be pulled off near the Baldwin ranch.

In securing Arcadia, they would get a place where reformers are not likely to "cut in." Arcadia has a city government, but Baldwin is "boss," and what he says "goes." If racing is stopped in Los Angeles next year, it is believed here that Arcadia would be the place selected by racing men as a successor to Ascot.

Mr. Levy, the San Francisco fight promoter, arrived here Monday evening on a late train and is a guest at the Lexington on South Main street. In discussing the Arcadia proposition last night he admitted that it was one of the objects of his visit to Los Angeles at this time, the other being his desire to match Tommy Ryan with Twin Sullivan or Jack O'Brien for a San Francisco date.

In regard to Arcadia he said that it might possibly start a fight club over there where there would be no danger of police interference or hostile legislation. The scheme was very much in its infancy at this time, however, but that he would meet certain local parties at 11 o'clock this morning to discuss the subject. The proposition had not come from Lucky Baldwin and not direct to him from the local men that might go into it, a third party having conducted the negotiations so far. Levy did not even know the names of the local men who had proposed the Arcadia club, but he would learn them today at the meeting. He declared he would not necessarily have to put any of his own money into the proposed new club, but that he probably would if he could be sure a club was started it would be run in a first-class manner and the best fights obtainable would be put on.

RECORD WOULD HAVE CHANGED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—Had Graziallo been pressed at Emeryville, today, he would have equalled the California record in the Juvenal Handicap, the son of Rapallo negotiated the thirty course within a quarter of a second of the record time, and displayed some of his eastern form of last year. He ran a great race, came from behind and won going away. His price was 6 to 1. There was very little delay at the post. Fireball shot to the front, but at the saddling paddock began to sulk, and finished third. Princess Titania ran second. Martinmas, the second choice, found the pace too warm; time 109¼. The weather was fine and track fast. Results:

Five and a half furlongs: Storma, 105 (Rettig,) 30 to 1, won; Ethel Barrymore, 105 (J. Kelly,) 5 to 2, second; Meringue, 105 (Clark,) 7 to 5, third; time 1:07 ¾. Alone, Lou Otstot, Galice, Appleblossom, Corsicana, Bereniel, Nellie Daroux, Lillian and Lizzie Mine also ran.

Four furlongs: Pimkin, 107 (L. Williams,) 8 to 5, won; Elota, 102 (Brussell,) 20 to 1, second; Kogo, 102 (Barrett,) 30 to 1, third; time 0:48⅘. Silver Line, Yankee Jim, Menden and Hermit's Cross also ran.

Mile and 50 yards: Esherin, 107 (Graham,) 11 to 5, won; Major Tenny, 109 (Knapp,) 10 to 1, second; Jackfull, 104 (T. Sullivan,) 21 to 5, third; time 1:45. Watercure, Rey Dare, Adirondac Arrah Gowan and Montana Peeress also ran.

Futurity course, the Juvenal handicap: Graziallo, 106 (Knapp,) 8 to 1, won; Princess Titania, 108 (Fountain,) 7 to 2, second; Fireball, 113 (F. Walsh,) 12 to 5, third; time 1:09¼. Martinmas, and Salable also ran.

Mile and a sixteenth: Fisher Boy, 104 (Fountain,) 7 to 1, won; Head Dance, 107 (Clark,) 11 to 5, second; Massa, 102 (Hoodchild,) 13 to 10, third; time 1:46½. Briarthorpe, Red Light and Saintolar also ran.

Six furlongs: Arestellator, 106 (L. Williams,) even, won; La Chata, 104 (E. Walsh,) 8 to 1, second; Fulletta, 110 (Loague,) 8 to 1, third; time 1:14¾. Santa Ray, Mazel, Libertinus and Ebel Thatcher also ran.

JUDGES PICK THE WINNERS.

SAN DIEGO TOURISTS RANKED BY THEIR POINTS.

Noteworthy Fact is That the Cars Which Made Best Records Were in Nearly Every Case Beaten by Others Which Carried No Advertising Matter—How They Finished.

Official awards on the recent San Diego endurance run issued by the judges, give Ralph Hamlin's Franklin the championship in the runabout class and the E. M. Greenway cup, with a total of only twenty-five lost points.

The Model K Tourist driven by C. D Bent would have been a winner but for violating Rule 14 relative to displaying signs of an advertising nature. It lost only four points on the run, but the rules were plain, and the judges could not disregard them.

Other scores in the runabout division were Harrison's Maxwell, 965 points; Moreland's Tourist, 960 points; J. A. Clairmonte's Napier, 943 points. The Tourists did remarkably well.

In light touring cars, W. M. Varney carried away the palm with his Ford, winning the F. A. Greenwood Cup with 999 points. C. B. Smith in a Maxwell tied, but carried an advertising sign and was disqualified. Shettler's Reo, Sahland's Tourist, Bert Doremus's Olds, all tied at 998; F. A. Bennett's Ford lost three points; George Bradbeer's Premier lost thirteen. L. E. Parker's Haynes did not finish. Smith's Maxwell really made the best run of the lot.

C. A. Hawkins's White won the J. D. Spreckels Cup with a clean score, the honor being shared by G. F. Belden's Packard, and W. S. Hook's Apperson until gasoline consumption was counted, when the White was declared winner. For general excellence of performance, the Packard owner and chauffeur were rewarded with gold medals. W. F. Donnelly drove the car. Silver and bronze medals were also given to W. S. Hook for the good work of his Apperson.

Jargstorff's White, and Renton's Rambler, tied at 999 points. Howes' Frayer-Miller totalled 995. Harry Olive's Stoddard-Dayton lost eight points; Linford Lull's Tourist thirty-one. McDonald's Winton Quad, 970; McClure's White 963; Bayly's White 993; Harry Turner's Peerless 900, were othed scores.

The special minimum gasoline bronze and silver cup went to Bennett's Ford, 8 1-8 gallons or 1 5-8 gallons to the passenger.

Renton's Rambler carried off the special certificate for least lubricating only five-eighths of a pint. Renton is great on saving oil. C. B. Smith's Maxwell used only 1-5 pint of oil according to the report, but his advertising sign disqualified him.

Ralph Hamlin's Franklin won the special certificate for the least amount of gasoline burned on the trip at seven gallons.

Judges H. L. Titus, E. R. Feuerborn and W. Clayton wrestled with all kinds of incomplete reports in gathering their data; some of the observers did not observe anything. But the gentlemen are unbiased, and feel satisfied their report is a fair one to all concerned.

WRESTLING AT ST. MARK'S.

NIFLOT THROWS SCHAEFER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The drawings in the bantamweight class brought about a match at St. Mark's Club, tonight, between two brothers, Robert and Daniel Curry. Robert formerly held the title of amateur bantamweight champion. Robert scored a fall at the end of 3 mins. 10 2-5 secs. of wrestling.

Niflot, the world's amateur lightweight champion wrestler, cloverly proved his superiority in a bout with George Schaefer of the Grace Club, with a half-Nelson and double-bar hold. Niflot scored a fall in 3 mins. 16 3-5 secs.

PURCHASE OF "CATARACT."

RACER FRECKMAN'S DISGUISE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For $1500, a Brighton Beach turfman today bought the Western racer Freckman, who, under the name of "Cataract," was entered in a race at Jamaica, October 20, last, and was prevented by the officials and Pinkerton men from starting because he was a "ringer."

Subsequently, the horse was ruled off, together with M. L. Mitchell, in whose name he had been entered. J. J. Wilkins, a negro, who claimed to own him, and E. A. Chilson, who also claimed to own the horse.

JOE THOMAS BEATS A TOUGH SCRAPPER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Joe Thomas demonstrated tonight at Colma, that he is not only a good-looking young man, but he also is a "comer" in the welterweights. He met a tough customer in the person of George Herberts, and beat him decisively in the end. The end was not brought about by a knockout but one was imminent at times. Herberts was punished severely about the face, and his chief backer, "Spider" Kelley, did the merciful thing and acknowledged the defeat at his charge.

Thomas had decidedly the better of the milling. In the second he had Herberts' nose bleeding, and in the seventh he opened a gash under his right eye that considerably impaired the Dutch boy's faculties. When the tenth round came, both rushed in furiously, hoping to end the fight. Joe slipped over a left that brought Herberts to his knees. When Herberts rose, he was knocked down again. Though he came back, he was helpless.

In the ten-round preliminary "Kid" Frantz of Stockton, defeated Jim Haywards of New York in the fifth round with a clean knockout. The attendance was large.

U. S. C. ATHLETICS ARE WAKING UP.

GIRLS INTEND TO ORGANIZE A RECREATION CLUB.

Basketball, Tennis, Volley Ball and Hockey are Among the Sports to be Followed by the Young Ladies. Men are Devoting Considerable Time to Wrestling.

The young women of the University of Southern California have been showing such an unusual interest in all branches of athletics during the past semester that plans are being considered to organize a recreation club. The new venture is the outgrowth of the enthusiasm encouraged by the compulsory gymnasium system. The club will be under the direction of Miss Elsie Vanderpool, director of physical education for women, and will consist of three divisions, to be devoted to basketball ennis and hockey, each section to have its own manager and treasurer.

The athletic grounds—basketball, tennis and volley-ball courts—are adjacent to the gymnasium, and work in outdoor sports is expected of all young women taking physical training. Steps are being taken to secure a hockey field, and it is hoped that the English game will soon be a regular outdoor pastime. The gymnasium instruction will be broadened to include any ladies and children who cannot enter the regular course. Classes will meet twice a week in the evening.

Great interest is being taken by the men of the college in tumbling and wrestling, and a tournament will be held in the near future to decide upon a representative to compete with men from the other colleges.

MORLEY WILL MANAGE TEAM.

LOCAL MANAGER IS TO REMAIN IN LOS ANGELES.

Declares He Has Too Many Interests Here to Leave Them and Go With Any Northern Club—Los Angeles Looloos Will Present the Same Line-up as Before.

Manager Jim Morley will manage the Los Angeles ball team this year.

This was the announcement he made last night, and the fans can put it down as the real article. It can also be stated that the local club for this reason will be practically the same as it was last season and which was good enough to win the pennant.

The majority of those in a position to guess right have never put much stock into the story that Morley intended to go to San Francisco, simply because he had too many business interests in this city. He has two billiard rooms, a lot of real estate and a skating rink under construction and is interested in several other enterprises of more or less value. These interests are what has made him refuse the tempting offer made to go to the San Francisco club.

Morley denies that there was any truth in the pipe-dream stories published in the various San Francisco papers, declaring that the question of whether he would go or wouldn't depended entirely upon his decision as to whether or not he would leave his interests here. This he has decided not to do, and sent a notice to this effect to San Francisco last night.

Now that the question of a manager is settled, it only need be said that the team this year will have the same men in it that it had last season. The catchers will be Ross and Eager. The pitchers will be Nagle, Baum, Hall, Gray and Tozer. Frank Dillon will be on first and Brashear and Toman at short and Ellis, Bernard and Cravath are outfielders. In all probability Flood will be back at second base and Jud Smith at third. Smith is in business here and will play ball on the local team if he plays at all, but Flood at second is a more or less doubtful quantity. The Portland fans are very sore at losing both Atz and Schlafly, so Morley says, and in order to keep peace in the family, Morley will probably trade back Atz for Flood, Schlafly being out of the field, as he has been drafted. Of course Spies is supposed to be a fixture here and may play this season.

FORM SHOCKERS WIN THE MONEY.

"DOPE" REVERSALS GRIEVE MANY ASCOT BETTORS.

Hoot Mon, Dutiful and Masedo, All of Which Were Badly Beaten Off in Their Previous Starts Wake up and Gallop in First—Three Favorites Earn Brackets.

Long shots knocked the form players silly at Ascot yesterday, and while three favorites won, the outsiders that won when they had no license to, put the sports to the bad. Hoot Mon, who was a legitimate 25-to-1 shot, won the first race; Dutiful, who was beaten about half a block the previous day, scored easily at 10 to 1, and Masedo, who was far back in the ruck in her race before, was let loose and won the last race all the way at 15 to 1. Naturally, not very many people cashed bets on these startling form reversals. The feature of the day was the victory of Big Ben, the favorite in the Owners' Handicap at six furlongs, which he won easily in 1:11. A fair-sized crowd was present.

Results:

Six furlongs: Hoot Mon, 103 (McDaniel,) 25 to 1, won; Sweet Kitty, 115 (Aubuchen,) 17 to 10, second; Esther B., 105 (Kent,) 4 to 1, third; time 0:45⅘. Prosperity, Tom Gilroy, Duke of Orleans, Miss Fidgety, Royal Ascot, Emily M., and Aladay also ran.

Mile and a furlong: Cotillon, 102 (McDaniel,) 9 to 5, won; Cheripo, 107 (Swain,) 4 to 1, second; Exapo, 109 (Harris,) 6 to 1, third; time 1:56⅘. Huapala, Tom Riley, Mauser, Paramount, Capable and Yellow Kid also ran.

One mile: Prince Silverwings, 103 (Notter,) 7 to 10, won; Marshal Ney, 100 (Jackson,) 7 to 1, second; Morita, 95 (Swain,) 50 to 1, third; time 1:40½. La Londe and Chancellor Walworth also ran. The Gaddy scratched.

Six furlongs: Big Ben, 100 (Aubuchon,) 3 to 2, won; Lacene, 83 (Swain,) 7 to 1, second; Cutter, 86 (McDaniel,) 4 to 1, third; time 1:13. Workman and Don Domo also ran.

Mile and a sixteenth: Dutiful, 107 (Swain,) 10 to 1, won; Rubicon 84 (Preston,) 6 to 1, second; Chickadee, 104 (Aubuchon,) 8 to 1, third; time 1:49. Elisabeth F., Hoodwink, Lillie B., Hot, Dollie Welthoff, Del Coronado and Precious also ran. Viona, Fille d'Or, La Torteza and Courant were scratched.

Futurity course: Masedo, 110 (Doyle,) 15 to 1, won; Money Muss, 115 (Aubuchon,) 11 to 5, second; Confessor, 112 (Davis,) 9 to 10, third; time 1:10. Revolt, Durbar, Regal, Inspector Halpin, Bert Arthur and Beth C. also ran. Pell Reed, E. Donoso, Vandela and Hilona scratched.

GANS WANTS THE FIGHT.

NOLAN WANTS THE DOUGH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There was nearly a clash, today, when the two leading lightweights of the country, "Battling Nelson" and Joe Gans met. Manager Billy Nolan was with Nelson. Gans told Nolan that he wanted to know if he would let Nelson fight him. Nolan replied: "When you show me that you can make 133 pounds at the ringside by fighting two or three battles, I will consider letting Nelson fight you."

"I'll put my money up," replied Gans, "to make 133 pounds at 6 o'clock, and that should satisfy you. How much of a guaranty do you want? Tom O'Rourke will give us $15,000."

"Nelson would not fight for that," replied Nolan.

MARVIN HART; HIS VERSION.

KENTUCKY CHAMPION HAS SOME ARGUMENTS TO OFFER.

Not Challenging Jeffries at All, but Willing to Fight Him When He Voluntarily Renounces His Retirement—Claims Clear Title to Heavyweight Belt.

Jack Curley, business manager of the Ryan-Hart combination of fistic stars, writes as follows regarding the eastern story assailing Marvin Hart's claim to the heavyweight championship title and Jim Jeffries's statement that he never gave the championship to any one and that the public would not stand to let him turn the title over. Marvin Hart's side of the argument:

"As to Jim Jeffries's claim that he never gave the title away, every word is quite true, and further, I will state that Jeffries had no right to give it, and there was nothing to give.

"Jim Jeffries announced his retirement. Was introduced in the ring at Reno, Nev., as the retired heavyweight champion, again in the ring of the Nelson-Britt fight as retired heavyweight champion, and only the other night at the Kaufmann-Barry battle the same introduction took place. That retired Jim Jeffries.

"Immediately after Jeffries retired, the title was vacant and it remained for any two heavyweights to fight for it, a club standing to offer the purse, advertise the contest for the title, and the winner must be the new champion."

That's exactly how Marvin Hart secured the title. He defeated Jack Root for the title at Reno, Nev., July 4, won it in twelve rounds with a knockout, and James J. Jeffries, the retired champion, refereed.

Now, championship titles do not buy anything for anybody. In order for the championship to prove an asset some disputants must come along. Tommy Burns has been secured by Manager McCarey of the Pacific Athletic Club to give Hart his first local try-out. Any reputable opponent who wishes to dispute Hart's claim to the heavyweight championship and make his wishes known, and no doubt some clubs will be willing to hang up a purse. Hart's signature to the articles of agreement, or rather his manager, Tommy Ryan's, name, can be secured in a few minutes.

Jim Jeffries is the greatest heavyweight champion we have ever had. He might and might not be as good a fighter as formerly. He is retired from the ring and lives the quiet life of a rancher, and Hart nor any other fighter has the right to challenge him. But should Jim Jeffries decide to reënter the game and announce that he again claims the title and his willingness to defend it, Marvin Hart's name will immediately loom up asking for the match and the chance to win it from the greatest of fistic exponents.

ANOTHER BIG DAY

Of Bargains and Buyers

Today Promises To Be The Best of All.

Women's Shoes 50c a Pair

MAMMOTH SHOE HOUSE

519 S. Broadway.

The selling yesterday was lively at the Mammoth store, occasioned by the sale of the H. Cohn & Co. shoe stock. There is still quite a good selection of women's shoes at 50c. It will pay you to go and try for your size, but you will not be disappointed if the 50c shoes are all gone. The 98c line has equally good bargains, for there are several hundred pairs of shoes and oxfords in this line that ordinarily sell at $2.50 to $5.50. You'll get your size in this lot sure. Another big snap of the sale is the $1.45 line of shoes and oxfords. One complete line of the famous "Bernalda" advertised shoe is on sale at $1.45. Then, too, at a still higher price are the lots of shoes at $1.95 and $2.45. Positively the best values in women's shoes ever made in the city of Los Angeles.

Men's shoes are just as deeply cut in price. $1 buys solid leather $2 and ... shoes in all sizes. Every pair ...ohn & Co.'s men's $2 shoes are priced at $1.23 and their $2.50 shoes at $1.45. The popular "Regent" line, which are stamped $3.50 on the sole of the shoe; genuine Goodyear welts; finest of leathers; you will find today at the low price of $1.95. Not a store in the whole city making the low prices on same quality goods as at the big, busy Mammoth. Boys' and girls' shoes at about half the ordinary price. It will pay you to be on hand early, for stocks are fresher and more easily handled during the morning hours. Crowds not so great, but the bargains are there any hour of the day

The East reports an open winter, and the doctors seem to be even better pleased with it than with the other kind.

The President has not changed his mind about running again, but the people may find it necessary to change theirs.

There is at least one good argument in favor of municipal ownership. The politicians would kill one another off fighting for the jobs.

Senator La Follette has been made chairman of the Committee on the Potomac River Front. That should help keep him quiet.

Although there has been little or no ice back East this winter, the custom of going on a skate seems to be as popular there as ever.

In view of the services they have rendered the throne, we think the Czar ought to give the Cossacks a rise in salary. At present they are receiving 6 cents a day.

A poor, sick woman residing in Vermont has set up a claim to the Russian throne. Her lot must indeed be a sad one, when she would make such a change as that.

The New York World says that John Wanamaker began life at $1.25 a week. There are few infants coming into the world in these times that have the same good fortune.

Dealers report that high prices are now being paid for bronzes. The public hadn't noticed it owing to its interest in the high prices being paid for meats, eggs and groceries.

The fact that a man once worked as a printer's devil doesn't mean that he really ever was a devil, and yet we can't just say that we ever knew one of them to become a saint.

The fact that Rockefeller has really not been seen of the public since September last, only goes to prove that even the richest man in the world may disappear and not be missed.

The oldest Baptist woman in the world has been discovered in the Connecticut town of Windham. She must be of the hard shell kind to have lasted so long and in such a climate.

As a pointer to Atty.-Gen. Hadley of Missouri, it may be stated that the board of directors of the Standard Oil Company are expressing no uneasiness as to the whereabouts of Mr. Rockefeller.

A bill has been introduced in the Massachusetts Legislature to enact a compulsory curfew law for all the towns of the State. In most Massachusetts towns such a law is entirely unnecessary.

It seems to us that those Congressional districts whose representatives joined in the recent "insurgent" attack on Uncle Joe Cannon, may as well count themselves out of the subsequent proceedings.

In order to prevent a war between France and Venezuela, it may yet be necessary for Uncle Sam to declare that the Monroe doctrine doesn't permit anything more than sparring contests for points.

John Burns, the labor member of Parliament, will make an attempt at the coming session to abolish the House of Lords. The British will not stand for it. As Bobby Burns said, they "dearly love a lord."

"Let us be wells," said young John Rockefeller to his Bible class. "Let us be wells, giving out something all the time." The greed of that Rockefeller tribe is something terrible. They even want to pump the oil out of the human race.

The Washington Post says that former Governor John H. McGraw and United States Senator Sam Piles are regarded as being "typical of the best citizenship of the State of Washington." It looks like good grounds for a libel suit.

It is of course entirely unnecessary that the nations of the earth should send wedding presents to Miss Alice Roosevelt, but it is one way open to them to show their good will toward the United States, and it is in that light we should regard the matter.

The newspapers of the country condemn with one voice the action of Senator Burton of Kansas in drawing his mileage and salary without being able to render any service as a member of Congress. But why is it that nothing is said about the other fellows who do the same thing, right along?

Uncle Joe Bibley is to retire from Congress and to spend the remainder of his days in peace. He has had a varied political career. He was a greenbacker, a free silver man and a Democrat, but having acquired some property, and, therefore, certain responsibilities, he is now a Republican.

Gen. Alfaro who is now at the head of affairs in Ecuador, also held the position of Dictator of that country in 1898. He has done nothing for the past fifty years but fight in the various South American revolutions, and is evidently one of the old school of fire-eating swashbucklers who must be gotten rid of before our sister republics of the South become really peaceful and stable.

VALENCIA SURVIVOR'S CHARGES.

The signed statement of Frank F. Bunkers, published in the San Francisco newspapers, the testimony of passengers at the investigation in Seattle yesterday, and the fully corroborating charges of other survivors more than establish the suggestions made in these columns the morning after the wreck of the Valencia, that the disaster was due to incompetent seamanship, and that if the proper judgment had been used even after the ship struck on Klanaway Rock, many more and perhaps all of the passengers and crew would have been saved.

Bunkers is a man of intelligence and standing, being the assistant superintendent of the Seattle public schools, and his statements are therefore to be considered seriously. His arraignment of the steamship company and of the men in command of the Valencia is really terrible. He charges the captain with running at reckless speed and boldness on dead reckoning through dangerous waters in thick weather. He testifies that the boats were lowered in the black night into the fearful waves without seamen to man them. He states that there was no discipline among the crew, that the plugs in the bottoms of the boats were not made to fit, that the life preservers were made of rushes instead of cork, and that many other things were wrong that should have been right. Moreover the testimony of other passengers, of less prominence, confirms that of Bunkers at every point. That the sea would have permitted the saving of many lives and that the inaction and cowardice of the ship's officers were atrocious—these facts were clearly established by Witness McAllister and others at Seattle yesterday afternoon.

The Times, on the day following the news of the wreck, suggested the existence of this state of affairs on the Valencia. The earliest dispatches recounting the story of the disaster made it clear that not only one thing, but that many things must have been wrong, or the loss of life could not have been so complete. The "West Coast" is a dangerous coast, as everybody knows, and disasters at sea will happen no matter what precautions are taken to prevent them. But, although shipwrecks occur there are always certain safeguards to be thrown about the lives of seamen and passengers, alike, if owners and crews of vessels will take the trouble to provide the same. That there was a shameful absence of these safeguards the evidence of Bunkers and others all too pitifully testifies.

The Times has asserted that there are altogether too many incompetent seamen in charge of vessels on the Pacific Coast, and the facts are sufficient to amply bear that charge out. Take the wrecks that have happened during the past three or four years, and it will be seen that the licenses of one captain after another have been revoked for incompetency. Capt. Johnson of the Valencia would doubtless also have had his license revoked had he not lost his life. He seems to have been a brave enough man, but by no means a good sailor. His published record shows that he lacked both experience and education.

The lesson that the wreck of the Valencia teaches is; first, that we must have abler men in command of the ships that sail along this Coast, and, secondly, that owners of vessels, whether they be corporations or individuals, must be held to a stricter account as to the condition of the craft that they send to sea. The marine laws on both these points are entirely adequate, but what appears to be lacking is a proper enforcement of those laws.

Here are a few questions to which Mr. Bunkers rightly declares, in the course of his statement, the public have a right to demand answers:

"Why was the captain running with such boldness on dead reckoning, in dangerous waters in thick weather?

"Why were boats loaded with passengers lowered into the water without crews to man each and without officers to command?

"Why was there no discipline among the officers and crew?

"Why were the plugs in the bottom of the boats not made to fit?

"Why was it impossible for the passengers to make the wooden pins of the oarlocks fit into their proper places?

"Why were the life preservers made of rushes (which sink) and not of cork? (I ripped open as many as fifty and found them of such composition.)

"Why did six members of the crew land at Cape Beale in one of the ship's boats without bringing passengers with them?"

David B. Hill asks the New York Bar Association to say whether or not his relations with the Equitable were proper. The limit has been reached when a man asks the public to accept a certificate of character given by a bunch of lawyers

POPULATION OF LOS ANGELES.

A press dispatch from Washington, dated January 27, says: "An expert statistician, who has had practice in the Census Bureau, has formulated an estimate of the probable population of the fifteen chief cities of the Union in 1910, with the gain of each in the current decade."

The item in this bit of news which will interest Los Angeles intensely is that he credits this city with a probable population five years hence of 217,479 persons. How refreshing this is! An expert statistician with practice in the Census Bureau! If this distinguished member of the Circumlocution Bureau had only been an expert reader of almost any daily newspaper of the United States he would know that Los Angeles has today, if not quite, certainly very close to the population he guesses we will have five years hence. The population of the city of Los Angeles, as has been published over and over again almost daily in one shape or other by some newspaper or other, is set down by no intelligent person at less than 201,000 souls today. This "expert statistician" credits San Francisco with a possible population of about 500,000, five years hence. The Bay City claims pretty nearly that population today, and will have much more than that at the end of another five years.

These expert fossils who sit at their desks in the gloom of some big office building in Washington and figure out all sorts of possible and impossible ratios from what has been to what may be at some future date, would create glee at the most solemn Quaker meeting that ever assembled under a roof. One wonders if they ever get out into the light of the open day, ever read a newspaper, or ever know a syllable about the current history of the day in which they are living. The population of Los Angeles in 1910, Mr. Expert Statistician, will be considerably above 300,000 souls, and it is not impossible that it may run to an astonishingly higher figure even than that. There is another guess coming to you.

HOW TO WRECK A BANK.

The Bank of San Luis Obispo has closed its doors, or rather, the bank commissioners of the State of California closed them for the bank. This is an interesting fact.

The Bank of San Luis Obispo is one of the oldest financial institutions in the State, and has been known among bankers as one of the soundest in all California. Its history covers a period of forty years, and for many years it did about all the financial business in that part of the State, materially helping in the various developments of the county in which it was situated and the territory contiguous to that county. During these years the institution was in the hands of men of ripe experience in banking and of absolute integrity. The bank prospered exceedingly.

At the time when the bank had just reached the very height of its prosperity, two outsiders came in and bought out the men who had successfully managed its affairs for years. One was an experienced banker, Isaac Wickersham of Petaluma. He was also a man well known throughout Central California for his absolute integrity of character. With him in the purchase was associated a San Francisco lawyer, James L. Crittenden, who was chosen president of the bank. This was just fifteen years ago, after the bank had run a successful career of almost thirty years. It has taken just half as long to wreck it as it took to build it up.

When Messrs. Wickersham and Crittenden bought the bank, it had a paid up capital of $100,000 and a reserve fund of $600,000, ample capital on which to do the business of the bank, with $700,000 in deposits. The first trouble came when Wickersham, the banker, and Crittenden, the lawyer, fell at loggerheads one with the other and the banker brought suit against the lawyer to have his salary as president of the bank ($400 a month) reduced to a more moderate sum. In the pleadings, gross mismanagement of the finances of the institution were charged.

On the first trial Wickersham won the suit, but the Supreme Court reversed the decision, and upon a second hearing the judgment went to Crittenden. Thus fortified, the lawyer forced Wickersham to retire. In the meantime, one of the old bankers who had retained an interest in the bank was forced out; and naturally enough, with a large following in San Luis Obispo and the county who had confidence in him because of their long experience of his excellent judgment and integrity, this J. P. Andrews opened a rival bank with a national charter, and immediately a great many of the depositors in the bank where so much trouble had been brewed transferred their business to the new institution. The result was that when the bank commissioners the other day ordered the doors of the old bank closed, its deposits of $700,000 had fallen to $60,000, and of this sum only $5000 was subject to check, so the bank was paying interest on $55,000 as term deposits. It left but a very narrow margin on which to pay even running expenses.

It has been charged that the lawyer-president of the bank, as soon as he obtained control, loaned a good deal of the money to himself. To be fair, Crittenden denies this. There was found among the papers of the bank a note of Crittenden's for $22,000, on which no interest was to be paid. He says this note was given at the time of the judgment against him in the trial brought by Wickersham, to cover the amount of the judgment, and that when the final decree went in his own favor he forgot to cancel the note, but negligently let it lie in the bank. It will take a large pinch of salt to make that go down in the minds of many people.

On December 30, 1905, the institution made a report to the bank commissioners showing the following condition: Loans on real estate $105,626.35; loans on other securities, $27,706.21; bank premises, furniture and fixtures, $17,500; real estate, $1500.01; profit and loss, $4346.68; overdrafts, $12.37; cash on hand, $1606.14; total assets, $158,297.76; liabilities—deposits, $59,813.18. The capital stock remained at $100,000.

The bank president is reported as saying that he will raise money and pay off the bank's debts at once. He claims the bank is perfectly solvent, and that his troubles all came from spite on the part of his former partner, Andrews, who was forced out of the Bank of San Luis Obispo and who opened the rival concern. It seems Andrews got into his hands paper against Crittenden's bank for $20,000 and pressed that it be paid; hence the action of the commissioners.

Here is the same old story of the rise and fall of banks. About the only security stockholders and depositors really have is in the experience and consequent mature judgment of bankers who have learned the business from top to bottom, and in the integrity of such men of large experience. No matter how capable a man may be in a general way, there are very few persons who can go at once into the banking business and conduct it successfully. A strictly conservative policy is always necessary in handling the affairs of a bank. The plunger inevitably, soon or later, brings the financial craft into shallow waters and onto the rocks. Against the dishonest banker there is absolutely no safeguard. The banker who loans bank funds to himself may be honest, but the presumptions are all the other way.

THE SPEAKER'S POWER.

A great deal of complaint is made about the "despotic power" of the Speaker of the House of Representatives. From the days of "Czar" Reed down to the present time, complaints of this kind have been frequent and raucous. Perhaps no man in the Union was more thoroughly "cussed and discussed" than Tom Reed, who was first of the line of "Czars" who have exercised arbitrary powers under the authority conferred upon the Speaker by the House rules. Each Speaker since Reed has been subjected to severe criticism, though the objurgations have been less violent than in the earlier days of the Reed autocracy.

"Speaker Cannon's power," observes the Kansas City Journal in a recent editorial, "is so absolute that even though a majority of the House may desire to consider some measure out of its turn it cannot be done without his consent. He names the committees and dictates the time—and generally the character of their reports, and he does not hesitate to change the order of things whenever he pleases." This sounds like a severe arraignment of Speaker Cannon, but it is a misdirected criticism. The Speaker of the House, it must be remembered, has no authority in and of himself to exercise arbitrary powers. All the power he possesses is derived from the House itself, which determines its own rules of procedure, and these rules are as binding upon the Speaker as upon any member of the House. It is manifestly unfair to blame the Speaker for exercising powers which the House deliberately places in his hands. The power is delegated to the Speaker to use, and he is expected to use it.

At any time when a majority of the House desires to change the rules they can be changed. Experience has demonstrated that arbitrary rules are necessary in order to enable the House to make progress in the transaction of public business. Previous to the adoption of the Reed rules it was possible for a few members—and sometimes for one member—to block all proceedings in the House indefinitely. The privileges of debate were so flagrantly abused in the Fiftieth and a part of the Fifty-first Congress, that legislative business was practically deadlocked. There was confusion worse confounded among the warring factions, until the so-called Reed rules, which included a system of peremptory cloture, were adopted. These rules effectively put a stop to the blockading tactics available to the minority, by which the majority could be stopped from transacting business.

Under the Reed rules, the House of Representatives became an autonomous legislative body. Before these rules were adopted the House was like a waterlogged ship, divested of compass, sails or rudder. It floundered helplessly in the rough seas of legislative cross-purposes, without pilot or captain, an object alike for pity and for laughter.

When the Reed rules were adopted by the Fifty-first Congress, the Democratic minority of the House gave utterance to loud lamentations and to louder curses. They sought to make large political capital out of the "gag-law" which the rules imposed—as viewed from their standpoint. But the rules held, and they proved effective in controlling the boisterousness and the filibustering which had before made the Congressional sessions little better than a farce and a travesty. Tom Reed was roundly denounced as a "czar" and a "despot;" but the House did business at the old stand, where before it had dawdled and frittered away the time in disgraceful bickerings and profitless filibustering.

Perhaps no sincerer testimony as to the efficacy of the Reed rules could have been furnished than the fact that when the Democrats came into control of both branches of the Fifty-third Congress, in 1893, these rules were adopted as the rules of the House, without radical amendment. The wail of "despotism" subsided. Charles F. Crisp became Speaker of the House and exercised the same arbitrary authority as his predecessor, Thomas B. Reed. It was the other fellow's ox that was gored.

Perhaps the rules of the House are more arbitrary than is absolutely necessary. If so, it is the fault of the House, not the fault of the Speaker. The rules of the Senate err in the opposite direction from those of the House. One of the most pressing needs in Congress, today, is a rule of procedure in the Senate by which debate may be closed and a vote be ordered at a specified time. The musty tradition of "Senatorial courtesy" precludes the closing of debate so long as one Senator objects. This outworn tradition admits of endless abuse, and Senators are not lacking to take advantage of it. Meritorious measures may be talked to death at the pleasure of their opponents, and the legislative work of Congress may thus be delayed indefinitely at the will of one man. Better the arbitrary methods of the House than the dilatory and moss-grown methods prevalent under the Senate rules.

THE SHEARER SHORN.

UNCONSIDERED TRIFLES.

A Small Sermon.

My friends, I most earnestly say unto ye,
Keep sober.
No matter how painful the process may be,
Keep sober.
There's nothing in getting tanked up every day—
It only makes harder the transgressor's way—
I know all about it and therefore I say,
Keep sober.

Though sinners entice thee, I firmly repeat,
Keep sober.
Beware of the fellows who're willing to treat—
Keep sober.
Hypocrisy now is not one of my crimes—
I follow the tenets laid down in these rhymes
And do, I assure you, at various times
Keep sober.

Jobs for All.

Now the people who have coin, it would seem are yearning
To get rid of all their wealth founding seats of learning.
While such giving makes some folk not beneath their collars,
Pray, what matter it, say I? Let them spend their dollars.

When they've carefully gone o'er all this earthly planet
And on every building lot placed a pile of granite,
Fitted out in first-class shape for dispensing knowledge,
We may all get places then working in a college.

Why They Separated.

"Claude and Clarice have broken off their engagement by mutual agreement."
"What for?"
"Oh, she didn't like him in ear-muffs and he didn't like her in spats."

"You're looking better than you were a few weeks ago," remarked Mr. Nordy.
"I'm feeling better," responded Mr. Butts. "My children demolished the last of their Christmas toys the other day."

"Dear! Dear! Willie, can't you be good for a quarter of an hour?"
"I can for a quarter of a dollar, ma."

Classified.

"What kind of a girl is she?"
"The kind that likes violets."
"Every girl does that."
"Hold on. The kind that likes violets when they're $4 a bunch and doesn't care for 'em in season."

RECOLLECTIONS OF SEA LIFE

Capt. Charles P. Low, a retired captain of Santa Barbara, has issued a book of "Recollections" of his own life certain to possess an interest for almost any reader. Capt. Low is a brother man of Seth Low, formerly Mayor of Greater New York.

What the Ailment Was.

A New England statesman was referring to the dry humor of the late Senator Hoar, when he was reminded of the following:

One day Hoar learned that a friend in Worcester who had been thought to have appendicitis was in really suffering from acute indigestion.

Whereupon the Senator said facially. "Really," said he, "that's good news. I rejoice for my friend that the trouble lies in the table of contents rather than in the appendix. That's more American.

"COMPANY" STORE PROBLEMS.

SPECIALLY CONTRIBUTED TO THE TIMES.
LAGUNA DAM (Yuma, Ariz.) Jan. 30.—About the time of the beginning of the work at Laguna an agreement was entered into between the contractors and E. P. Sanguinetti of Yuma, whereby the latter was to have control of all trade at Laguna Dam during the progress of the work of construction, he placing himself under certain obligations to the contractors for this privilege, and in turn being protected by the company in the collection of accounts due him on account from the employés and workmen. After this agreement was made other firms desiring to establish stores were given to understand that the contractors did not have authority to prevent [illegible]

MUSIC AND THE STAG

Nance O'Neil is a natural Lady Macbeth, the instinct has done more for her equipment than anything else. It is instinct which dominates in many scenes. It is not natural talent dominated by art, but a peculiar individual art dominated by natural talent.

In face, figure and voice she is ideal. One might not see in all the realm of English-speaking actresses to-day, or among the actresses of other tongues, either—a woman whose physical requirements answered the part more perfectly.

In the depth of her voice, and the subdued power, there are subtle suggestions of a terrible, incarnate fiend. Her face is dead white, with [illegible] features, thin scarlet lips and black outlined eyes.

One of her most powerful scenes is the latter part of the banquet scene which Macbeth is confronted by the gory ghost of the murdered Banquo. Here, as Macbeth tears Duncan's crown from his head, throwing it to the floor in an agony of remorse and fear, the whole personality of his ambitious spouse is expressed in a strange, despairing cry, a cry not of terror but of disappointment, and for that reason a cry almost superhuman in its inward suggestions. She throws herself down on his knees, and in her last long wail, lingering in its stillness like the hopeless lament of a damned soul, the curtain falls quickly.

Miss O'Neil was magnificently supported last night by John Glendening, as Macbeth. Indeed, it may be fairly said that in his sustained, refined and forceful interpretation he carried off a very fair share of the honors, although his creation did not approach the heroic outlines laid down by the star.

The pair worked well together in this play. Especially forcible in the dual scenes are the gestures of Miss O'Neil. Here is a pair of hands that is unequalled in spontaneity and in eloquence, and which only are equal to their expressiveness by the wonderful shading of the O'Neil voice.

Andrew Robeson as Macduff, Lawrence Griffith as Banquo, were among the artistic ones.

The scenery is especially heavy, and was poorly managed in an ultra way that makes a new bad record for the Mason stage. A plush curtain, ermine and undersized for the proscenium opening, reminded one of a twelve-year-old dress on an eighteen-year-old girl. The mounting was so long in getting up that waits amounted at times to fifteen minutes. The audience was righteously impatient.

The version is one of McKee Rankin's, and is good except in length.

Tonight the actress will give the first local presentation of Maeterlinck's "Monna Vanna." "Magda" will be played in the afternoon.

Fraulein Antonio Stolle will present her art lecture on the Florentine school Thursday evening, at Simpson Auditorium, as a benefit for the Good Shepherd Home.

Many people are interested in this worthy charity, and Fraulein Stolle's first lecture, before the Ebell Club, has done much to sustain this interest.

In the excitement of the climax to the third act of "The Proud Prince," William Desmond last evening struck Robert Homans a heavy blow on the head with a large wooden cross, laying his left ear open to the bone. Desmond as King Robert of Sicily, and Homans as Hildebrand, have it out at length through the play, and in this scene the stricken monarch, strengthened to resent a blasphemy against God, raises the cross in the defense of Divinity.

Dr. W. E. Waddell, who was witnessing the performance, was called in, and the actor was patched up and sent home. During the rest of the week Homans will play with a bandage about his head.

This evening the St. Vincent's Shakespeare Club will produce "Julius Caesar" in Father Meyer Memorial Hall. The organization has spared no pains in the preparation of the play, and the proceeds will be used as a gymnasium benefit. Excellent costuming has been procured, the best-known amateurs of the school will take part, and friends of the institution are much interested in the outcome.

Edward Booth will be seen as Antony, Edward McCurdy as Cassius, and John Phelps as Brutus, while others in the cast are Murray Brennan, Leo Rosecrans, William Rosecrans, Vincent Andreas, Charles Ready, M. F. Whine, Thomas Reynolds, Reed Lawler, Peter Denber, William Lawler, Lee Pierson, C. W. Barnard, G. Guercio, Edward Callahan and others.

This will be "Faust" night at Venice, and the Ellery band will devote six of its twelve numbers to Gounod's great opera. The selections include the first and third preludes, "Salve Dimora," "Dio Possente," "Le Parlate d'Amore," the love duet from the third act, and the waltz from the second.

Other selections listed for performance are Verdi's "Nabucco" overture, to be played for the first time. Donizetti's "Il Polluto," and "The Wedding of the Winds." Sig. Croce Marcodonio will make his first appearance as trombone soloist.

Aldo, the Italian impersonator, will make his first appearance in Chutes Theater on Saturday afternoon, instead of this afternoon, as originally announced. The delay is caused by a change in dates, which makes it impossible for him to come before the end of the week.

He will give his various impersonations with complete costuming, and with the assistance of an orchestra.

This evening, at Cumnock Hall, the Barefoot Dramatic Club will present "The Young Mrs. Winthrop," under the direction of Miss Jane Butt. It is the second of a series which the club is giving.

The cast includes Mrs. Arthur L. Bailhorn, Alfred G. Wilkes, Miss Lila Von Ache, Homer Donnell, Miss Eva Johnson, Miss W. Francis Wilkes, Miss Vern Palmer, Max Parker and Dr. Arthur Bailhorn.

Gertrude Cohen, assisted by Sig. Domenico Russo, will give her concert at the Belasco Theater this afternoon.

"COMPANY" STORE PROBLEMS.

Secretary of the Interior to Pass on Trade Question at Laguna Dam.

SPECIALLY CONTRIBUTED TO THE TIMES.] LAGUNA DAM (Yuma, Ariz.) Jan. —About the time of the beginning of work at Laguna an agreement was entered into between the contractors and E. F. Sanguinetti of Yuma, under the latter was to have control of all trade at Laguna Dam during the progress of the work of construction, placing himself under certain restrictions to the contractors for this privilege, and in turn being protected by the company in the collection of accounts due him on account from the laborers and workmen. After this agreement was made other firms desiring to establish stores were given to understand that the contractors did not have authority to prevent free competition in the matter of trade at the Laguna Camp; that the reclamation service and not the contractors had authority to grant or refuse permission to persons wishing to locate near the site of the dam for business purposes. After a consultation between the officials of the reclamation service and the representatives of the contractors, it was decided to submit the matter to the Secretary of the Interior for a decision.

C. G. Young, vice-president and general manager for the J. G. White & Co. firm, visited Tucson the past week, and, after a consultation with United States Prosecuting Attorney Alexander of Phoenix, Ariz., relative to the Federal eight-hour labor law, it was decided to refer the matter to the Attorney-General at Washington, D. C., with a request that the case be allowed to take its course in accordance with law, to test the constitutionality of the statute, and in the meantime to permit the work to go on as at present without interruption, pending a decision from the court.

The lower core wall, about two hundred feet of which had been constructed at the east, or Arizona end of the dam, settled badly, causing cracks in the cement work; consequently it is being torn out and will be rebuilt on a firmer foundation.

More About Clean Bedding

Cleanliness is of far greater importance than mere "cheapness"—any thoughtful person will admit that.

No matter how low the price, you don't want to take chances with bedding that NEVER was clean, or bedding that has been "out on approval"—and perhaps in a sick room—for several days.

You run no risks here.

None but absolutely clean bedding can enter our stocks; once here we keep it scrupulously clean and positively refuse to take back or exchange any article of bedding that has been out of the store over night.

Even our lowest-priced pillows—$2 a pair—are made of chemically cleansed feathers, and nothing BUT feathers. No shoddy at any price.

These two-dollar pillows measure 20x26 inches and weigh 7 pounds to the pair.

Better ones at $2.50, $3.50, $4, $5, $6 and $7 a pair.

The five-dollar kinds are half down. The six-dollar grade are filled with the choicest live geese feathers money can buy.

The seven-dollar grades are pure down, with linen ticks.

The $4, $5, $6 and $7 pillows—and some of the $3.50 sorts as well—are 22x28 inches.

Several Sorts of Blankets Reduced

AT $6 INSTEAD OF $8—Eleven-quarter blankets, of very fine California wool, with double-stitched silk binding; pink, blue or yellow borders.

AT $4.50 INSTEAD OF $6—Eleven-quarter blankets, of soft, fleecy white wool, neatly bound and with handsome borders.

AT $5 INSTEAD OF $6—Ten-quarter blankets, of pure white wool, with feather-stitched edge; pink, blue and gray borders.

AT $3.75 INSTEAD OF $4.50—Eleven-quarter blankets, of soft, fleecy white wool, with 2-inch silk binding.

AT $3 INSTEAD OF $4—Eleven-quarter blankets of mixed white wool—warm and fleecy; with double-stitched silk binding.

AT $2 INSTEAD OF $3—Heavy army blankets, of mixed gray wool—splendid camp blankets; ten-quarter size, now $2; and the eleven-quarter size at $2.50. Both a dollar under real worth.

THIRD FLOOR.

Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen is all its name implies. $2.50 to $10.00.

(STATIONERY DEPT. NEAR ELEVATORS)

Remember we are no farther away than the nearest mail box, and we prepay freight and express charges on all purchases of five dollars or more, destined to points within two hundred miles of Los Angeles.

Coulter Dry Goods Company

Merchandise all over the house has been subjected to a new price-pressure, due to the nearness of inventory. The lists that follow indicate the splendid advantages that are here in abundance; but many are not published because some lots are too small for the day's selling, and ALL are for but a limited time.

Initial Hdk'fs 25c
Hand-Embroidered

Handkerchiefs are a necessity—hence seldom reduced. This opportunity to save on extra good qualities is made possible by our not having every initial in stock of the well-known Poppy handkerchiefs. If we've yours, choose at 25c each, or $1.35 a half dozen, instead of 35c, their real worth.

Dress Trimmings
Reduced a Half

There's been a shrinkage of half in the prices of these gold-loop and pendant dress ornaments, notwithstanding the fact that this is a "gold season." Many colors are cunningly combined with the gold, in handsome and strikingly attractive ways. Values well worth 50c and 75c are now buyable for 25 cents each.

Stirring Suit Reductions

Even though the most of these suits are right for year-round wear in this climate, good business calls for a thorough clearance, regardless of loss. So, from handsome silk, velvet and moire costumes and coat suits whose duplicates actually sold for $35 AND MORE—are free to go at $25. And we've added some extra good values in cloth suits, to take the places of the garments that were so eagerly snapped up by wise women yesterday. There are light and dark colors in neat checks; herringbone weaves in gray; one Alice blue henrietta; some hair-line stripe weaves; various styles, from short Eton jackets to form-fitting long coats—an assortment, in short, sufficiently large to meet nearly any fancy—all at one price—$25.

On Special Sale at $10

At ten dollars we are offering the tailored suits that were overlooked in Monday's special sale. They aren't here because they weren't good values; the lot was too large to dispose of in one day, even at the radical reduction. The average former prices of these suits was $25.

ORNAMENTAL
Iron Lanterns
Third Below Regular

For hall, porch or den these lanterns are immensely effective. Those we speak of today are of wrought iron, some with opalescent slides; a dozen variations make choosing a pleasure, and prices a third under value bring $1.90 to $12 lanterns to you for $1.50 to $8. But only for this week.

Wilton rugs, 36x65—designed by the best artists and made of the best materials money can buy—reduced from $7.50 to $5.

Rope portieres and draperies—all our superb stock of these, in the latest variations of design—reduced a third from marked prices this week.

100 pairs of renaissance curtains, in white and Arabian, reduced to $1.75 a pair—formerly $3.25.

Fancy Laces
One-half Price

Quarter flounces, half flounces and nets, in 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8-inch widths, white, cream, ecru and black; Lierre, Chantilly, appliques and Venise laces with net tops, together with some Orientals, on special sale at 75c to $5—worth double.

GAS HEAT - - ALWAYS READY

When you need heat, you usually need it right away. Coal fires take too long to get a-going, and even then are far from satisfactory. What you want is a PURITAN GAS RADIATOR—always ready at the touch of a match. Heat can be regulated exactly right, with no waste of fuel, insuring economy and avoiding the endless annoyances of the old-fashioned methods.

Ground plan and track layout of new union depot, to cost half million dollars, and to be completed in eight months.

NEW UNION DEPOT.

and left, are broad exits for passengers coming from trains, so that incoming trains will discharge their passengers at each end of the central portion of the depot independently of and without interfering with passengers going to their trains through the main grand sala.

The entire left wing will be devoted to a baggage room three stories in height, counting an underground floor. The ground floor will be used for the handling of baggage in transit, while the mezzanine floor and the basement will be used for storage rooms.

TUNNELS FOR BAGGAGE.

Another striking feature of the new station which shows how carefully the structure has been planned for convenience in every detail, is the network of tunnels which will run from the baggage-room underground to the various train tracks.

Each truck of baggage will go to its proper train underground and will be raised by electric elevators to a level with the car into which it is to be loaded, and the same principle will be used in unloading.

In addition to this, a telpherage or electric conveyor, systems to be installed in the baggage-room for the convenient and rapid handling of a large amount of baggage, reducing the handling and smashing about of trunks to a minimum.

The right wing is devoted to the café and dining-room; the postoffice accommodations, in which will be installed the pneumatic conduit connecting with the central postoffice when completed; barber shops, Pullman office, news company storage rooms, and commissary department for the stocking of private cars, and the mezzanine floor of this wing will be devoted to sleeping rooms for help and attendants, and watchmen in and around the depot.

In the second story of the main building will be the offices of division officials.

GRAND PROMENADE.

For the purpose not so much of better displaying the elegant ornamentation of the building, as to provide a most interesting promenade for those awaiting their trains, a spacious corridor, brass railed, extends around the second floor under the grand dome, making an excellent observatory for watching the crowds below and from which to take in at a sweeping glance the general plan of the edifice.

The building will be so constructed that any interior partitions may be removed without destroying the integrity of the structure. The dome, roof, and covering, and other portions of the building will be independent of the interior partitions, so that any future change required by the demands of the growing business may be made by merely changing the interior arrangements.

Throughout the entire building every advantage has been taken of opportunities offered in the walls, roofs, and galleries, to get an abundant glass surface by day for ample lighting, and to admit of the use of decorated glass, and by night it will be ablaze with banks of electric bulbs.

There will be none of the noisy, smoky odorous large enclosed train shed. A covered concourse some fifty feet wide by 350 feet long, one story in height and with a roof practically all glass, will connect the waiting rooms with the train shed. Connecting with this concourse will be a cross shed forty feet wide, crossing all of the seven train tracks, furnishing access to all trains by a completely sheltered way in stormy weather.

Parallel with the main building and with the tracks and between each pair of tracks, will be an umbrella shed of artistic design, extending the entire length of the main building, so that there will be no occasion for passengers to be exposed to the inclemency of the weather in getting off or on the trains at any season of the year.

PROBLEM OF APPROACHES.

It will be noticed that the plans, as drafted by the railroad company, indicate only in a general way the approach to the depot of the different electric street car lines.

This in itself furnishes a problem which will require considerable work on the part both of the Southern Pacific and Huntington interests to settle.

It has even been suggested seriously that a subway be constructed under Central avenue to connect with the depot through an interior stairway and elevator wells for the accommodation of the depot cars.

The contemplated construction of the new depot, with a long frontage almost flush with Central avenue, save for the places reserved for carriage drives and parking, does not give the facilities for the sidetracking and storing of electric cars as does the present arrangement, which provides separate tracks for the Los Angeles railway depot cars, and the Brooklyn avenue and Edendale cars of the Pacific Electric, while at the same time allowing the Central avenue and Vernon cars uninterrupted passage north and south.

As the railway people have roughly sketched the street railway terminals at the new depot, a congestion of the cars of the four lines converging at the front of the depot would appear to be inevitable. This is a detail, however, as far as the Southern Pacific is concerned, although it would appear to present a stiff enough problem for the electric interests, and one which undoubtedly will come in for a good deal of time and attention on the return of H. E. Huntington from New York next month.

MINES AND MINING.

SMELTER FOR GOOD SPRINGS.

MEETING OF EASTERN CAPITALISTS HERE TODAY.

Master Mechanic of Mitchell's La Dicha Railroad Goes East to Buy Locomotives for Line to Connect Mines With Ocean—Smelter at Keeler Getting Ready.

A meeting will be held at the Hollenbeck Hotel in this city today by capitalists interested in the Good Springs Smelting and Developing Company, which intends to locate a smelting plant near Good Springs, Lincoln county, on the Salt Lake Railroad. At the meeting details of policy will be determined upon and arrangements made to visit the ground. The visitors are coming in two parties, one of which arrived last night. It was composed of C. H. Raymond and wife, W. H. Potter and W. A. Morton, Haverhill, Mass.; C. E. McCarthy and wife and M. Wilson and wife, Salt Lake; Louis E. Barker, Bangor, Me., and Frank C. Came, Denver.

LOCOMOTIVES FOR LA DICHA.

George Ross, master mechanic of the La Dicha and Pacific Railroad, which is to connect the Mitchell mines in Guerrero with the Pacific, left for the East Monday to purchase four narrow-gauge locomotives. Sufficient cars will be also bought for four mixed trains. Surveys have been completed and contracts let for grading and laying steel. The line—eighty-three miles long—will be steam operated at first, but later it is the intention to utilize the power obtainable from the Papagallo River to generate electric power both for the railroad and the mines. Nine thousand horse power is what it is expected can be had.

The ocean terminus will be at Port Marques, three miles south of Acapulco, where concessions have been obtained for wharves and loading facilities. At present the only object is to get ore out and machinery in, as no line will be built to Acapulco, where the Pacific Mail Steamship Company has concessions that cover practically the entire water front. Later when the road is in shape to seek general business, a branch will be put in to the city.

The concession covers the route also from La Dicha inland to Iguala on the Mexico, Cuernavaca and Pacific, now a part of the Mexican Central Railroad. A connection here would afford direct communication with Mexico City and upon the completion of the Central's short line from the capital to Tampico a direct route from ocean to ocean. Whether or not the company will build under this franchise is a matter for future circumstances to determine. The route is the one feasible to the coast. The Cuernavaca line was completed to Balsas, where it struck an almost impassable mountain range, was forced to quit and was sold to the Central. Branching off to the southwest at Iguala and following the route o the Mitchell concession an easy grade is obtainable. A branch will doubtless connect with the State capital at Chilpancingo.

SHIPPING MACHINERY.

The Mitchell company is shipping large amounts of machinery from San Francisco by steamer and some is going in by rail from the East, through El Paso and Mexico City to Iguala, and thence by teams to the mines. Most of it, however, is sent from San Francisco and many thousands have been paid out in consequence, not a dollar of it coming to Los Angeles, although the company has its western office here and was originally formed in this city.

COMPILING STATE'S STATISTICS.

State Mineralogist Lewis E. Aubury is sending out inquiries and blank forms for compiling statistics of the State's production in oil, gold, silver, copper and all minerals and metals for the year just closed. Every oil and mining company in California and every individual engaged in these lines is requested to fill out the answers covering the name of mine or company, county in which located, character of production, amount produced in 1905 and value thereof and number of men employed. Information is also requested as to the names of any other producers in the district where any company may be located.

All the information furnished is held in strict confidence and used only for the purpose of compiling statistics for the State by counties. The State Mining Bureau is pledged to absolute secrecy as to any individual's output.

POSTOFFICE AFTER FAKERS.

Mineralogist Aubury has put the postal authorities on the trail of the Clover Creek Mining Company, a concern with headquarters in St. Louis, that has some claims in this State which it is advertising as being with scarcely an exception the most wonderful property in the world. In one paragraph of literature sent out it is claimed that the pay streak is so rich that the mill could, in a day, if enough of the ore is obtained, yield $52,080. Mr. Aubury has had one of his field assistants examine the land and he found it to be nothing but an almost wholly undeveloped prospect with nothing to indicate that it will ever come any near the extravagant claims of its owners.

SMELTER AT KEELER.

Fifty men are at work building the 100-ton smelter of the Great Western Ore Company at Keeler. Owners of properties near-by have been notified that the company will be ready to receive ore about March 1.

The Montezuma Mining Company of this city that owns property at Elna on the narrow gauge north of Keeler, has shipped a car to the Salt Lake smelter and received $8 net. The freight was $4.75 a ton, sufficient to destroy any big profits, but the railroad has quoted a flat rate to Keeler of $15 per car and all shipments will be made there when the plant is opened.

The Great Western Company has a purchasing agency and sampling works in Tonopah and Goldfield and presumably will bring the highly silicious ores of that region to Keeler for treatment. There is excellent flux to be had, the lack of which drove the Salt Lake smelters to decline much of this ore.

Letters received from the Owens River Valley say that there is more prospecting going on than at any time within many years. A rich find of copper is reported several miles from the Montezuma mines within the last ten days. The latter are silver and lead producers.

LAND FOR NACO SMELTER.

The Naco Townsite Company has presented Robert Mitchell and his associates with fifty-three acres as a site for the smelter which he is preparing to erect at the border town. Actual building is being somewhat delayed by some preliminaries, but it is declared that there is no doubt but that the smelter will be put up. Naco is the port of entry to and from Cananea and some independent ore may be shipped from that camp. Mr. Mitchell owns some properties there from which he will ship.

MINING ODDS AND ENDS.

The Nevada-Keystone mine at Sandy, Lincoln county, has been bonded to Carl Anderson, a Los Angeles mining engineer, for two years. The bond called for 10 per cent. royalty and fixed ultimate purchase at $337,000.

The Sioux Gold Mining Company, a corporation formed by Los Angeles and Long Beach capitalists, chief among whom are R. G. Parmelee and W. Scott Smith, have acquired the Mountain Lion group in Shasta county where they already have a five-stamp mill and will develop at once.

Dr. Charles Bryson of this city is reported to have purchased an interest in the Cowboy mine owned by Bakersfield people and located in the Amalie district of Kern county.

The Greenback Copper Mining Company, a corporation said to be acquiring copper mines and prospects in different parts of California, has purchased for $1260.80 lands on section 1, 26-29 in Kern county from the Southern Pacific. The sale by the railroad was to L. Guggenhime, who immediately made the transfer to the mining company, the deeds being filed at Bakersfield.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

STANDARD IS AFTER MORE.

CONTRACT MADE WITH WEST SHORE FOR QUANTITY.

Two Hundred Thousand Barrels to be Delivered at Once at Twenty Cents—Columbian Sells Its Output for Years—Price Causes Speculation and Hope.

The Standard is buying oil at Kern River and wants more. This comes from several good sources. It is paying slightly increased prices too, in some cases; that is to say, an increase over the 18 cents received by the members of the Independent Agency from the Associated. The report as to new contracts published Sunday as an unconfirmed rumor, is now partially confirmed as to the West Shore, but the facts are in part quite the reverse of what was then reported. Instead of being for three years, the contract calls for 200,000 barrels as soon as they can be delivered, quantity, not time, being the essence. The price is not 15 cents but 20 cents. The company has this much in storage and can deliver at once.

The Kern River, Apollo and Four have sold some spot oil to the Standard about 15 cents. The first named has delivered recently on an old contract, the time of which had expired without the delivery of the full amount, and there had been some dispute over this, it is said.

The Columbian has just closed a contract for all its output for a term of years. This can be stated upon certain authority. The price and number of years can not yet be learned. While it is not stated positively that the Standard is the buyer, it is known that the Columbian has been negotiating with the big company.

The increased rate paid the West Shore is a source of satisfaction and encouragement to independent producers. They interpret it to mean that there is an increased demand for Kern River product regardless of the great growth of production elsewhere. If the Standard wants this oil in increased quantities and will pay more for it, they argue that the Associated must pay more to get it for its contracts with the railroads. On the other hand, some profess to fear a trick to break the producers up into small groups and perhaps draw some out of the organization and weaken it so that the big companies will be able to manipulate prices better.

REFINERY NEAR HARFORD.

An Associated Press dispatch from San Francisco yesterday says:

"The California Petroleum Refineries, limited, a London corporation, has decided to erect an oil refinery on San Luis Bay, near the town of Alla, two miles from Port Harford.

"The site chosen on tidewater for the refinery is about forty miles from the company's old field, located near the town of Los Alamos in Santa Barbara county. The plant will have a daily capacity of 5000 barrels."

DIES IN BATHROOM.

William A. Hammer, Well-known Grocer Succumbs to a Sudden Attack of Heart Disease.

William August Hammer, a well-known grocer, died at his home, No. 947 West Twelfth street, about 9 o'clock yesterday morning, from heart failure. Mr. Hammer had been suffering from an acute attack of erysipelas for the past two weeks, but yesterday he felt so much better than he announced his intention of going to his place of business.

About 8:30 o'clock he entered the bathroom of his house. Sometime later, his wife having heard nothing from him, became alarmed and knocked on the door. She received no answer, and fearing something was wrong, called in a neighbor, who forced open the door. They found Mr. Hammer lying on the floor. A physician was called at once, but his efforts were unavailing, as the man was past help.

Mr. Hammer was born in Hanover, Germany, in 1860, and came to America in 1885. He settled in Texas, where he was engaged in business for a short time, but sixteen years ago he came to Los Angeles and opened a grocery at the corner of Sixth and Sentous streets, which he conducted up to the time of his death.

He was a man of considerable means, owning among other properties, the large brick block on Sentous street. He also owned a number of business lots in different parts of the city, which he bought when he first came to this city, at a time when property had not reached the present high values. His estate is valued at about $50,000.

CANFIELD HOME IN FAST TIME.

FROM FAR INTO MEXICO TRAIN COMES IN FIFTY HOURS.

Husband of Murdered Woman Receives News When Nearly Two Thousand Miles Away—Railroads Speed the Special Through—Funeral of Assassin's Victim Tomorrow.

At 5:55 o'clock yesterday afternoon the special train bearing C. A. Canfield and party to this city in response to the news of the murder of his wife, pulled into the Arcade Depot after its long trip of 1900 miles from Silao, Mexico.

Mr. Canfield was met at the station by his son and his secretary, D. C. Wallace, Jr., and the party, which included Mr. Canfield's two daughters and son-in-law, Dr. Norman Bridge of Pasadena, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Doheny, were driven immediately to their homes.

The special train consisted of Mr. Doheny's private car, "Estelle," and baggage car. It came through from El Paso at an average speed of forty miles an hour, including all stops for changes of engines. Over the 1000 miles from Silao to the Mexican border, the time was somewhat slower than over the Southern Pacific from El Paso.

It was at Silao, the terminus of the Mexico division of the Central, that the Canfield party was overhauled early Sunday morning and advised of the shocking tragedy resulting in the death of Mrs. Canfield at the hands of the assassin, Morris Buck.

Through President A. A. Robinson of the Mexican Central a special engine was in readiness to race back with them over the road to El Paso.

Leaving Silao at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the special reached El Paso early Monday morning. The Mexican customs officials offered the party every facility for crossing the border without a moment's delay, and at 7:55 o'clock Monday evening the special, ordered out by Superintendent McGovern of the El Paso division of the Southern Pacific, was speeding toward Los Angeles.

At every division point the change of engines was made without a moment's unnecessary delay, and the officials both of the Southern Pacific and of the Mexican Central did all in their power to expedite the movement of the special over their respective lines.

At El Paso, A. P. Maginnis, long a business associate and warm friend of Mr. Canfield, joined the party and accompanied them to this city.

Allowing for difference in time, the running time of the special from Silao to this city was fifty hours and thirty-five minutes.

The funeral services for Mrs. Canfield will be held at the family residence at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, friends being invited. The interment will be private.

HIS CONTRACTS NOT FINISHED.

INSTEAD OF GOING TO WORK INGLEHART SKIPS.

Wife of Contractor Gets Letter from Him in Which He Says He'll Leave the Country—Lost on Buildings Through Incompetency of Union Workmen.

A. E. Inglehart, a building contractor who disappeared more than a week ago, it is said, has started from his home while at work at Benedict. Now he has written to his wife from Reno, Nev.

Inglehart has become involved in financial difficulties, and he decided to leave Los Angeles and try his luck in another field. He was much depressed mentally by his trouble, and his wife feared he had wandered away in a fit of mental aberration. His letter indicates that there was much method in his actions.

Inglehart's home is at No. 3940 San Julian street. He has a pretty young wife and a baby not yet a year old. His domestic affairs were harmonious, and it is said that it is simply his financial condition which led Inglehart to desert his wife and baby.

For several years he has worked as a carpenter in Los Angeles, and about a year ago began to contract for himself. His difficulty appears to have been the taking of contracts at too low a figure, and especially the loss on buildings by the incompetency of union workmen employed by him. Finally he discharged his union crews and depended on independent workmen; but he had become so deeply involved that he saw it was impossible to extricate himself.

At the time of his leaving the city he had under way five or six realty deals. One of these is at Benedict, the next station below Sherman; and Inglehart started ostensibly for that place when he left his home.

When he did not return his wife became almost prostrated through worry. She was greatly relieved to receive the message, as it assured her that he is alive and well. Although their trouble will in all likelihood demand the sacrifice of their home and all their property, still Mrs. Inglehart does not care for that so long as she is assured that her husband is safe and free from the dangers with which she has surrounded him in her imagination during the long days of uncertainty.

Inglehart formerly lived at Reno, and it is said he has many friends there. Another stated last night that he expected his son will begin life anew in the Nevada city.

The letter to Mrs. Inglehart stated that while her husband was then in Reno, by the time the letter reached her it would be far from that place, as he intimated that he would probably leave one of the United States. Neither Mrs. Inglehart nor her father-in-law believe that Inglehart will leave Reno. It is believed that he intends to stay somewhere in Los Angeles until he retrieves his fortune and is able to return and square up all his obligations. Among the creditors are Carpenter & Gregg-mill men, and it is estimated their account will run up to about $2,000. Inglehart has several buildings under way, for which he has received payment, so the material men will probably have these buildings completed and thus save some of the money due them.

It is said Inglehart was highly respected in the neighborhood of his home. He was active in social affairs, and a fine singer, a member of the choir of the Congregational Church on San Julian and Thirty-sixth streets.

OCEANSIDE.

FOR CITY HALL BONDS.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

OCEANSIDE, Jan. 30.—An ordinance calling an election here to vote on the question of issuing $30,000 in municipal bonds for building a city hall has passed the first reading in the Board of Trustees. The plans call for a two and a half building of cement. Besides the municipal offices they provide quarters for the public library.

WONDERFUL "LEG."

Shaped Exactly Like a Man's, but It Grew on a Tree in Redwood Forest.

A large piece of redwood burl, bearing an uncanny resemblance to a human leg is in the possession of G. C. Barton, No. 716 San Julian street, who received it from his cousin, S. Underwood of Humboldt county.

At first sight the freak appears to be the leg of a large, well-developed man, cut close to the trunk. The "muscles" are clearly defined and the outlines of the thigh, calf and knee are almost perfect. The measurements are as follows: Top at point severed from trunk, 32 inches; "thigh," 31 inches; "knee," 18¼ inches; "calf," 15 inches. An anatomical expert says the measurements would fit a perfect human leg.

The most stunning wooden leg.

The limb has been mounted on a board, and, in order to heighten the resemblance, it has been provided with a shoe and stocking. It is safe to say that any one coming across it in the woods would receive an unpleasant shock.

The freak was found by Mr. Underwood near Eureka, while he was searching for redwood burl, a knotty, abnormal growth which appears on the older trees, and is much prized for its beautiful grain, which is not unlike that of bird's-eye maple, and is used in the manufacture of plaques and other California curios. This piece, which weighs about thirty pounds, and is of considerable intrinsic value aside from its interest as a freak, was found on the trunk of an old tree, about thirty feet from the ground. The finder, on noticing its odd shape, cut it away from the tree with great care, and carried it to Eureka, where it was exhibited in the window of a curio store for several weeks. It attracted much attention and as several people offered upward of $50 for it, the finder concluded that he had a prize, and shipped it to Barton. It will be sold to an eastern museum.

HAWKINS HITS AT TORMENTORS.

PARSON GIVES NEW TWIST TO ZION CHURCH SQUABBLE.

While Some Members of Congregation Seek Injunction to Prevent Sale of Valuable Property, He Pursues Others in Effort to Bring Them to Church Trial.

"Zion" may yet be saved!

This is the slogan of the negro congregation which has been tussling with its determined pastor, Rev. S. W. Hawkins, and his board of trustees, J. B. Bowman, Paul Brown, George Brown and John Jackson, to prevent them from selling the present church site at Fourth street and Ruth avenue.

Monday afternoon, the congregation, or men who claim to represent a majority of the congregation, won the first round by securing from Judge Gibbs a temporary injunction restraining the board of trustees of Zion African Methodist Episcopal Church from selling the church property at Fourth street and Ruth avenue to Robert S. Owens. He had agreed to pay $27,000 for the property, and had deposited $500 on the bargain.

A hearing of the case will take place on February 8, when Judge Gibbs will determine whether or not the temporary injunction be made permanent.

This squabble among Zion's members has furnished many amusing incidents to the outsiders, although to the participants it appears a desperately serious affair. There are charges of "graft" and "unbrotherly and un-Christian conduct," etc. There has been at least one riot over the matter.

A large portion of the congregation is determined to secure the removal of its pastor, Rev. S. W. Hawkins, and twice it has petitioned Bishop J. S. Caldwell, who is in charge of this jurisdiction, asking him to send someone to take Hawkins's place. In these letters there have been some burning sentences.

Naturally, this has not caused Hawkins to warm up to the disgruntled members, and as an offset for their attempts to secure an injunction and their letters to the bishop, it is said that Hawkins will demand that every blessed one of them be brought to church trial.

He has served written notice to this effect on two of his members, S. L. Taft and E. L. Leland, who claim to represent forty-five members, and the pastor is said to carry in his pocket papers for various other members, notifying them to appear for church trial for "un-Christian and unbrotherly conduct."

While some of the brethren were in the courts, trying to secure an injunction against their pastor, the pastor himself was busy chasing two of the brethren down the street so that he might personally serve on them the papers demanding them to appear and give reasons for their attacks on him.

It is said there was a mighty lively foot-race for a short time, and that finally the brethren outwitted the pastor and saved themselves from being served with "papers."

The dissatisfied members claim that the church property is worth much more than Owens was to pay for it, and that there is now an offer of $28,000 for it. They also claim that there were irregularities, which they term "graft," in the buying and selling of the Crocker-street site.

The men who claim to be acting for the congregation are S. L. Taft, E. L. Leland, J. W. Burton and W. H. Shores. Burton and Shores put up a $500 bond to cover the expenses of the injunction proceedings. These men claim their action is taken at the expressed wish of a large majority of the congregation of "Zion."

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

A Desperately Serious Case Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Brought to the very verge of starvation by the rejection of all nourishment, her vitality almost destroyed, the recovery of Mrs. J. A. Wyatt, of No. 1189 Seventh street, Des Moines, Iowa, seemed hopeless. Her physicians utterly failed to reach the seat of the difficulty and death must have resulted if she had not pursued an independent course suggested by her sister's experience.

Mrs. Wyatt says: "I had pain in the region of the heart, palpitation and shortness of breath so that I could not walk very fast. My head ached very badly and I was seized with vomiting spells whenever I took any food. A doctor was called who pronounced the trouble gastritis, but he gave me no relief. Then I tried a second doctor without benefit. By this time I had become very weak. I could not keep the most delicate broth on my stomach, and at the end of a month I was scarcely more than skin and bone and was really starving to death.

"Then I recalled how much benefit my sister had got from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to take them in place of the doctor's medicine. It proved a wise decision for they helped me as nothing else had done. Soon I could take weak tea and crackers and steadily more nourishment. In two weeks I was able to leave my bed. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were the only thing that checked the vomiting and as soon as that was stopped my other difficulties left me. I have a vigorous appetite now and am able to attend to all the duties of my home. I praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People to all my friends because I am thoroughly convinced of their merit."

Dr Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists and by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N.Y.

CALIFORNIA A PRODUCER.

Gov. Pardee Gives Some Interesting Figures Relative to Our Agricultural and Industrial Progress.

California is just closing one of her most prosperous years, for, although the cereal crops have been shorter than usual, this State's industries are so varied that such a thing as a general crop failure is almost impossible, writes Gov. Pardee in The Earth. When our horn of plenty is not filled with one thing it is with another, and during the past twelve months there have been few failures and many successes. A great tide of colonists has poured into the State, and the tourist travel has broken former records. The increase of bank capital and bank deposits has been enormous. Railroad building is active and a new transcontinental line is in course of construction. In short, at no time during the last quarter of a century has the outlook for rapid development in the largest and most populous of the Pacific Coast States been so favorable as now.

California is an agricultural, mining, manufacturing, all around industrial State, but its largest single interest is fruit production, in which it leaves far behind every State in the Union. During the past summer and autumn there have been shipped to eastern markets of fresh deciduous fruits 8800 actual carloads, or on a ten-ton basis, about 9960 carloads. The southern counties, during the past season shipped 25,553 carloads of oranges worth $11,569,125, and 4836 cars of lemons worth $3,141,260, a total of 29,389 cars of citrus fruits, which brought us $14,710,385. To this may be added some shipments from the northern portions of the State, not included in the above estimates, which will bring the total shipments up to over 38,000 carloads, and this immense industry is practically the growth of the past twenty years. This is about 12,000,000 boxes of oranges. Florida, our only competitor, expects to ship 1,500,000 boxes the coming season.

Some of the other products of the year may be summed up as follows:

Raisins, 6,000,000 boxes; 120,000,000 pounds; 4000 cars.
Canned fruit, 3,000,000 cases.
Dried fruits, 3,000,000 pounds.
Wines and brandies, 35,000,000 gallons.
Honey, 8,000,000 pounds.
Beans, 110,000,000 pounds.
Butter, 35,000,000 pounds.
Cheese, 6,100,000 pounds.
Prunes, 170,000,000 pounds; 5500 cars.
Walnuts, 11,000,000 pounds; 550 cars.
Wheat, 450,000 tons.
Wool, 22,000,000 pounds.
Hops, 55,000 bales.

The production of gold in California is again on the increase and nears the $20,000,000 mark. The copper production is also increasing and in the quantity of petroleum produced, Texas, Pennsylvania and Ohio are all outdone.

A PROPOSITION.

From Prominent Los Angeles Druggists.

To the People of Los Angeles: As this season promises to be an exceedingly trying one to all persons in ill health and to the aged,—

Know, therefore, that we, the Owl Drug Co. of this city, do hereby agree to furnish all the medicine necessary to restore to health any sick persons in Los Angeles, or to build up strength of the aged, on a positive guarantee that if it fails it will be absolutely free.

Let every person who is run down, weakened from any cause, sickness, or pulmonary disease, old people, nursing mothers, pale, debilitated women and children, or those troubled with hard colds, hacking coughs or incipient consumption, come to our store and get a bottle of our modern cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, and if it fails to accomplish what we guarantee it will, we will refund every dollar paid for it.

This is a fair and square offer, honorably made, with the expectation that it will be accepted by all Los Angeles people who are interested.

Vinol is not a patent medicine, and is guaranteed to contain in concentrated form all the curative, body-building and strength-creating elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, without the system-clogging oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work. It produces a hearty appetite, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body. Can any offer be more fair? Try Vinol on our guarantee. The Owl Drug Co., 320 South Spring st.

HUNTINGTON PARK EXTENSION, an elegant suburb of Los Angeles, adjoining the city on the south.

THE LONGER the street the better bargain the buy. The wider the street the more substantial and assured the investments in property thereon, and on the near-by streets. These two points stand out superior in favor of purchasing Huntington Park Extension property. It combines all the advantages of "good soil," "artesian water," "electric service," "5c fare with book," "closeness to center of city—15 minutes' ride," "choice residence district" and "building restrictions," "moderate prices" and "convenient payments"—all of which are seldom combined as favorably and completely in the other tracts on the market. In addition are the two entirely unique and unprecedented points for profits first named. Think this over carefully on your way down to our office for a free ticket to visit the tract, and start on your way here while you are now reading this. You cannot do a wiser or a safer thing today than investigate our lots.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

CHARMING Miss Olive Erdt was guest at a pretty little dinner given Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blackburn at their cosy apartments in the Hinman.

Violets and delicate ferns massed in the table center proved attractive, and violet-shaded lights and violet place cards added much to the fetching effect. Beside the host and hostess and guest of honor covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Otto L. Erdt, Miss Katherine Freeman, Miss Cornell and Dr. Jack Murietta, Dr. Ralph Williams and Walter Schnall of Chicago.

Miss McClung's Luncheon.

Miss Belle McClung of the Marlborough school was hostess Saturday afternoon at a charming luncheon given at the California Club. Violets were utilized in effective table deckings, and following the lunch a box party at the Belasco was enjoyed. Guests included Misses Grace Rowley, Ryan, Rhodes, Helen Nevin, Ray, Marjory Severance and Kingsbury. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Stanley F. McClung.

going away gown was of Alice blue broadcloth with trimmings of panne velvet and lace and her hat matched with white plumes and pale gray roses.

Among the handsome gifts received was the book of "Bridal Wreaths" from which the wedding service was read, and in which the marriage certificate was made out and guests' names written. This was the gift of William Wood, an old friend from Springfield, O.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Baur, who were married last evening.

Reed-Baur Nuptials.

The nuptials of Miss Grace Lillian Reed and John G. Baur, which took place last evening in the First English Lutheran Church marked the union of a young woman and man whose romance began in a sweet manner. Two years ago Mr. Baur came to Los Angeles and became sick, after having joined the English Lutheran Church. He was sent to a hospital and it devolved upon the Christian Endeavor Society to cheer him. Miss Reed happened to be the delegate chosen to visit the convalescent, and a strong friendship sprang up between the two. Not many months later Miss Reed was wearing a shining diamond.

The church in which the nuptials were solemnized was decked with waving palms and garlands of shining greenery, and the altar was canopied with smilax and white tulle, while the couple stood beneath an arch of date palms from which swung a wedding bell of snowy blossoms. Rev. Herbert Weaver officiated, and wedding music was rendered by Miss Grace Fletcher at the organ. Just before the ceremony little Annie Row, dressed in fluffy gown of white, came forward and sang in sweet, flute-like tones, which blended with the soft organ notes, "Love's Old Sweet Song." Then came the Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," and the two ushers, L. Webb Blymer and Edward Engelbrichtson, followed by the groom, his best man, Fred Baur, entered from one aisle, while soon after came the maid of honor, Miss Mable Marshall, attired in white organdie and lace, and carrying white sweet peas and maidenhair ferns, down the opposite aisle. Then followed the two little flower girls, Annie Row and Irma Getz, attired in white frocks of lace and embroidery, and carrying tiny baskets tied with bows and filled with rose petals, which they strewed before them. Little George A. Reed, aged 3, dressed in a suit of white, bore the ring in a silver basket. Then came the radiant bride on the arm of her father. She wore a lovely frock of white silk trimmed with pearl passementerie and made entraine. Her veil was fastened with orange blossoms and she carried white bride roses tied with white ribbons. Her only ornament was a handsome pearl collar set with diamonds, the gift of the groom.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Reed of No. 1216 Colton street. After the ceremony a supper was served at the home for the immediate relatives and bridal party. The parlors were decorated with white and gold, white flowers and yellow and white ribbons being utilized. The couple stood to receive beneath an arch of palms from which a dove floated. In the dining-room pink flowers and greenery were combined, a canopy being over the table and a mirror on which rested pink carnations adorned the table.

The couple have gone for a wedding journey, after which they will be at home at No. 1214 West First street, and later will go to Brooklyn, where the groom is engaged in business, and there make their home. The bride's "Toyshop" Jollity Begins.

Think of being real live little dolls for just three hours. This is just what the little dollies and toys in "The Toyshop" will do at the Mason Opera House on the evenings of February 9 and 10.

Its a pretty little story that Miss Martin and her assistants are weaving into a playlet, and it all commences with the four lovely "hours" who are Misses Hazel Page, Adelaide Wolcott, Genevieve Wilson and Marian Phinney. These four sweet young maids open the play by inviting the toys to become real for the short space of three hours. The songs and dances of the "hours" is one of the most attractive features. Then comes the child, Miss Bessie Buskirk, who sings daintily of her dolls and finally choses as the queen of her heart her oldest doll, and this one will be crowned queen and brought on the stage on a tiny throne. The part is taken by Dorothy Allradt. Then there are complications which arise. There's the noble Captain Blockstone of the tin soldier brigade, who makes desperate love to the fair little queen. The part of the Captain is taken by Miss Margo Duffet and is most cleverly done. Then there's Captain Woodenhead of the wooden soldiers who's a deadly rival. He is impersonated by Cosmo Morgan. The three Fops are always in love and are a clever trio. These parts are taken by Jack Oberle, Wilder Bowers and Ralph Lewis. Little dimpling Misses Della Bliss, Lila Bliss and Angelina June Kilpatrick are the dignified lady dolls. Miss Maude Reese Davies and her sextette of brown lassies from Japan are a taking part. Their real kimono costumes richly embroidered and their tiny swaying bodies, which move obediently with their leader, Miss Davies, make a fascinating picture. Their fan dance and numerous salaams and bowings before the queen are already well learned and the songs which charming Miss Davies makes so sweet, come in here and there. Little ones who take the part of Jap dolls are Gertrude Joly, Frances Hawley, Edna Murphy, Aileen Brain, Geraldine Williams and Grace Chase.

Miss Louise Hill is to be the French doll and her costume is to be one of the most gorgeous of all. There are yards and yards of lace and fluffy frills galore, while a real French hat with roses and lace will crown this charming bit of femininity.

Miss Mercedes De Luna who is to be the rag doll is quite the best thing on the programme. She looks the part exactly and her dance is a wonder. It's all the world like a rag doll, so limp and wabbly seems this clever maid when she does the dance which will surely bring down the house. The Dutch dolls are pretty and their bow-legged dance with wooden shoes and quaint little caps and blue gowns with kerchief will be a feature. Girlies who are Dutch dolls include: Vanita

The "four hours" and one "little minute" in "The Toy Shop," to be given February 9 and 10.

Florencita Park

Only 10 minutes from Sixth and Main Sts., on the Long Beach line.

What is the best residential proposition in or near Los Angeles today? Where can we get Value for our money? These are the burning questions with all prospective homebuyers. Los Angeles and its environs are dotted with beautiful subdivisions--but when it comes right down to a plain case of the Greatest Value for the Least Money--the answer is Florencita Park, emphatically Florencita Park.

It is the complete answer to the "burning questions." Why? Because Florencita Park, with lots priced from $550 and up (and not very far up, either), has Huntington Car service (a 10-minute ride from Sixth and Main—and 5 cent fare), broad park-adorned boulevards, costly cement work, several stately Mission entrances, sturdy walnut and peach trees on every lot, ornamental trees and shrubbery, a fine system of fire protection, 2 fire plugs in each block, and an independent water system supplying nearly 150 inches of pure artesian water.

Florencita Park embodies "character," exclusiveness, accessibility—and the present prices of lots are Low. Can this combination be Excelled? You answer the question.

Extensive building operations are in progress—several beautiful homes nearing completion.

We can build for you and actually save you 20% on the cost of a home. We're doing things on a wholesale scale—we buy in carloads—all work under direction of Supt. Ince, builder of Venice.

See Florencita today—the improvements and prices will "jolt your idea of values." Prepare for a surprise.

CHRISTMAS WRECK'S VICTIM.

Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Galusha Dies from Injuries Received in Crash of Runaway Cars.

Death claimed its first victim, yesterday, from the long list of injured in the remarkable street car wreck of Christmas Eve at Second and Broadway. This victim is Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Galusha, aged 55 years.

Mrs. Galusha was one of the most severely injured victims of the crash that resulted in wounding almost 100 persons. A Second-street electric car dashed down the hill from Olive street to Spring, crashed into another car of the same line, just ready to start out, and loaded with people; and these two cars then shot out onto Spring street, just in time for them to strike broadside a passing Hollywood car.

Old street car men who saw the terrific smash-up could but marvel that there was no loss of life. However, when the wounded were taken out of the debris, it was found that Mrs. Galusha had suffered a broken lower limb as well as internal injuries.

She did not rally from the shock, and died yesterday, at her residence in this city.

Margaret Elizabeth Gilbert was born in Savanah, Ga., March 1, 1851, and in 1876 she was married to Charles C. Galusha, and they removed to Rochester, N. Y. Her husband died in 1881.

In 1902 she removed to Los Angeles, where her son, Elon Gilbert Galusha, is a well-known young attorney. She also has a sister, Miss Euretta D. Gilbert, and niece, Euretta May Gilbert, residing in this city, and a brother, James Banks Gilbert, who resides at Oswego, Kan.

Mrs. Galusha was a daughter of Edward Gilbert and Margaret Elizabeth Roosevelt of New York City. Her charming personality won for her many warm friends both in New York and this city.

BRAKEMAN AT SAN BERNARDINO FRIGHTFULLY INJURED.

Was Carried Six Miles Dangling by Leg and With Head Downward at End of Freight Car—Sand to be Made of Granite for Little Bear Valley Dam.

SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 30.—Clarence Allison, the Santa Fé brakeman, who was injured by a peculiar accident while coming to town on an extra freight from the east, may not survive. For six miles Allison had been carried along, dangling head downward at the end of a freight car. All that prevented his being dashed to death under the train, was that his feet were caught between the brake rods and the side of the car.

The constant pounding of his body on the side of the car as the car rushed down the steep Cajon grade, had brought unconsciousness, but also inflicted internal injuries. An inspection of the car showed that the brake chain had broken. Allison was in the act of setting the brake for the run from Summit to the foot of the grade, and when he had thrown his weight upon the brake the chain had suddenly snapped.

At Cajon Siding, six miles below Summit, Allison was missed and a search instituted, which resulted in finding him dangling by his feet from the end of the car.

MAKE SAND OF GRANITE.

Arthur Drew, of the contracting firm of Bright & Drew, who are building the core wall for the Arrowhead reservoir in Little Bear Valley, returned from San Francisco this morning, where he and his head foreman, Mr. Fisk, had been to purchase a machine to convert granite boulders into sand.

The contractors require 15,000 cubic yards of sand, to make 30,000 cubic yards of concrete for the completion of the core wall. Within 400 feet of the core wall there is an unlimited amount of granite, which after being quarried can be handled from the quarry to the crusher entirely by machinery.

Preparations are now being made to increase the number of men on the job to about 300. It is the intention to complete a larger amount of work on the reservoir project than was completed last year. At present there are two locomotives and dump trains, two steam dredges and ninety men at work.

HUBBY IN JAIL.

W. A. Clarke spent last night in the City Jail on complaint of his wife and A. Nawjoka, who charged him with disturbing the peace. Mr. and Mrs. Clarke have been at swords points for weeks. Recently Mrs. Clarke appealed to the police, stating that her husband had threatened suicide, and she was following him to prevent the attempt. Last night the police found Nawjoka defending himself and Mrs. Clarke against Clarke. Nawjoka had a shotgun. Clarke charges Nawjoka with being the cause of his marital troubles.

SAN BERDOO BRIEFS.

Andrew Vescote, weak minded and irresponsible, was convicted this afternoon by a jury on a charge of jail breaking. His attorney made insanity the main defense, but failed to place the accused on the stand. The jury was therefore in utter ignorance of the man's mental condition. His trial seemed to be a standing joke among the officers.

W. W. Cooper, in a demented condition, was arrested for vagrancy at Barstow this morning, and sent to the County Jail for twenty days. He claims to have been lost for ten days on the desert, subsisting most of the time on cactus. He was in a miserable condition when received at the County Jail. He resembled a skeleton. His shoes were worn off, and his clothes were tattered.

John O'Donnell, whom the Santa Fé is trying to dislodge as owner of Barstow, has struck rich ore in his mine. The rock is said to assay $225. There is much excitement. The country is being located for miles.

Marie Nocis Nunez died today, aged 100 years. She was an actual witness of many of the most thrilling chapters in Mexico's struggle for independence. She was of high birth, and during her earlier years was wealthy.

Edwin Hansen, aged 29, and May Simpson, aged 23, both of Long Beach, were married by Justice Thomas this afternoon.

COLTON.

"POINSETTIA" ROUTE OPENED.

COLTON, Jan. 30.—The San Bernardino Valley Traction oCmpany's excursion car made its first trip over the "Poinsettia Route" today. The trustees of the cities of Colton and Redlands, and the Mayor and City Council of San Bernardino, together with representatives of the press, were guests of the company. Various points of interest in Redlands, San Bernardino, Colton, Highland and Urbita and Harlem Springs were visited, the party returning to Colton for dinner at c Anderson.

The trip will be made three times a week hereafter, for the accommodation especially of tourists.

ONTARIO.

STEAM PLANT FOR POWER.

ONTARIO, Jan. 30.—By unanimous vote of the stockholders the directors of the San Antonio Water Company have been authorized to install, at a cost of not to exceed $50,000, a steam or other power plant. This is intended to supplement the present water power used to generate electricity for service about town here. At certain seasons the water power is not sufficient for the increasing demands for current.

See Montgomery's prize window.

REDLANDS.

TELEPHONE MERGER.

REDLANDS, Jan. 30.—A big merger is scheduled to take place next month when the Redlands Southwestern Telephone Company is to absorb the Redlands Home Telephone Company. With this object in view a meeting was held yesterday at which the capital of the Southwestern company was increased from $100,000 to $1,000,000.

Nine-tenths of the stock was represented at the meeting which was held yesterday and the increase was voted and the merger practically decided upon without a dissenting voice. There will be less than $200,000 stock issued in the company, the remainder being allowed to remain on hand.

The Home Telephone Company was instituted in this city only two years ago. It was followed closely by the Southwestern Company, which, though a separate concern, was managed by the same man, K. C. Wells, president. The Home system has been devoted almost entirely to local service, while the Southwestern has devoted its energies to constructing suburban lines and thereby increasing the local service.

BILLBOARDS "DRY" ONLY.

Santa Ana W.C.T.U. Opens a War on Street "Ads." of Liquors.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA ANA, Jan. 30.—The local W.C.T.U. has opened a war against the advertisement of liquors on billboards in this city. A formal petition asking the City Trustees to forbid the practice by ordinance was presented at last night's meeting in the following language:

"Inasmuch as the voters of Santa Ana have twice outlawed the liquor traffic, we, the members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, respectfully call the attention of the City Council to the fact that Los Angeles liquor dealers are advertising their goods on the public billboards of Santa Ana, a privilege not allowed our own citizens. Believing this practice to be an insult to the judgment and authority of our voters, we protest against it and petition the City Council to immediately prepare an ordinance making it impossible for any person to use the public billboards of Santa Ana to advertise liquor sold in other places."

The petition was referred to the committee on police.

SANTA ANA.

CITY ASSESSMENT SEPARATE.

SANTA ANA, Jan. 30.—The new plan of assessing the city property and collecting taxes by separate city officers instead of through the agency of the County Assessor and Tax Collector, was formally inaugurated by the City Trustees last night in the appointment of R. L. Freeman as City Assessor and Marshal Maxwell as Tax Collector. The salary for the Assessor is fixed at $250 per month for May, June and July and $90 per month for the rest of the year. The Tax Collector's salary is $60 per month.

OVATION TO MODJESKA.

Every seat at the Grand Operahouse was taken last night when Mme. Helena Modjeska appeared as Lady Macbeth. Her interpretation of the part was received with the hearty applause of the audience, and she was recalled repeatedly. At the close of the third act many floral offerings were given to her, and at the close of the sleep-walking scene, she appeared on the stage in response to repeated calls from the house and spoke the following words to her friends here: "Kind friends, I thank you very, very much for the kind reception you have given me on this, my last, appearance in Santa Ana, for I shall not play on the stage here again. All I can say to you is, my best wishes go with you and God bless you."

Ernest C. Phillips of Tustin, who joined the company at San Francisco, took the part of Ross, evoking much local interest from the fact that he was personally known to practically every one of the big audience.

SANTA ANA JOTTINGS.

The newly-organized Civic Improvement Association of Santa Ana has issued a call for a general meeting at the City Hall Friday evening to consider ways and means of accomplishing the object of the organization in the creation of "The City Beautiful."

Miss Myrtle Stephenson and Frank C. Thompson, popular young people of Orange, were married this afternoon at the home of the bride's uncle, M. V. Adams. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. N. Glover of the First Christian Church of Orange in the presence of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will make their home at Orange.

Rev. William E. Blair, district superintendent for the Children's Home Society of California, has removed his headquarters to Redlands.

E. H. Springer of Los Angeles and Mrs. E. M. Thomas of Sawtelle were married in this city yesterday evening by Justice Smithwick.

HUNTINGTON BEACH.

GIRL WOUNDED BY RIFLE.

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sarah Elesala, a 11-year-old girl living at Talbert, was wounded by the accidental discharge of a rifle this afternoon. She was attempting to withdraw the load when it went off, taking effect in the elbow. The wound may permanently cripple the arm, but it is not otherwise regarded as a serious one.

LIGHTS TURNED ON.

The electric lighting plant, installed here by the Huntington Beach Company at a cost of $30,000, was in operation last night. The engines in the power plant are operated with distillate produced in Southern California, and the engines themselves were furnished by a Los Angeles concern. The official test of the plant last night was attended by all the members of the company and their wives.

BIGGER SITE FOR PLAYGROUND.

NERVOUS PEOPLE'S FEARS HELP RIVERSIDE YOUNGSTERS.

Chamber of Commerce Chooses West Riverside Man for Secretary. Lordly Jap is Laid Low by Gas Pipe in the Hands of a Colored Man—Chases Sue Citrus Union.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RIVERSIDE, Jan. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Owing to the opposition of some people who feared that the children would disturb their peace, S. C. Evans has changed the site of the park offered as a free gift for the perpetual benefit of the children of Riverside.

The donor has traded the two blocks between Cedar and Locust and Second and Fourth streets, containing five acres, for the ten-acre tract just south of Fourteenth street and off Brockton avenue.

Owing to the opposition of nervous people, the youngsters get twice the room and as good a location, so far as distance from the center of the city is concerned. It is understood that the trustees will accept the proffer at the next meeting of the board.

CHAMBER CHOOSES SECRETARY.

The Chamber of Commerce today elected Herman Charles of West Riverside to succeed George L. Winterbotham, resigned. The election has been pending since January 2.

GAS PIPE WOUNDS JAP.

With lordly style L. S. Kusumato, major domo of the household of Charles H. Low, near Arlington, undertook to order things around the kitchen where Amos Wiley's wife, a colored woman, was employed as cook.

When the woman got tired of the Jap's interference, she rushed to the stable, where her husband is employed as coachman. The latter arrived on the scene, and with a piece of gas pipe, proceeded to treat the Jap for swell-headedness.

It required several stitches to close the Jap's wounds. Kusumato refused to swear out a warrant, but Mr. Low discharged the whole force for their peculiar methods of domestic discipline.

CHASES SUE CITRUS UNION.

The National Orange Company, composed of the Chase family, today sued for an injunction against the California Citrus Union to restrain it from shipping fruit in boxes marked with the brand of the National Orange Company, or from using fruit wrappers with their trade-mark on them. The Citrus Union was formerly the shipper for the Chases, who have recently opened a packing-house of their own, and the union has on hand a great number of boxes and wrappers of the National Orange Company. The injunction is asked to prevent the use of this stock.

CORONA.

ONLY PASSENGER SURVIVES.

CORONA, Jan. 30.—Caught in Saturday's wreck on the Santa Fé near Yorba and later rescued alive and uninjured was the perilous fate of the only passenger on freight train No. 33. Sunday, while clearing away a carload of household goods which was completely demolished, a box was found containing a thoroughly frightened pussy, evidently some one's pet being moved with the goods. Tabby, still in possession of her traditional nine lives, was removed to a near-by lodging until the arrival of her owner.

I Have Never Failed to Cure

My method of examining and treating men who have varicocele, weakness, stricture or any contracted disease, is so thorough, scientific and careful that rapid and permanent cures are always the result.

Of the thousands of cases I have treated, I have never failed to restore diseased men to a healthy, vigorous, normal and robust condition.

I have succeeded in every single instance, because I personally treat each patient with all the skill I possess.

This skill I have acquired by hard study, close application and years of practice.

If you become one of my many patients a complete restoration to health will prove the value of my methods, which have always produced permanent cures, no matter how chronic the case.

NOTICE

ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE PUBLIC

Owing to the favorable criticism and many inquiries received by us from the medical profession and others interested regarding our statement that the so-called weakness of man is not a weakness, but symptoms of inflammation of the prostate gland (neck of the bladder) caused by contracted disorders and early dissipation, and the loss of vitality, prematureness, etc., are invariably cured by procedures directed toward correcting this inflammation, we wish to state to these many inquiries, in the columns of the press, that it takes approximately ten weeks to cure these disorders of the male. The treatment is entirely a local one, as no drugging of the stomach is necessary, and that the patient may treat himself at home under our directions. The effect of this treatment is not only gratifying, but immediate, and the patient is not discouraged by waiting too long for tangible results. We will cheerfully explain the treatment to any interested person on request.

OUR FEE $12.50

We Wait for Our Pay Until Patient is Cured.

We cure Varicocele, Hydrocele, Specific Blood Poison, Stricture, Piles, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, and all Complicated and Chronic Diseases of MEN ONLY.

Contracted Disorders

Every case of contracted disorders we treat is thoroughly cured. Our patients have no relapses. When we pronounce a case cured, there is not a particle of infection or inflammation remaining, and there is not the slightest danger that the disease will return in its original form or work its way into the general system. No contracted disease is so trivial as to warrant uncertain methods of treatment, and we specially solicit those cases that other doctors have been unable to cure.

MEN

It is a false modesty or a mistaken notion of manly dignity that compels you to suffer in silence when absolute cure is within your reach.

MEN

We Are Specialists

We do not experiment. We do not pretend. We do not try. We succeed. We accomplish. We cure. Thousands of men get only half the good out of life because they are unfit. They not only make life a burden to themselves but render it unhappy and unsatisfying for others. Many are the causes that lead to this condition. Blood taints, stricture, varicocele, hydrocele, badly treated disorders, imperfectly cured private diseases, inherent or developed weakness of the nerve forces, low vitality induced by long hours, sedentary occupations or reckless dissipation. Any of these causes may result in a condition that robs life of half its pleasure.

You Don't Have to Suffer

You don't need to wait. It is not necessary to drag along that way. If you but make the proper inquiry you can find the right specialist and discard the wrong one. It is a vital matter and not a case for so-called "treatment," but for effective cure and restoration.

We are located in modern up-to-date office building, with surroundings business-like and attractive. We have five handsome rooms. You need see nobody but your own attending specialist. We are expert scientists in the special cure of men's ailments and nothing else. We excel in that one thing because we have the practice, the training and the knowledge.

We Will Gladly Advise You Free of Charge

If you are out of town write, but don't write if you can call. Many cases submit readily to expert treatment by mail, but we prefer a personal examination whenever possible. It is free. Our charges are lower than any others compared with the high character of the results we accomplish.

Thorough Cures

The cure of disease is a matter of full understanding as to the nature of the disorder and the action of the remedies upon it. In most instances the proper treatment is apparent to the physician so skilled as to be able to detect the exact conditions underlying an ailment. An accurate diagnosis is more than half the cure, for it makes plain the thing that must be done in order to effect a cure. If the delay of these things is a possibility there is no excuse for failure.

Epilepsy

Fits

St. Vitus Dance

Are nerve diseases, and unless checked, lead to destruction of both mind and body. The weak, shattered nerves must have something to strengthen and build them back to health. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is a remarkable nerve tonic and stimulant. It strengthens the nerves, relieves the nervous strain, and influences refreshing body-building sleep and rest. Persistent use seldom fails to relieve these afflictions.

"I was taken with epileptic fits; had eleven in less than 12 hours. My father sent for our family physician, but he could do very little for me, and I grew worse every day, and at last they had three doctors with me, and I still got worse. My father heard of Dr. Miles' medicines and bought a bottle of Nervine and a box of Nerve and Liver Pills. I had taken only a few doses until I began to feel better. I took 12 bottles, and it cured me sound and well. It has been worth all the world to me. I recommend it wherever I go. You may use this as a life-long testimonial to the merits of your medicine, for I am enjoying the best of health, and feel that my life and health is due to this wonderful medicine." LEVY WILLIAMS.

LUNGS IN BAD SHAPE

Kept Coughing and Was Almost Given Away.

Now Entirely Well and Has Taken Out a Life Insurance Policy.

"My business as proprietor of the Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, Binghamton, N. Y.," writes Mr. Charles Babcock, "was so confining that my lungs became affected. My doctor told me I'd have to leave the house and go to work at something out doors. He said my lungs were in bad shape, and I knew it just as well as he did. The trouble had been getting on me for a long time. Like many other people, I tried to make myself believe the trouble was not in my lungs. I called it stomach trouble or nervous disorder, but I kept coughing and spitting and wasting away right along. I lost in weight, falling from 140 to 115 pounds. Some time or other, I got hold of Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, and after taking it according to directions, I was as well and strong a man in New York State. I am now healthier and stronger than before, and took the cold which came near killing me. I now weigh 150 pounds, ten pounds more than ever. After discovering, I applied for a life insurance policy. When the doctor began examining me, I was afraid he would discover that my lungs had once been affected, but he didn't. I passed all right and was pronounced a first-class condition. If that isn't one of the most positive kind of proof that Dr. Acker's English Remedy is a good medicine, I don't know what is. I give it my warmest endorsement. My address is given below. Anyone who wishes may write me personally about my case."

If any of our readers who have trouble of any kind have ever applied for life insurance, they know how quickly they were rejected. Yet one of the most severe tests of consumptive can be put to. After Mr. Babcock was told by the physicians that his lungs were in bad shape, he was so thoroughly cured by Dr. Acker's English Remedy that the closest examination failed to discover the slightest trace of any trouble with the lungs. We do not know of any stronger proof of our claim that Acker's Grand Old Remedy. If you have a cough Dr. Acker's English Remedy will cure it at once, thus preventing the certain deadly results that are intended to promptly. Dr. Acker's English Remedy will cure any case of Throat or Lung trouble. It will do it by the action of the lungs and through the entire system.

In order to strengthen these statements and to remove any doubt as to the truly medicinal properties of Dr. Acker's English Remedy, we have instructed every druggist to refund your money if it does not give you back your money in every particular. Try it to-day.

A Timely Word

We have been treating men in Los Angeles for 12 years, and never during that time have we been obliged to publish a half price fee in order to get business. Our plan has always been to make a thorough examination strictly free of charge and then give our patient the lowest possible price for curing his case and let the patient decide whether or not he wants us to take his case for treatment.

Varicocele

Every man havin varicocele can be cured, but any and every external application—medicines internally, electricity, electric belts—ARE ALL ABSOLUTELY WORTHLESS. There is but one method that will cure varicocele. Dr. Harrison is the only specialist in Los Angeles using that method. Dr. Harrison guarantees an absolute, permanent and perfect cure. We will show dozens of men right here in Los Angeles we have cured. We cordially invite men to call.

Contracted Disorders

Are cured by us. Every particle of poison thoroughly eradicated from the system. Every patient coming to us consults no one but Dr. Harrison or his associate, both regular physicians. Each and every man coming to us for consultation has his case carefully and understandingly looked into. Every case we treat receives our personal attention.

"Weakness"

Affections of men commonly described as "weakness," according to our observations, are not such, but depend upon reflex disturbances, and are almost invariably induced or maintained by appreciable damage to the prostate gland. As this may not be perceived by the patient, it is very frequently overlooked by the physician.

If you come to us we will give you consultation absolutely free and truthfully tell you if you can be cured.

[NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.]

TELL CHARMS OF ALTADENA.

PASADENA SUBURB TO PUBLISH HER ATTRACTIONS.

Committee is Appointed to Devise Plans for a Campaign for Publicity. Uphill Automobile Races Being Planned for Washington's Birthday—Police After Woman Vender.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. 24 South Raymond Avenue, Jan. 30. Altadena, the pretty foothill settlement lying immediately north of Pasadena, is going to publish her charms to the world. At a meeting of some of the wealthiest property holders of the suburb, held at Hotel Green yesterday afternoon, it was decided that steps will be taken to advertise Altadena in a widespread way. Hereafter wealthy and pretty Altadena has been too modest to permit any systematic advertising, but it is agreed now that this is to be done in a thorough and persistent manner. At the meeting yesterday a committee was appointed to take up this matter, and also to seek a plan to regulate the pricing of lands offered for sale, and to act on the question of shade trees on the streets. Most of the lots there are large and are permitted to grow with all the luxuriance that comes from the California sunshine. As a result the beautiful view of mountain and valley is almost shut out in many places. One of the main objects of the committee is to see if some plan cannot be arranged whereby the rank growth of the trees will be kept within bounds by systematic trimming, and to make a study of trees that will be suitable for the streets of the foothill town.

Those are the men named on the committee: L. M. Pratt, Col. G. G. Green, Frank J. Allen, P. J. McNally and Frank J. Schmitz. This committee will also make an effort to secure better rates on the Pacific Electric, as the supposedly high rates are held to be the most important drawback to the rapid development of the suburb. The rate is now 10 cents each way from Pasadena, with a commuters' rate of 4 cents each way. A 5-cent fare will be sought.

AFTER HUMANE OFFICIALS.

Today may witness the issuance of warrants for the arrest of Lloyd Sharp, vice-president of the Pasadena Humane Society, and Walter Gillette, a deputy sheriff holding authority under the organization, on charges of cruelty to animals under their alleged care. This surprising state of affairs has grown out of the recent arrest of Walter Simons of the Simons Brick Company, it being charged that one of his horses was lame and sore. Last night Simons said that his brother "Joe" of Los Angeles will come to Pasadena today, and then the warrants will be asked for.

Some of the humanitarians have openly declared that the Simons brothers will be unable to secure warrants against the humane officers, though on the other hand, the Simons brothers aver that their complaint is in fact, and that their witnesses are many and so responsible, that they do not have the slightest difficulty in getting warrants.

There has long been ill-feeling between some of the officers of the society and Walter Simons, and he declares that he is being "persecuted." It is known that the Simons brothers are preparing to make a hot fight against Macy. As told heretofore, Messrs. Macy and Walter Gillette are interested in the Oak Knoll ranch, where about a hundred mules are at work in grading, and the Simons brothers assert that these mules have been in "deplorable condition."

AUTO RACES UP-HILL.

Superintendent of Streets Beyer said this evening that a large quantity of decomposed granite has been placed on Los Robles avenue between Washington street and Woodbury road, in preparation for the auto races scheduled to take place on Washington's birthday. The decomposed granite will be sprinkled, pressed and rolled so that the road will be like a boulevard. The races are expected to be of the exciting kind, and the course is somewhere over three miles, and all up a long grade. The starting point will be at Villa street on Los Robles, and the end up near the mountains. At Altadena. During the races all traffic will be kept off the course and all of the way will be thoroughly policed to avoid accidents. There are to be many visitors from Los Angeles and other cities, and it is expected that the races will attract much attention. A speed of from fifty to seventy miles an hour will probably be made by the big machines on the uphill course.

"BLIND PIG" CASES.

James Calombini, one of the San Fernando road "blind piggers," pleaded guilty before Justice Klamroth yesterday afternoon and was fined $100. Cash was paid. He is the fourth one of the San Fernando road-house men to plead guilty and pay his fine.

Frank Williams, who was arrested by the Pasadena police Monday on the charge of running a blind pig in his pool hall in North Raymond, failed to appear in police court yesterday and his bail of $100 was declared forfeited by Judge Wood.

HOTELS FILLED.

Pasadena's big hotels are all well filled. Last night Gen. Wentworth, of Hotel Raymond, said that this hostelry was filled with one of the most "stunning" crowds that the Raymond has had in its history. On the register are names of many people who are from the country over, and they come from every State in the East. It is having an unusual vogue at the Raymond this season, and many dinner parties are played. A gentleman's match ends today, and ladies' match will be begun in a day or two.

GASOLINE MOTOR TRIP.

One of the new gasoline motor cars of the Southern Pacific is experimenting with made a run to Pasadena this afternoon from Los Angeles, and the big and odd-looking car attracted much attention here. Those in charge of the motor said the trip to Pasadena was highly satisfactory, and that everything seems to be going well with the new car.

SELLS "REAL OLD LACE."

The police were notified yesterday of a woman who is industriously going from house to house in the northern part of the city selling "old lace." She describes the lace that she offers for sale as being "genuine Irish lace" of exceedingly rare and costly kind, but the police say that it is the kind of lace that can be purchased in the department stores for about 8 cents a yard. Yesterday the police officers were trying to find the lace woman, but they had already come and gone.

SAY PLAY IS WORK.

Students at the High School are having an exciting time over the question of the coming class play. For a long time it has been the custom of the graduating class to give a play, but it is said that the boys and girls are divided mind on the matter. Some of the talented ones who naturally would be expected to take part are asserting that the play is all work, and that they think the graduating "exams" give them enough to do without adding to their burdens. Three votes have been taken already, but the question does not seem to be settled.

CROWN VALLEY NOTES.

E. J. Baldwin of Arcadia, is still the lucky one. Efforts to compromise the chariot race on New Year's Day have failed, and the Tournament of Roses Association announced yesterday that the first prize of $1000 will be paid over to C. C. West, who drove for "Lucky" Baldwin. West was charged with having fouled Ed T. Off's four, and it is said that Off will bring the matter into the courts.

W. B. McCormick, who could have sold his Pasadena properties for $80,000 during the "boom" days, and later left here for Honolulu practically "broke," was in the city yesterday. He met many old-time friends. While Mr. McCormick is reputed to have lost his all during the "boom," he is now the owner of a rich pineapple ranch near Honolulu. He used to own the Durand place on Arlington Court.

Examinations will begin in all the classes of the High School tomorrow.

Assemblyman J. A. Goodrich announced positively yesterday that he will not be a candidate for reelection.

Benjamin B. Wilson, residing at No. 831 East Walnut street, who is 72 years of age, and Miss Emma Webster, aged 63 years, are to be married Thursday.

Because Mayor Waterhouse and City Attorney FitzGerald wished to be present at the trial of Margaret C. Graham versus the Pasadena Land and Water Company in the Superior Court in Los Angeles yesterday, the regular weekly session of the City Council was postponed to Thursday. It is probable the trial will last several days.

Members of the Los Angeles Optical Association held their monthly business meeting in this city last night by invitation. There are one or two Pasadena members. The visitors were entertained at a dinner at Hotel Maryland given in their honor by J. Herbert Hall.

The Hawkeye Club of Pasadena, parent society of the Southern California Iowa Society, will hold its first meeting of the year, Thursday evening. A programme of interest will be given, including an address by Col. J. J. Steadman, of Hollywood, and others. All Hawkeyes, either citizens or tourists, are invited.

Mr. Frank Deardorf's entire collection of rare Chinese and Japanese art objects, at 62 South Raymond avenue, opposite Hotel Green, Pasadena, will be sold at auction, beginning February 1, 1906, and continuing daily at 10:30 and 2:30. This should not be confounded with an ordinary sale of purely commercial Japanese goods, selected for a special purpose. Not one of the upward of 25,000 objects in this collection was sought out with any other view than to anticipate the approval and admiration of connoisseurs.

OCEAN PARK.

NO TRACE OF MISS BROWN.

OCEAN PARK, Jan. 30.—No tidings having come from the missing Miss Jennie Brown, who disappeared Saturday night from the family home on Main street, the relatives and friends of the family are gradually accepting the belief that the unfortunate woman must have destroyed herself. They fear that in a temporary fit of insanity she wandered to some near-by pier and cast herself into the sea. Not one track or trace has been seen of her since she went into her room.

The bid of the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Company for the construction of the bulkheads on Short Line Beach was the lowest one received by the City Trustees, the price being $8.49 per lineal foot. The contract is to be closed at once and, by securing the heavy timbers from San Pedro, the work can be completed within a month and a half. This is the construction planned to preserve the ocean frontage and beach houses from injury by the high tides that have recently been ripping the beach.

The Country Club directors are working up interest in a Valentine ball to be given at the Country Club quarters on February 14.

Coronado $700 polo trophy.

SANTA MONICA.

MOTOR CAR'S QUICK RUN.

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 30.—The Union Pacific's gasoline motor car made a test run today from Los Angeles over the Southern Pacific tracks to this city and from here out to the long wharf, where the steamers land. With no effort whatever to break any records, the run was made from Los Angeles in thirty minutes. At the Palms and all the way en route the new car was the object of much curious interest, enranced no doubt by the oft-recurring rumor that these cars are soon to be the vehicle of rapid transit between the city and this beach in the steam road's endeavor to regain its lost hold on the immense passenger business that has been developed during recent years between tide water and Los Angeles.

The real estate flurry on Utah avenue is said to have been occasioned by the well-authenticated rumor of the Southern Pacific's intention to enter Santa Monica along that street with a new short-cut road for its projected motor-car service.

SEASHORE RUMBLINGS.

The School Trustees at their meeting last night finally adopted the plans for three new schoolhouses. All are to be of brick construction. Bids will be solicited at once and work will begin as soon as the contracts are let.

The City Trustees last night granted to M. R. King a permit for the erection of a pavilion on the ocean front between Pier avenue and Marine street. Work is already in progress on the structure, which will stand on piling partly over the sea. It will be devoted to pleasure purposes and will be operated in connection with the circular pier.

Benjamin Van Tress died at the family home on Utah avenue this morning of consumption. He was a native of Ohio and 26 years of age.

CATALINA ISLAND.

FINDS COSTLY WATCH.

AVALON, Jan. 30.—George W. Langdon of New York, who has been staying at the Metropole for a week or so, was out goat shooting yesterday and lost a valuable watch. On his return from the chase he put Mexican Joe on his track and offered him $50 if he would find and return the time-piece which he valued at $500. Joe started early this morning and returned at 2:20 p.m. to find that a lady, Mrs. W. L. Wright of Tallahassee, Fla., had been more successful than he and had picked up the watch on the stage road last evening. Mexican Joe got $50 just the same.

The Banning Company has prepared a combination ticket for the convenience of sightseers, which will enable tourists to take in the salient points of interest here without trouble or annoyance. The ticket reads: "Avalon wharf to Island Mountain Railway" (via coach;) "Avalon to Lover's Cove" (via Island Mountain Railway;) "Lover's Cove to Avalon wharf" (via glass bottom boat;) and "Good for one admission to Aquarium."

Oscar Vanderbilt, for many years connected with the passenger department of the Northern Pacific Railway, but now turning his attention to raising apples on Hood River, Wash., is here with his wife.

Mrs. M. H. Zier of Pasadena, Mrs. S. H. Knight and Mr. and Mrs. George Belden of Minneapolis are guests at the Metropole.

Mr. and Mrs. William Button, of Arizona are at the Metropole, guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fletcher.

Coronado auto run a success.

SOUTH PASADENA.

VITAL INTEREST IN SUIT.

SOUTH PASADENA, Jan. 30.—The citizens of South Pasadena are greatly interested in the outcome of the suit of Mrs. Margaret Collier Graham of this city against the Pasadena Land and Water Company. This case has been before the courts for years but has been postponed time and again. The hearing began this morning in Department Four of the Superior Court. South Pasadena is almost wholly dependent upon Pasadena proper, for water and in the recent troubles with the great systems, there has been great fear of a scarcity of water, here. A successful issue of Mrs. Graham's case will insure an abundance of water to the city.

SOUTH PASADENA BRIEFS.

Another High School Bond election has been called for February 23. At the last election the project was lost by three votes. A. P. Gilbert will be the election judge, with A. F. Hershe and J. J. Young as inspectors.

The revival meetings held by Evangelist Martin of the Pasadena Christian Church are being well attended. Many converts are reported.

LONG BEACH.

LONG BEACH, Jan. 30.—The unknown who committed suicide at the end of the wharf on the morning of December 23, was today identified by Officer Smith of Los Angeles, through comparison of photographs as J. A. Gandion of No. 739 Wall street, Los Angeles. Gandion left home at 10 o'clock December 22, saying he was going to San Diego. He left his keys with Mrs. Miller, a next door neighbor. After he had been absent several days she wired to his son, L. D. Gandion of the Clark, Gandion Company, No. 102 Phelan Building, San Francisco. The son wired to San Diego and then to Los Angeles, with the result that Officer Smith came here today. Gandion was a Frenchman and was 64 years of age.

ASKS WHARF FRANCHISE.

At an adjourned meeting of the City Trustees this afternoon, the National Lumber Company asked that a franchise be offered for sale for a commercial wharf and pier at West Long Beach. The frontage asked for is the old Whiting Lumber Company's wharf and is 81 feet long and is held under lease from the Salt Lake road. It begins at a point just west of the second water tank west of Terminal station. The pier will be directly opposite the lumber yard whence tracks will be constructed across the Salt Lake tracks to the yards on the south bank of the river opposite Mormon Island. The franchise runs for twenty years, calls for a rental of 2 per cent. of the gross earnings after five years, and will be sold to the highest bidder on March 5.

ALONG SHORE BREAKERS.

The Methodist congregation, realising that their property at Sixth and Pine is too valuable for church purposes, has secured an option on the northwest corner of Fifth and Pacific. The lot is 150x150, and has on it three fine residences. It is valued at $34,000. The valuation of the present site is $50,000. A stock company will be organized to buy the new site and carry it until the old church property is disposed of advantageously.

Department Commander Russell and staff were the honored guests of the local G.A.R. post and ladies' auxiliaries tonight at the auditorium, which was filled with people. Music by the Marine Band and speeches by Mayor Eno, Dr. L. A. Perce and T. W. Lincoln, and songs by J. W. Patterson and W. C. Bonner, and an exhibition drill by Company H were the features.

The Illinois Society of Long Beach will give its first reunion and banquet on February 12, Lincoln's birthday, at the sun parlor, Dr. L. A. Perce, born in Sangamon county, will act as toastmaster. The registers opened ten days ago now contain over 300 names.

The ladies' auxiliary of the Sons of Veterans want a plat of ground in the city park for a monument to the unknown dead. In Memorial Day exercises heretofore they have used a flimsy makeshift of wood and canvas, and they want something lasting. The request will probably be granted.

The Harbor Committee of the Chamber of Commerce has indorsed the unobstructed passage of Cerritos Slough, and will assist H. S. Canver in his suit to compel the Salt Lake road to maintain a draw bridge on their line over this waterway.

The new city directoly just issued shows 5449 names. On the compiler's estimate, of 4 to 1, the population of Long Beach is 21,796, compared with last year, the income is 25 per cent.

Word was received from Admiral Goodrich this morning that the Pacific Squadron will stop at Long Beach early in April.

Seals are ruining the fishing about the wharf. In the past month, Wharfinger Bealtge has shot fourteen of them, but with no apparent diminution of their numbers.

J. M. Bartley, accused of violating the liquor ordinance, was found guilty by a jury today in Recorder Chapman's court.

HOLLYWOOD.

TOWN'S NEED OF A JAIL.

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 30.—The need of a jail in Hollywood, a lack that has been felt before, was emphasized last evening when Charlie Dixon, a gardener employed by J. Stern, went home intoxicated and attacked his wife with a knife, threatening to kill her. He threw her down and sat on her. Neighbors went to her rescue and called Officers Fry and Reyes, who were unable to take the man away because there was no lockup. To take him to Los Angeles would require a warrant, an impossibility in view of the fact that Justice Herndon was in Sawtelle and no other available. Dixon accordingly was left in his room and his wife was taken to the home of Rev. A. E. Stellar. Dixon skipped out this morning.

MARRIED ON THE QUIET.

The marriage of Miss Fausta Koehler to Howard Splane at Riverside last Friday has just become known to the friends of the young people in Hollywood, the home of both. The young people returned to Hollywood without informing their friends of their marriage.

SAN DIMAS.

SEEK BAD CHECK MAN.

SAN DIMAS, Jan. 30.—The police of San Bernardino and Los Angeles counties are hunting for a man supposed to be named Robert Allison. On Saturday evening a young man walked into the San Dimas Pharmacy and made a purchase of gauze and other supplies amounting to $2, stating that his brother was hurt and needed these things at once, but being unable to raise the $2 he tendered the druggist a check, supposed to have been drawn by D. N. Young of Pomona, on the First National Bank of Pomona, in favor of Robert Allison, for $18.35, and in the corner was written "In full for services to date on the Palomares Ranch."

After questioning the man and feeling satisfied that he was telling a straight story, the druggist gave him the change, $16.35.

Today the check was returned from the bank. The name of Mr. Young had been forged.

Last Friday evening the same man entered the drug store of Dr. Vredenburgh at Chino, told the same plausible story of a brother hurt, made the same kind of purchase, and tendered a similar check purporting to be signed by D. N. Young on the First National Bank of Pomona, in favor of Robert Allison for $18.35, "in full for services to date on the Palomares Ranch."

Dr. Vredenburgh also questioned the man, was satisfied with what he thought was a straightforward story, and he, too, has now charged $16.35 to "experience account."

Mr. Young says that he does not know Allison. There is no property about here or Pomona known as the Palomares ranch.

DEATH OF J. LUTHER TORREY.

J. Luther Torrey died suddenly at his home here today, aged 78. He removed to Southern California eighteen years ago. He leaves a widow, three sons and five daughters.

SAN PEDRO.

U.S.S. PERRY COMING.

SAN PEDRO, Jan. 30.—Lieut. Freeman, commanding the U.S.S. Perry, has written a letter to S. M. Stover, of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, stating that the Perry will leave Santa Barbara on next Thursday morning for San Pedro, where she will remain until February 5.

The visit of Lieut. Freeman will be for the purpose of recruiting a number of athletic young men for service in Uncle Sam's navy. Visitors will be allowed and welcomed on the vessel on Saturday and Sunday.

LORDSBURG.

TOP NOTCH FOR ORANGES.

LORDSBURG, Jan. 30.—The highest price realized for navel oranges in the eastern markets yesterday, as published in today's Times, is for the fruit shipped by Valentine Peyton from his Lordsburg packing-house. New York paid $3.05 per box and Philadelphia $3 per box. This house, which is a new one, recently built by Mr. Peyton, has only been running a month and all the fruit shipped has realized good prices. E. T. Keiser, the manager, is receiving the congratulations of the growers on his record. The fruit which goes through this house is sold by a Los Angeles man, and is not pooled with others; each grower gets what his own fruit sells for.

WHITTIER.

HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER HURT.

WHITTIER, Jan. 30.—Miss Mary C. Meredith, of the High School faculty, while riding down Philadelphia street at noon today, was thrown from her wheel and painfully injured. A strong wind was blowing at her back and by the time Comstock avenue was reached she was unable to turn, as she had intended, but ran against the brick wall of the building on the northwest corner of Philadelphia street and Comstock avenue. She was picked up unconscious, and investigation showed a severe scalp wound and a sprained wrist, besides several bruises about the body.

SUPERVISORS VISIT.

County Supervisors Brady and Alexander will visit Whittier Wednesday for the purpose of inspecting the roads in the vicinity. They will be driven over the route by the Board of Trade.

"Hotel del Coronado" always leads.

MOUNTAIN FOOTNOTES.

SIERRA MADRE, Jan. 30.—M. Howland and party of ten of Los Angeles spent Sunday at the Quarterway House and Camp Pahl.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eldridge and two sons, of Chicago, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson Saturday. Matthias Wall, of Oakland, who came to California in 1849, is also a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

Miss Silver H. Davis, of New York, is a guest of Mrs. Williamson and Miss Alice Lockwood.

Mrs. Mary Darling and son Kenneth of Claremont are spending a few days' vacation in this village. They were former residents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Close of Pomona are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bixby and family.

Mrs. John Nicholls and daughter have taken a cottage here, as have also J. P. Cavanaugh and S. C. King. They are all from Los Angeles.

Rev. Mr. Case of Los Angeles, general superintendent of the Congregational Sunday-schools of Southern California and Arizona, spoke at the Congregational Church Sunday morning.

Dr. Gaskell and wife, son and daughter of Michigan have taken the Ross cottage for a year's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, formerly of New York, are guests of Hotel Sierra Madre.

The farmers are harvesting a big pea crop, for which they get fancy prices.

GASOLINE PUMPING ENGINE

Luitwieler Pumping Engines are in use from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Canadian boundary to the City of Mexico—Gasoline, Steam and Electric Pumping Engines.

They save 60 per cent. over direct-acting steam pumps, 70 per cent. over deep-well steam pumps, 70 per cent. over single-acting crank pumps, 25 per cent. over double-acting crank pumps, 40 to 60 per cent. over centrifugal pumps, 70 to 80 per cent. over air-lift pumps and 15 per cent. over triplex pumps.

The largest railroad companies in the United States use Luitwieler pumping engines. Water companies and manufacturing companies use them. Some Eastern water companies are changing over their entire plants to the Luitwieler system of pumping.

If you are using pumps constantly, we can prove to your satisfaction that it will pay you to give your old pumps to the junk man. We will prove this by a test with any make of pump that you can select, making the test on your own work. After the test we will sell you our pumping engine at the same price asked for the inferior machine as a cash payment, and you can pay us the difference in price in monthly installments out of the saving we make you.

Luitwieler Pumping Engines are indorsed by the best hydraulic engineers in the United States. Call and see our pumping engines in operation or write for catalogue.

Well-known San Francisco men testify to the wonderful merits of

Nau's Dyspepsia Cure

Honest John Delaney, located for 37 years at 1400 Market streets, says: "I have been a very sick man for 20 years with stomach trouble, vomited twice a day during this time; had terrible pains in the pit of the stomach. Since commencing on have not vomited. It relieved me at once; have taken quite a few bottles and I consider myself perfectly cured. Two friends, Mr. Crawford Ferris and Michael Burns, were also cured. Mr. Sutro, ex-mayor's son, first recommended it to me."

His friend, Mr. Crawford Ferris, 1615 Ellis street, says: "Troubled with asthma for 16 years. I have taken all kinds of medicine without any permanent effect. I must say, after I saw how it cured my friend, John Delaney, I commenced taking it about 9 months ago, and I am now entirely cured of a stomach trouble that almost killed me."

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 22d day of September, 1904.

Yesterday's Forecast and Report.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, Jan. 30.—[Reported by George E. Franklin, Local Forecaster.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 30.04; at 5 p.m., 30.05. The thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 51 and 63 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 95 per cent.; 5 p.m., 71 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., northeast, velocity 3 miles; 5 p.m., west, velocity 4 miles. Maximum temperature, 78 deg.; minimum, 48 deg. Barometer reduced to sea level.

Weather Conditions.—The area of very high pressure, with fair, cold weather, remains practically stationary over the Rocky Mountain and plateau regions. The pressure continues relatively low in Southern California, and as a result fair weather with land winds prevails south of the Tehachepi. Continued fair weather is indicated for this locality tonight and Wednesday, with the wind mostly land breezes. Cloudy weather, with southerly winds and light rain on the coast north of the Columbia River, prevails on the North Pacific Slope. The depression noted Monday morning north of Minnesota is passing slowly eastward, but no precipitation accompanies the low-pressure area in the United States, as far as reported.

Forecasts.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair tonight and Wednesday; wind mostly light northeast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—Weather conditions and general forecast. There has been but little change in pressure over the western half of the country. Afternoon temperatures in California range from 54 deg. to 74 deg. Wednesday will be fair over the greater portion of the State. Forecast:

San Francisco and vicinity: Fair Wednesday, with increasing cloudiness; cooler; light east wind.

Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair Wednesday; light northeast winds, changing to westerly.

Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys: Fair Wednesday; light west wind.

Coast: Fair Wednesday; light east winds.

Nevada: Fair Wednesday.

Local bank clearings yesterday, for the first time in a week, ran slightly over an average at $1,868,991.40, an increase of $750,000 over a year ago, and nearly as large an increase over two years ago.

The new national bank at Glendale, opened about two months ago, is making money. The financial reporter knows it, for he saw a five-dollar bill made by that young institution.

The speculative stock market in New York yesterday was exceedingly ragged, frayed out at the edges at nearly every point, with a very large amount of liquidation going on as the prices fluctuated.

Cotton showed a little more steadiness in the different markets, but broadstuffs seemed to tend to weaker points day by day. A very general impression seems to be at the present time that while American farmers are entirely well able to hold their wheat, the choice lies between doing thata nd allowing the competition of Canadian and Argentine wheat, which are offered at much lower prices than the American farmer seems willing to take for his crops. Russia has again become a very free seller of wheat, which, of course, tends to weaken the situation very materially. Much more than half the crop year on the North American continent has passed, and we stand now within five months of a new crop, with an enormous surplus carried on the farms and in the elevators.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Trading at the produce market yesterday was very quiet, as is to be expected the last of the month, but dealers had no complaint to make, and prices were firmly held. The outlook for February is as good as could be hoped for under the existing conditions, and with the increasing population, owing to the heavy tourist travel, all records for the month should be broken.

Local ranch eggs were in moderate receipt yesterday, and under a steady demand the upward tendency of the market continued unchecked. Prices for all grades were advanced, the official quotation of fresh offerings being 27@28 cents for the day. Jobbers of eggs are now forecasting a 30-cent market for the latter part of the week. One dealer stated yesterday that in looking over the egg quotations of last year, he found that the price of fresh ranch eggs never went lower than 28 cents at any time during the month of January, but for February and March the prices declined rapidly under the heavy receipts.

There was nothing new in butter or cheese, and market conditions remained precisely the same as was reported on the previous day.

There was a firm tone in the fresh fruit market and the large sizes of navel oranges were in keen request. Apples sold fairly well at steady prices.

With the usual dullness incident to the end of the month, potatoes and onions were devoid of new features. Northern fancy Early Rose was firmer at 1.90 per cwt.

Receipts of vegetables continued light and first quality offerings of all descriptions cleaned up readily at steady prices.

Large fish, lobsters, crabs and wild game was plentiful, but small fish were scarce.

The receipts of produce as reported at yesterday's exchange were as follows: Eggs, 1700 cases; butter, 28,995 lbs.; cheese, 7213 lbs.; potatoes, 2530 sacks; onions, 601 sacks; beans, none; sweet potatoes, 5 sacks.

NEW YORK MARKETS.
SHARES AND MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The stock market broke badly late in the day after a series of mutations of speculative sentiment which did not carry prices far from last night's level in either direction. This state of uncertainty lasted until the beginning of the final hour, when stocks began suddenly to stream onto the market from all directions at once, as though by concerted agreement. No developments to account for the movement was lacking. It was generally attributed to growing distrust of the technical position of the market and to the growing boldness of an aggressive bear party which has been built up in the market in the last few days. This party was credited with a large part of the heavy selling which broke the market yesterday on the nominal grounds of alarm over the Congressional resolution of inquiry into the combination of railroads under the Pennsylvania auspices. By this morning, opinion had settled down into the feeling that yesterday's violent break in prices was largely due to a cleverly-executed strike by the bear party. While the market was showing resistance to the depression during the early part of the day speculative opinion was inclined to belittle the action of the House of Representatives on the standing of the Pennsylvania groups of railroads and the measures at Albany to investigate the State Banking Department. Some effect was produced by the tone of an interview with the president of the Great Northern Railroad asserting his conviction that the course of affairs in this country at present amounted to a consumption of the country's principal cost of living. The Russian financial situation continued to engage attention abroad and increased gold imports, of an out-go of gold from New York, but no engagements were announced. The principal operations were centered in Reading, Colorado Fuel, Union Pacific, Lead, Smelting and such stocks which had been the subject of extensive or reckless speculation in the immedite past. The rush of such orders to cover caused violent rallies at the last, which largely reduced the extent of the declines. The United States bond stocks were not much affected by the selling, and came up strongly at the last, the common rising ¾ over last night in anticipation of a favorable statement of net earnings for the quarter, to be given out late in the afternoon. Bonds were irregular; total sales, par value, $2,385,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on call.

THE DEEPEST DIVING JOB.

WONDERS IT REVEALED AT THE BOTTOM OF THE SEA.

There is Intense Silence and Gloom, Giant Crabs and Octopi Grapple With Anything Living and Devour It—Human Bodies in Wreck: Not Long Left.

[Boston Transcript:] The disaster which happened to the French vessel Sully not so very long ago when it went to the bottom not far from Saigon has afforded, says the Scientific American, the divers intrusted with examination of the submerged ship opportunities for making exhaustive and important explorations of the bottom of the sea. In these fields of subaqueous exploration special distinction has been won by a young naval engineer named De Plury, who, by the aid of an apparatus of his own invention, succeeded in reaching a depth of even more than 236 feet—a depth which had never before been attained.

De Plury has invented a kind of metal armor which affords him every protection, while by means of a special chemical combination respiration is automatically provided for. Thanks to this, he has already made more than 115 most daring descents with perfect safety. He has thus been able to discover a most marvelous world, hitherto seen by no eye but his; the sea bed is a scene of marvels combined with no small amount of tragic horrors.

"The first sensation experienced," said this intrepid diver at a recent interview with an Italian journalist, "is something like that which is felt on descending into a mine, but you soon get accustomed to it. At a depth of about nine feet medusae begin to be found in large quantities. Seen through the water, everything appears magnified, and they are apparently of enormous proportions. All recollection of the protection aorded by the glass front of the helmet is forgotten, and the first impression is that these masses of horrid flaccid and slimy medusae will adhere to your face.

"Just a little lower down, and a scintillating multitudinous shoal of small fishes is encountered, shimmering like so many strips of shining copper, or other metal, in a state of continuous vibration.

"At a depth of about 162 feet thick masses of seaweed are traversed; some of these are hairlike vegetable growths, with arms from twenty to thirty yards in length, which, with a kind of horrid vitality, wrap themselves round every part of the body. These algae constitute a grave danger, as they can easily paralyze the diver's movements and, by rising up above and around him, can weigh him down with a weight amounting to several hundred-weights—sufficient to break a rope or lifeline when hauled on.

"Below 162 feet there are small snakelike fishes of about three feet in length, and also other denizens of the deep resembling dolphins. These latter hurl themselves violently against the diver. If, as already remarked, he is somewhat young at the game, and has forgotten the protection afforded by his helmet, he is still filled with a mortal dread lest they should succeed in smashing the glass front of the helmet despite its four inches of thickness. Of course, should that occur, death would be almost instantaneous.

"Still other and worse monsters are the polpi or devilfish, who wrap their slimy tentacles round the bold explorer; but although repugnant, these monsters are cowardly, and immediately renounce their attack on coming in contact with the unfamiliar feel of the metal armor plating of my diving dress. There are also equally horrible and much more intrepid, giant crabs. Some of those I have seen have measured as much as three feet in diameter. Due to their strong shells and formidable claws, they constitute a continual menace to the safety of the diver which is by no means to be d-e spised.

"This is about all that can be said on the score of the deep-sea fauna. The deformation of fish is not very noticeable at such a small depth; by deformation I mean not only change of form, but also of character. This takes place at a depth of about 1094 yards; here their nature changes entirely, and they assume the forms and constitutional modifications necessary to enable them to bear the enormous pressure to which they are subjected at the depth where they move and have their being.

"Hitherto it has been quite impossible to obtain living specimens of these submarine creatures, as they reached the surface with their volume quadrupled, due to the reduction of pressure. All these creatures are carnivorous, and their capacious maws not infrequently serve as the tombs of unfortunate sailors whose ships have gone down, and their bodies gradually sink deeper and deeper, while the formidable pressure to which they are subjected in an increasing intensity soon smashes all their bones, and finally crushes the corpses quite flat. But enough; suffice it to say that this awful spectacle is scarcely visible after a depth of thirty feet.

"One curious fact attending these submarine explorations is afforded by the light, which forms a strange blend of green and violet, the color being a little similar to that of the caverns which are to be seen in icebergs. At a depth of thirty fathoms the light begins to get viewed through the diffusive and the incumbent water appears like a of sunash opaque globe, but—and this a rednewhat strange—when sheltered is so the rays of the sun (behind a front, for instance) the stars become rosible even at midday.

"One day, just about noon, I saw a never-to-be-forgotten sight at a depth of 129 feet. The sun was right at the zenith. The bottom upon which I stood consisted of fine white sand, and the reflection of the light upon the snowy carpet gave me the impression of standing upon a plain of molten gold. At a depth of 226 feet the obscurity is complete; at 327 feet the darkness is impenetrable, and it is necessary to have recourse to electricity for purposes of vision. I use electric lamps of 10,000 candle-power, but even these cannot diffuse their light beyond a radius of ninety feet. A most tragic spectacle is then presented by sunken vessels, broken boats, splintered hulls, gaping decks and broken masts."

No scenes of horror can be surpassed by the awful panoramas of death and disaster, which have been witnessed by Engineer de Plury in the course of his professional experience as a diver.

"In the vicinity of Ostend," he relates, "I was requested once to examine the wreck of a vessel which had sunk not long before. This was the occasion upon which I was assailed by a veritable horde of those giant crabs of which I have already spoken. They were at the time busy devouring the corpses of the dead sailors. One of these monsters seized me by the leg, which would have been crushed if squeesed by a jaw of steel, had it not been protected by the powerful armoring of my diving dress. I had a kind of sword in my hand, with which I succeeded in killing two of these monsters; the shells I still possess.

"All objects at the bottom of the sea are covered with a kind of curious powder, and a terrible gloom and silence prevails. What a scene of melancholy. The floor of the ocean is strewn with bones, not a few of them of human origin. A very singular fact which I have observed is that the sea for a certain period of time keeps bodies in a perfect state of preservation. I once visited the hull of a vessel which had gone down with all hands.

"The crew were mostly asleep at the moment when the disaster occurred, and had thus practically passed instantaneously from sleep to death. So far they had not been bitten or gnawed by any fish, as most of the hatchways were closed. The men still appeared as if asleep. There they lay, wrapped in a calm and mysterious slumber. I approached, and climbing down to the hatchways, touched one of the corpses with my hand; the flesh seemed to dissolve and vanish under my hand, leaving nothing but a grinning skeleton.

"And the treasures of the seas! Millions alone are enguifed not far from Vigo. Personally, I have never been there, but one of my men once went down there clad in the old diving dress. The unhappy man died almost directly he reached the surface again, but he had had time to see several galleons lying at the bottom, with the masts still standing and the timberwork still sound. These, of course, were some of the famous treasure ships, but I do not think it would be possible to recover them.. All metals would have been destroyed by rust by now, as they have been below water ever since 1707.

"I have seen personally the vessel which, about 1808, was conveying Napoleon's treasures to Holland, but it was wrecked en route and sank with f100,000,000 of gold on board. Of these, f56,000,000 have been recovered, but the remainder, as I have said, is still in the bottom of the ocean. The Prince of Monaco states that he has found near Cyprus a galley still full of objects of art at the bottom of the sea. This is where submarine boats will have such a great future before them, as, by their aid, we shall one day be able to explore unknown deep sea grottoes, rich in unknown forms of life, vaults full of untold wealth, and the tomb of many a poor sailor."

PLEA FOR THE METRIC SYSTEM.

ADVANTAGES OF A UNIVERSAL SYSTEM OF WEIGHTS,

Already in General Use in All Civilized Countries Except Great Britain, Russia and the United States—Its Adoption Elsewhere Attended With Little Inconvenience.

[Boston Transcript:] If all the people of the earth spoke the same language international relations would undoubtedly be freer and more cordial and the rate of human progress would be a much more rapid one than it is at present. There may be, and we believe there will, come a time when this will be brought about, but the process of reaching a common basis of human expression will be long hence. A tremendous amount of pulling down and building up, of elimination and adaptation would be involved. When it comes, if it does come, it will more likely be a matter of natural evolution than of definite convention. It will result from the steady drawing of the nations of the earth together into common interests and for a common purpose.

But if we cannot have a universal language there are certain valuable features of one that might be adopted by all civilized nations with comparatively little trouble. In other words, we might proceed within a year to employ the metric system in the transactions of daily life and in general trade, especially with foreign countries. By our ultra conservatism in this respect we are losing many of the higher privileges of life. Science tells its marvelous and ever new stories in metric terms, and with the exception of the United States, Great Britain and Russia, they are the language of business weights, measurements and calculations all over the commercial world. The press of the country touches at intervals upon the value of this proposed change and it is occasionally brought to the attention of Congress, but the inertia of conservatism has not yet been overcome and the United States, which justly claims to lead the world in most things, is lagging behind the procession in this.

The New York Herald is now bringing the old question to the front again and publishing a large amount of strong testimony, both domestic and foreign, in approval of this waiting reform. Many of the large importers and merchants in New York and other large cities are anxious for the change, while the foreign consuls and business men express surprise that we are still clinging to a system that the greater portion of the world has discarded for something better. The establishment of the metric system here might cause some confusion for a brief period, but not for long, while the present system is confusing all the time and carries unnecessary complications into our dealings with other countries. If the home market idea is to prevail exclusively it perhaps doesn't so much matter, but if we are to trade with other nations we should find our opportunities greatly broadened by the adoption of this system.

It was introduced into Brazil thirty years ago, and the use of any other system of weights and measures was prohibited by law. The children were at once taught it in the schools and in a year it was everywhere understood. Certainly we are not ready to admit that we are less responsive than the Brasilians to education influences. This system is also employed all over South America, and in the dealings of those countries and European countries with this country there has to be a translation and a retranslation of terms in doing business. The French Consul-General in New York says that if a Frenchman wants to buy a machine either in England or Germany, if the price and workmanship are practically equal, he takes the German machine because he buys it on terms that he understands. It is apparent that we are losing much foreign trade that we might get because of the arbitrary obstacles that we insist upon maintaining against the pressure of the world's opinion.

"It takes a mean man," feelingly remarked the Old Subscriber, "to keep steady company with a girl for twelve years and three months and then run away over night and marry her younger sister."

FEDERAL SUPERVISION.

Insurance Business Not Interstate Commerce, Says United States Supreme Court.

[Indianapolis News:] The President evidently is somewhat doubtful as to the power of the Federal government to regulate and control insurance companies. This is shown by the recommendation made by him in his recent message. For he advises that "Congress should also consider whether the Federal government has any power or owes any duty with respect to domestic transactions in insurance of an interstate character." If it has such power, the President thinks it should exercise it. Possibly the Federal government could provide for the chartering of insurance companies, as it has provided for the chartering of banks. But as things now stand we do not see how it could assume control over the insurance companies—except for the District of Columbia and the Territories.

While the transactions of insurance companies are, or may be, interstate, they are not commerce. The Supreme Court has, we believe, decided this point. Long ago it was held that the business of fire insurance was not interstate commerce. In a comparatively recent case, involving the status of marine insurance, which is more nearly interstate commerce than any other insurance could be, Justice White affirmed the old case, and said:

"This proposition involves an erroneous conception of what constitutes interstate commerce. That the business of insurance does not generally appertain to such commerce has been settled since the case of Paul vs. Virginia. The business of insurance is not commerce. The contract of insurance is not an instrumentality of commerce. The making of such a contract is a mere incident of commercial intercourse, and in this respect there is no difference whatever between insurance against fire and insurance against 'the perils of the sea.'"

Finally, it has been expressly decided, in accordance with the cases above referred to, that life insurance is not interstate commerce, or commerce at all. Though the transactions may be interstate, they are not commerce, and the fact that they are interstate—not being commerce—cannot be said to confer any jurisdiction on the Federal government.

We think that in the consideration of this question, Congress should give some thought to what the Supreme Court has said. At any rate, the question of power should be thoroughly settled before there is any attempt to wield it. With that elt of the way, we shall be better able to consider the question on its merits.

HINTS FELONY IN FEED SUIT.

Accusing Finger Pointed at Litigant's Lawyer.

Deputy District Attorney Blows up Big Storm.

Keefer Declares He is Innocent of Any Wrong.

George A. Keefer, a well-known attorney of this city, was furiously denounced in open court yesterday and accused of having compounded a felony.

His accuser was Deputy District Attorney Paul McCormack.

"I intend to look into this matter further," said the incensed official, "and if it looks as it does now, I probably shall issue a criminal complaint."

The court before whom the case was tried had just finished scorching remarks at the expense of a young man on the witness stand; but McCormack interceded, and said that Keefer, the man's attorney, is the "arch conspirator."

The gist of the charge against Keefer is that he has used the District Attorney's office as a tool by which to intimidate a man named John Clayton into paying a bill owing to a feed store. It is stated that he has done the same thing before.

Clayton bought twenty-four tons of oat hay of the Central Feed and Fuel Company for $200; he did not pay the cash, but was trusted.

According to the testimony in the case, he resold the hay to another party for two or three dollars more per ton; but kept the money instead of paying his debt to the Central Fuel and Feed Company.

A crimial complaint was sworn to against Clayton, and he was arrested. It was stated at the District Attorney's office yesterday that Keefer is the man who secured the complaint.

After the man had been arrested, it is claimed that he was told the case would be dropped if the bill was settled.

To have dropped the criminal charge under these circumstances would, of course, be a felony.

When A. E. Nichols, the prosecuting witness, and one of the partners in the feed store, went on the witness stand yesterday, he made so mild a prosecutor that he was asked sharp questions.

When asked if he had not agreed to drop the case providing the money was returned, he said: "I told Mr. Keefer that of course if—if Mr. Clayton would restore the—the goods that we had no ill will against Mr. Clayton, and I also told Mr. Clayton."

As he was about to leave the witness stand, Justice Young stopped him and made some scathing, although courteous, remarks.

He explained to Nichols that he had placed himself in a precarious position. That, having caused the man's arrest, the matter was between the State of California and the man accused of crime; that if he conspired to have the case dismissed for the payment of money alleged to be due him, he was compounding a felony.

Nichols seemed to be greatly concerned over the court's words. McCormack immediately sprang to his feet and angrily moved to dismiss the criminal charge against Clayton on the ground that no case of embezzlement had been made out.

Then he added: "I do not think this man on the witness stand is so much to blame, although he has placed himself in a perilous position.

"But Your Honor, there is another man connected with this affair who is not ignorant of the law. There is an arch conspirator who is behind this compounding of a felony.

"I want to investigate this matter further. It may be that I shall issue a complaint.

"This whole business has been trumped up between Nichols and his astute counsel, Mr. Keefer."

McCormack said that Nichols had gone to Keefer's office with the case and the latter had gone to the District Attorney's office and secured a complaint.

A young man, said to be a clerk in Keefer's office, jumped up in the courtroom and entered a protest in behalf of Keefer.

Keefer was asked afterward for his version of the case. He said the case was in the hands of his partner and he didn't know anything about it.

VENTURA.

NATURAL GAS DIMINISHES.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

VENTURA, Jan. 30.—A. S. Cooper, the mineralogist, has been here for several days examining the gas wells of the local gas company. Since being first put into operation the wells have materially decreased in gas flow, until now not more than 16,000 feet of gas is obtained daily, a loss of nearly half of what they first produced. Mr. Cooper says that the trouble is that the hasty work in the first place has left the wells faulty and they have filled with silt and stopped the flow. He says that there is plenty of gas there, and that it is his opinion the output can be quadrupled. The company is now making gas to help out its natural product, and it is stated that the desire is to get as large a natural gas flow as possible in order that the gas may be piped to the Thompson ranch, the property of the owners of the gas plant. It is the intention to put the ranch on the market to settlers, and to have both light and gas for them.

WIER-SANCHEZ.

Miss Josie Sanchez, a popular belle of this city, and youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Sanchez, yesterday afternoon became the wife of William Wier of Barstow. GIVES MESSAGE TO HER RACE.

"WE WANT TO BE TRUSTED," SAYS MRS. WASHINGTON.

Wife of Noted Negro Educator Addresses Three Thousand of Her People at Night Meeting—Refinement and Learning Make Her a Striking Figure—To Speak for Young Folks.

Mrs. Booker T. Washington was given an enthusiastic reception by 3000 colored people last night at the African M. E. Church, Eighth street and Towne avenue.

In the address delivered by the guest of honor there was no reference whatever to anything that has been said concerning her visit to this city, nor any intimation, even by the slightest hint, that she has met with any slight at the hands of the white club women.

Mrs. Washington is a large and fine-looking woman, and made a striking figure on the platform. Neither in accent nor appearance is Mrs. Washington's race disclosed. Only close inspection reveals it in her color. Her ease of manner and choice of language proclaim her refinement and education. She speaks with a magnificent voice.

Mrs. Warner, president of one of the clubs of colored women, acted as chairman of the meeting; Mrs. Cotton greeted the guest in a neat speech, the gist of which was that as the wife of one who had been proclaimed the greatest American, by a recent orator at an educational meeting, Mrs. Washington had reached even a higher pinnacle of fame; Mrs. Wilbur spoke of the guest's splendid work for her race among women's clubs, while Mrs. Soto capped the climax by greeting her as "the wife of a king of education."

The great burst of applause that this occasioned was the event of the evening. Solos were sung by Mrs. Owen and Miss Holmes.

When Mrs. Washington finally was introduced, she was greeted with the handkerchief salute, followed by a vigorous clapping of hands, and at many points in her address applause interrupted her.

"I hardly know what to say when I come before a great audience of men and women of my race like this, who I know are gathered here to show appreciation of what my husband is doing for his people. It is a great thing to him to have the love and affection of the people for whom he works."

These were her opening sentences, prefacing a more formal address on "The Advancement of the Colored Race."

"Many of you know all about it," she said, "but it pays sometimes to get together and talk about ourselves. It is well to hear something of the good and not be always hearing the bad, and I come especially to speak for the four million colored women, many of whom are just as sweet and pure as any woman can be, despite the fact that a western woman has said that she could not conceive such a thing as a virinous colored woman. We want to be trusted; we want people who have stood by us to stand by us longer.

"Nobody has a right to judge a people by those they find on the street corners; you judge any other race by their home life. We want to be all that people expect us to be, but we cannot reasonably be expected to do in a generation what the white race has required hundreds of years to do."

She gave much valuable information concerning the work that is being accomplished by education, and cited special instances of self-sacrificing work by colored women from the schools for the elevation of the race. At the close of her address she received a great ovation and was presented with a magnificent bouquet of sweet violets and one of carnations.

On Friday morning Mrs. Washington will deliver an address especially for young people, in Wesley Chapel, Eighth and Wall streets.

CROWN FOR MODJESKA.

Knights of Columbus Will Give Laurel Wreath and Floral Shower on Opening Night.

The Knights of Columbus are planning a sensational reception for the honorable actress Helena Modjeska, when she visits this city next week.

They will take 600 seats for her opening performance, and will decorate the theater in brilliant floral colors.

More than $1000 worth of flowers have been donated for free use on that night and souvenir bouquets will be sold to defray some of the expenses of the occasion.

The climax of the evening will be toward its close, when Joseph Scott, as the man in chief charge of affairs, will crown Mme. Mojeska with a wreath of Roman laurel, hailing her in an appropriate speech, as the queen of the stage.

The play will be "Macbeth."

IT IS A FACT

Buffalo (N. Y.) Times.

In view of the general belief in the incurability of chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes the John J. Fulton Co. of San Francisco, wrote us asking us to send a representative to interview three parties in this city, two of whom have recovered and the third is getting well.

A member of our staff went to one of the parties on Jefferson St. to investigate. He is a business man here. He gave the reporter the following facts:

He had a friend who was so far gone with Diabetes that he could hardly move. Later he was astonished to see him back again at his employment. Meanwhile his wife developed the same disease. Later she, too, was again about her daily avenation.

The business man in question was intensely interested, as he was a great sufferer himself from Diabetes. He learned that their recoveries had been effected by the Fulton Compounds for Bright's Disease and Diabetes, and he procured the treatment for himself, with the result that the cramps and pains that attend this heretofore incurable disease entirely disappeared and he has resumed the personal care of his business.

It so happened that the member of the Times staff who verified these facts also knows of another case in this city that is yielding to the same treatment.

That chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes, deemed fatal the world over, are now cured by the Compounds discovered in San Francisco by Professor Fulton is being established here as well as in California.—Buffalo Times.

We are agents for the Fulton Compounds referred to above—the only cure known for Bright's Disease and Diabetes. Recoveries 97 per cent. Send for free booklet. Owl Drug Co., Los Angeles.

NUMBER 7

Oh jhar, Perfessur. Pick 'em out. What you say goes at Silver Gulch. Everybody sez them lots in KENDALL'S BERRY LAND TRACT will double this year—yessurree.

I believe, Richard, with our Bank President, that the prices, the soil, the three electric lines, the street improvements, the direction of the city's growth—everything, render these lots the most desirable and profitable investment now or heretofore offered. Since K. L. B. T. is on Vernon avenue, between Vermont avenue and Figueroa street, and remember, Richard, only 1-4 down and NO INTEREST.

Gee, Perfessur, let's go there tomorrow mornin' airly. Adios.

ARTESIA

Midway Between Los Angeles and Santa Ana

EASY TERMS

For the man or woman who is seeking a safe, profitable investment, Artesia Townsite offers an unequaled opportunity. Artesia is developing mightily, and there is a substantial basis of substantial worth behind this development. Artesia is the center, and natural shipping and trading point for the rich, well watered, productive country all around it. It is already the important point on the Pacific Electric Road to Santa Ana, and with daily increasing business, strategic location and best surroundings realty values are stiffening and the demand for property increasing. Get in at Artesia early, and you will reap handsome financial returns. A visit to the property and understanding of the situation will demonstrate this to your satisfaction. Take P.E. cars, Santa Ana line, at Sixth and Main Sts.
